7. Commodore's message
 - a. Reminded everyone of the Mission of SDAYC. The current Board met to review the mission and look at possible changes to the format that have existed in the past.
 - b. Introduced the current Board
 - c. The Board wants more interaction between the Clubs and sharing of idea. The meetings will be focused on the themes from the mission each month.
 - d. Requested that all Clubs pick up the printed Calendars at the front of the Club and take back to distribute at their Clubs
 - e. Mentioned the Dave Perry event that was a success with over 100 people, held at SWYC. SDAYC funded the amount of Dave's fee that wasn't collected in the $10 fee to attend, approx. $600.
8. Speaker presentation: (20 Minutes max.)
 - a. Dave Viereg (SDYC) & Chris Bertorelli (CCYC) & other clubs reps
 - b. Panel discussion –
 - i. SDYC has dues for the Cruising Fleet, that pays for a variety of things over the year, included in their dues cost is their Cruising Fleet burgee that is flown below the Club's Burgee. Other Clubs do not
 - ii. SDYC has a Cruising Facebook page, they also use a Whatsapp group for those that have signed up for the raftup, which is used for communication during the raftup.
 - iii. SDYC cruising committee is 4 people, Secretary, Treasurer, Vice Captain, Captain, they work their way up to Captain.

- iv. CCYC hosts monthly cruise fleet meetings to encourage people to participate, where they teach things about how to raft up, so that beginners can learn and get involved.
- v. General feeling was that all the SDAYC Clubs should communicate what they are doing, so that there can be some coordination between the Clubs. Possibly creating a Cruise Calendar, similar to the Race Calendar.

9. Introduction and reports of SDAYC Board of Directors (previously in Commodore's message)

- a. Repeated the Rules of trying to avoid repeating the names multiple times.
