

LAGOON LINES

October 2026

Bob Munson

FROM THE COMMODORE:

We are sending this Lagoon Lines out early this month because the company we use to produce our monthly news bulletin is going out of business on October 1st. Laura and Debbie have been working very hard to find an alternative. We will keep you informed.

The club had an excellent Regatta last month, and everyone seemed to have a good time. Halloween is coming up, and I'm sure our Entertainment Committee has something spooky for us.

Commodore,

Bob Munson

THE VICE'S VOICE: CHERI HONEYCUTT

Fall is in the air, and it finally feels great to go outside again! So come to the club and enjoy some "deck" time!!! And to make it even better, our weekend specials are still going on!

If you missed the All Hands Meeting on Thursday, September 24th, you missed a very lively and informative meeting. As Vice Commodore, I was honored to announce to the membership that after listening to members' comments and suggestions, the board voted at the September meeting to ask Chef Gregory to be the General Manager of the club, and he accepted the position. For the past five weeks, Gregory, Christina, and Houston have united the staff together with the aim of giving the membership better service and make your time at the club more enjoyable. The next time you're in the club, please take a minute to thank them. If, for some reason, you are not happy with the service or the food, please be respectful to the staff. As Vice Commodore, I'm at the club almost every night, and I'll be happy to talk to you. If I'm not there, please take your complaint to another Flag officer or board member. I know it's nearly impossible to make everyone happy, but I'm sure willing to try.

We have a lot of fun events lined up for October ending with the annual Halloween Party on Saturday, October 31. Along with entertainment during the month, we're going to have another "Menu Meeting" on Thursday, October 8th at 6:00. Gregory and Houston have been working on a Winter Menu which will be introduced in November. They have a few new items which will be available for taste testing. If you'd like to come, please bring any ideas or suggestions and share them with the staff. If you have ideas or suggestions and won't be able to attend the meeting, please send me an email or leave a written note at the club.

I'm looking forward to more fun times ahead and seeing you around the club enjoying yourself as you get to know your fellow members better.

Cheri Honeycutt, Vice Commodore

FLEET CAPTAIN REPORT:

The fleet was active during September, participating in regattas. Thanks to skippers Tsuruyo Vasquez, Pete Buckley, and Kevin Marshall for their excellent performances and representation of GLYC at regattas along the Gulf Coast. Thanks to Kevin Marshall and all the members who volunteered their time and boats to ensure the success of the Hobie Wave Formula Regatta. The regatta took many months to plan and execute. Thanks to the club staff for their great level of service and hospitality. Lastly, thanks to the membership for sharing our club to allow the fleet to provide safe and fun regattas. I will be scheduling an adult sailing camp for October (looking for some cooler weather!). Stay tuned to the weekly specials and activities emails for scheduling.

Thanks again to all, and I will see you on the water!

Tom Wagner

MESSAGE FROM THE REAR COMMODORE: JOE LINDSTROM

Not much to talk about this month, other than we are about to start having some cooler days, but with water that is still warm. Get out on the water and enjoy it. It just doesn't get any better than September and October on the Gulf Coast.

I will be chasing a few additional lease agreements for the wet/dry / beach boat locations. If you haven't signed an agreement for 2026, expect an email from me.

Currently, we have the following boat situation.

- Dry slips are full, with three people on the wait list
- Wet slips
- West is full, with two on the wait list
- East side: we have three spots available, with one that has a lift for sale
- Beach spots have a bit of space

September kicked off the fall festivities with Mel Knapp and a back-to-school party on 9/4. Zachary Thomas Diedrich didn't disappoint with his awesome country vibe, which included several of his original songs. Greg Mihaly came back again this year to entertain for the shrimp boil on 9/18. The Deep South Band brought a night of country dancing to the club to round out the month.

Now it's October, but we're still waiting for fall! Entertainment for October is hot, but the club inside will be nice and cool to enjoy the music, so come on out and join your friends.

TRIVIA NIGHT

Third Thursday of the Month @ 6:30pm

Who was the main character in the series of children's books published under the pseudonym Carolyn Keene? This question, along with nineteen others, was posed to the 37 players on the four teams competing in September's Trivia Night. If you don't know the answer, you will find it somewhere in this issue of the Lagoon Lines. Look carefully because your editor loves to make you work for it! This evening was a little different as there were two co-hosts with each giving half the questions. The Ringers started out great but stumbled in the second half and ended up in the caboose. The Chandelliers got off to a rough start and despite having a great second half never really recovered and ended up in third. The Nattis fared okay in the first half but rallied in the second half to tie up second place. First was taken by a combination of the Skippers and the Westies who joined forces after both teams had a number of their typical players be no-shows. My mother always said two heads, or in this case, two teams are always better than one. Well done, everyone!

Make your plans now for the October 15 Trivia Night. The format is 20 questions, featuring nine multiple-choice, nine fill in the blank, and two multiple answer, multiple point value questions. The cost is only $10 per team, no limit on team size. Bring your smartie-pants friends and challenge the other teams in a fun-filled, entertaining evening of questions you forgot you knew the answers to. The fun starts when you get here, but the question start at 6:30.

Crappy Crafter's Corner

Second Thursday of the Month @ 10am

Laura Willgren

Lynn Wentz

Happy birthday to our October birthday friends: Vikki Burand, Oct. 4; Deb Schreider, Oct. 8; Rose Cook, Oct. 11; Dean Hoffman, Oct. 14; Kathy McCaffrey, Oct. 22.

Thanks to Anne Muth, who has joined the Crappy Crafters Team leads. We know she will bring great ideas, enthusiasm, and support.

Our September meeting continued a tradition of collecting items for our troops overseas, organizing the donations, and filling the boxes to be sent. This year we supported Kathy St Clair's son in law who is a helicopter pilot on a ship that will relieve the USS Lincoln. His squadron consists of about 150 members. Crappy Crafters donated the postage, a massive quantity of snacks, games/cards, holiday decorations, and personal items. 15 boxes were packed with lots of tender loving care! All 15 boxes were taken to the Post Office by Laura and Julie. Thanks, Laura, for all your hard work on this effort.

Our next meeting on Oct. 8 will be lunch and walking around downtown Pensacola. We will meet at the club at 10 and caravan downtown to enjoy the sights, shops, and lunch. It should be a fun time for all!

TAI CHI

REDUCE STRESS AND FIND BALANCE WITH TAI CHI UNDER THE CLUB!

Tuesdays & Thursdays @ 8:30am

A recent AARP publication featured an article on the importance of flexibility as we age. The way to test for this is to stand with your back to a wall and see if you can make four points touch at the same time: back of your head, upper back/shoulder blades, butt, and heels. If you have problems with this test or want to do this easier, consider giving tai chi a try. The low impact exercises help build core strength, improve balance and mobility, and increases your very important flexibility. The movements are designed with seniors' bodies in mind but can benefit persons of all ages and levels of fitness. GLYC offers twice-weekly member-led tai chi sessions every Tuesday and Thursday morning from 8:30 to 9:00. No special equipment is needed, but the sessions are outside, so dress for the weather. Newcomers are always welcome. There is no charge for these sessions, but the results truly priceless.
