Commodore's Comments:

Summer has officially arrived at LBYC. The Dorn Regatta was a success with 26 MC sailors braving the high winds on Saturday and calm on Sunday. This was followed in June by the Amazing Race Party. It was great to see the enthusiasm of the 9 teams that competed with lots of family fun, followed by a hearty dinner. Thanks to the committee chairs Dave and Mary Kay Davenport, Daniel Bach and their ambitious committee members. Our X fleet is off to Pine Lake for the Trap with the LBSS Opti Regatta finishing up the month of June.

We now move on to the 4th of July festivities including fireworks, the Pancake Breakfast from 8-10am and the Poor Boat Race at 12:00. Mark your calendars for the Lake Beulah Sailing School Auction on July 10.

By supporting the LBSS Auction you are supporting this world class organization and its mission. The tuition for the students only covers a portion of the LBSS costs, and the auction proceeds help with the rest. This is a great way for the members of our club to promote youth sailing and prepare our young sailors for future club membership. Please plan to participate on July 10, 2010 and enjoy all the activities, food, and fun that make this a memorable evening.

Have a safe time on the water. Steve Rotier

Editor's Note

The submission deadline for the next issue will be Monday, July 12th. As always, your articles and photos make the Mainsheet what it is. Please send them to dcstein@wi.rr.com as early as possible. A special thank you to Penny Clayton and Pat Jarecki for their help in mailing the Mainsheet in the off season and in the summer. Happy 4th, Carol

FROM THE SAILING COMMODORE

This Fourth of July weekend will have limited sailing this year to allow for all other festivities and family time. Opti races on Friday at 5:45, MC/X racing at 10:30 on Saturday and then our annual Poor Boat race on Sunday at 12:00 noon. This is always a lot of fun to see all the different boats sailing.

The X Quad Lakes Regatta is being hosted by us on July 6 & 7. Carol and Robert Klement are the chairpersons. This should have a good turnout and I know many have volunteered to help, but if you are available please let Carol know. Extra hands are always welcome. Kitchen help and more spectator boats would be a great. This regatta was first sailed on Lake Beulah back in 1970 and for the most part has been sailed here every fourth year ever since. So this year marks the 40th. Anniversary of the Quads and it is neat that it is back on our lake. Best of luck to our X sailors as they sail against the X-boaters from Pine, Cedar and Nawawica.

C boaters, remember to register for this years ILYA Invite. Frank and Candace are putting a "regatta to remember" together. The more boats registered early, the better. Also, this racing will help make up for all the races we have not been able to sail due to weather conditions. Chairman Frank has told me that if every Beulah C registers and sails, he will guarantee good winds and that all races will be sailed.

Please remember to check the PRO/Signal boat schedule and fulfill your assigned responsibilities. Also remember to turn off all electronics on the signal boat. All the sailors appreciate your efforts for them, thanks for volunteering!

Good Sailing, Jay Hiller

Stephanie Roble wins Advanced Open Invitational

The second annual Advanced Open Invitational, a Grade 3 match racing event hosted by the U.S. Sailing Center of Sheboygan, was won by collegiate All-American and LBYC member Stephanie Roble, who defeated an international field that had competitors from Greece and Canada as well as from all over the U.S. Roble, a senior at Old Dominion University, sailed with her ODU teammates Katrina Williams and Shannon Wilkins and her coach at ODU Charlie Higgins. They sailed well in both heavy air and light. Stephanie was carrying a penalty in the second race of the finals and managed to complete it and then beat Andreadis by one boat length to win the regatta.

LBSS AUCTION JULY 10, 2010

Cocktails 6

Dinner 7

Dinner Reservations due by July 7, 2010

The Berg's and their committee are cooking up a slow cooked, succulent, Prime Rib with marinated shrimp kabobs, a classic Caesar Salad, vegetable, whole grain dinner rolls and a decadent desert. All this for our usual bargain price of $20 per person.

Please contact Dave or Marge Berg at 847-612-6050 or BeulahDave@ME.com for your reservations.

The evening will be filled with games, a horse race, heads or tails, fish race, a square drawing, silent and voice auction with items price for every budget. Watch your email for an updated list of featured donations.

Included in this issue is a donation form that you can print to make your cash or merchandise donation.

While we can all be justly proud of the Olympic aspirants, Collegiate All Americans, ILYA X and Opti Champions that got their start at LBSS, we can be just as proud of the Green fleetier that just finished their first race or the X boater that just had their best race, the crew that just had their best whisker pole set, or the adult learn to sail participant that just rounded their first buoy. Our mission is to instill a life long love of our sport in our students and the LBSS tries hard every day to do just that. The LBSS Auction is our major fundraiser every year. Please support LBSS and its mission.

Call Dale or Nancy Roble at 642-5690 with any auction questions. You may email, fax, or deliver your pledge sheets to any LBSS BOD member.

Jeff Hudson, Kent Haeger, Carrie Franzene, Dave Berg, Peter Keck, Jim Kutschenreuter, Jim Komars, Peg Komars, Dale Roble, Nancy Schmidt or Joe Skotarzak.

We all look forward to seeing you there.

Knucklehead Award Material? A somewhat groggy, not fully awake, possibly aging MC sailor, by the name of Glen Kreinbrink went out to his boat to get ready for the race. He pulled his sail onto the boom and struggled with it. Something was wrong! He was dumbfounded until he saw the back of the sail with a grommet hole in it. He had put the sail on backwards! Nice going Glen!

Social News

by Candace Porter

July 4th Pancake Breakfast 8-10am at $6.00 Come one and all to the Club for two hours on July 4th. The LBYC will be the flapjack headquarters of East Troy! We have the best breakfast band in the land: On bacon, we have the talented Kathy Kiernan singing the "I Got the Beulah Bacon Blues". On pancakes, Gil Brickler and Keith Beren are lively with the "Flip Those Flapjacks Faster" jive. Mixing it up are Joe and Caroline Skotarzak, who really do sing well, crooning "Beatin' the Batter, Mate." Add sausage, milk, OJ and some fruit and it's a morning to share with the family and visiting company. $6 each The bar will be open for Bloody Marys and Screwdrivers or Relaxing Tea (non alcoholic). Join us for a tradition.

The Kid's Carnival will follow. Andrea Jarecki has some fun planned for all your kids and grandchildren. Don't forget the annual Egg Toss.

Wednesday Nights continue with only a break in sailing and cookouts on the night of the Sidestay's Float Boat Tour. Thursdays are a bit more irregular or perhaps more fun – take your pick- as the busy X regatta season begins.

Friday Night Fish Frys are cancelled. While those of us who enjoyed them will miss the exceptional food, the response was too few to maintain the event. You will have an opportunity to see Chef Troy's work at the Commodore's Ball.

And speaking of the Commodore's Ball, it is a more casual, family-priced event. The entertainment cost will be borne by the adults but the children will eat at a much reduced rate to allow our youth members to celebrate the day with our Commodore Steve, wife Sandy, son Jason and his X boat granddaughter, Alicia. Those Hawaiian Browns have some tricks up their sleeves which will make this a real treat for all. Get ready for a great Pig Roast at the club to honor Steve's term on the LBYC Board as treasurer and now Commodore.

The next big weekend event is the Sailing School Auction. The Sailing School takes over the building for the Big Gig which will feature prime rib and shrimp. The bar is always profitable thanks to all of you attending. The LBYC Board has donated $500 to the sailing school toward this event. The Sailing School pays rent to the club which in turn supports our operations. Come enjoy the bar and dinner with both organizations benefiting from your participation.

The ILYA C Invitational begins in two weeks. The club will be busy with sailors Thursday, Friday, Saturday and Sunday. Frank Davenport has a pontoon cocktail cruise planned for Friday before the casual party. Saturday will be a steak fry.

A “Competitive” Amazing Race 2010?

By Dave Davenport

Birds flying...Fresh...Homemade lemonade... A song in the air... Balloons... A ride on the lake.

All this sounds like a beautiful summer evening on Lake Beulah – one we have all enjoyed. Yet, it was the Amazing Race 2010, and not quite as it sounds. On June 26, Mary K and I hosted the second Amazing Race on Beulah. Quite an interesting evening. To say our members are competitive is to say Katrina was a storm.

The night began with instructions given – clearly pointing out that teams should retain all clues and props from the race. The first challenge – Name That Tune – Mary Berg names the first song. After guessing the song each team was then to complete a puzzle that had their clue on the back. They were to tow an Opti. But to where? Some were spot on and within moments determined that the dollar bill in their bag of goodies signified Buck Island. Others tried to pressure the Judge into secreting the clue (you know who you are!)

Teams raced to Buck Island where waiting Judge Joe Sko and Farmer Tim were in for a treat. Frantic teams selected “one” member to make lemonade. This slowly dissolved into teams “helping” the person, and crushing lemons by hand. Most teams could have been disqualified at this point. When all were gone, we observed Joe yelling to us, “THEY ARE ALL CHEATERS!” Competitive?

Off to the now non-existent High Dive (lost without our knowledge) where awaiting Judge Dan Bach was distributing clues. One team drove past him twice, while he waved, but did not see him. I caught them in the channel to explain where the clue was, only to find a “Bird Flying” but not the feathered kind. Competitive?

After figuring that the next location was Judge Frank Davenport’s house, teams had to blow up 12 balloons and then one team member had to stuff them under a large T-Shirt, and search the property for a little gnome. Lots of yelling and running around. Once found, off to Haeger’s. Competitive?

At Judge Haeger’s, teams were challenged to play a game of flip cup with the lemonade they had made (some had dirt and grass floating in it) and then one member, a game of baggo. An interesting site – little Bridget Barr playing flip cup as if she were a pro, not missing a beat. A proud moment for Mom and Dad, knowing she’ll beat all the guys at Flip cup in a few years...competitive!

Teams then raced on to the Fat Lady Bench to sing – rather – HOWL a rendition of the Star Spangled Banner. Teams were sent to the back of line because they didn’t know the words. OK. Tough to remember them all. Not singing loudly enough. OK, bashful possibly. Not standing or putting hands over chest? Not acceptable! A frustrated team, seeing someone speed away, simply blew off the third try and flew another bird at Judge, Joe Sko. Competitive?

Last, we raced to the club for the finish. But not so fast. Teams had to carefully collect all clues and props from the race, place them in an Opti, and then swim the Opti to shore. If the judge declared all items present, they could get their final clue. Youth proved speed, with two of the youngest teams arriving first. But both left critical pieces of the race behind. Remember that gnome, that puzzle? Disqualified. Other teams raced ahead without all their members only to get disqualified for not being together. One of the members was heard shouting, “This is the worst race ever!” Ok, it was only the second and maybe not as good as the first. Who knows? Competitive?

It was the 5th team to arrive at the club that was able to successfully finish the race. The Dave Berg-Molly Barr team was able to bring home everything for a win. After a hard fought race, we adjourned to a BBQ dinner. I must say that the beer was an especially good way to quiet the continued arguing of rules, reminiscing of the action, and laughing at the “competitive” nature of our members. Competitive just doesn’t cut it. Nuts is closer, at least my kids think so. Thanks to the committee and our esteemed judges for their hard work! Until next time.....

C Fleet Shines in New York at Nationals

by Joe Skotarszak

Our C scow fleet has been busy the last couple weekends with regattas near and far. Two weeks ago a whole slew of B-boats made the short trip down to Delevan for the revamped MIR. Our conquering heroes were the always-tough Delusions team of Kent and Mike, taking first place for the event in a good Nationals warm-up. Moving on to the main event, Father's Day weekend five teams of hale and hearty Road Warriors made the trip east to Chautauqua NY. This is a beautiful area and a wonderful place to sail, well worth the long drive as anyone that's been there will tell you! Conditions were perfect, and three races were completed both Friday and Saturday. Thus the regatta ended early so dads could get home for Father's Day.

It was quite the eventful weekend for the B team! Where should we begin? How about in the water, as in the water that Papa Kutsch hit with a splash when he fell out of the boat at the windward mark (if you haven't been there lately, check out the awesome picture on www.lbyc.us). Fortunately young George managed to keep things under control while his dad was lollygagging around behind the boat, eventually dragging the ol' man out of the sea so that they could race on. In further Kutsch excitement, they went out and WON the very next race, proving that good things happen when everyone stays in the boat.

In other news, there's a new C-scow sailor on Lake Beulah. You might notice the not-remotely-slight family resemblance as the red-topped Andrew Bohl follows in papa Dave Bohl and Mama Vicki Haeger Bohl's c-scow sailing footsteps! Last weekend he took the B-1, along with super crew Brad Roble, out to NY for some C-scow racing with Uncle Kent and the B team. Results were mixed but I'm quite sure they managed to have a good time!

Moving on to the aforementioned Uncle Kent, he and super duper crew Mike Greeson had an eventful weekend as well. The highlight of which was when they WON race #4 - see www.lbyc.us for a very cool picture of them crossing the finish line victorious! Unfortunately the Delusionaires spent an uncharacteristic amount of time in the teens during the event, dropping them below their usual top-5 standing. The B-18 made the trip east as well, though with only one Brickler aboard. You might have heard that Molly Brickler gave birth to a beautiful baby girl on the eve of the Nationals, so Kevin spent his first Father's Day weekend at home. Mike Tyriver filled in ably, but there was a lack of that usual Brickler burst, and they clearly had 11 on the brain as that was their finish in three of the races! Not sure what that's about...

Finally, last and opposite of least, we have the TOP BEE IN NY!!! Frank Davenport, more than ably assisted by the superduperpooperscooper crew team of Ron and Andrea Jarecki (photo of them on the web page too!) finished fourth overall for the event! They sailed a wonderfully consistent series with four top ten and three top five finishes including two seconds! A great series leading the Beulah way! In the final reckoning we had 303 in 4th, team Kutsch 5th, and the 12 and 18 in 9th and 10th, two of the top five and four in the top 10. Nice work by the Beulah C boaters!

Frank Davenport relaxing on deck after his "Amazing" 4th place victory

Kate Takes Second at Minnetonka On June 26 & 27 Kate Klement and Teresa Westin raced B-111 in the MYC "X" Invitational regatta on Lake Minnetonka, MN. Arriving at 2:44am and launching at 7:15am they finished 4th in light wind. Sunday brought medium wind and a 1st for the girls resulting in 2nd place overall. W66 Eddie Cox won in a 17 boat fleet. Ferguson's provided housing and Ekholms the Saturday night party, further strengthening friendships of parents and X boaters.

Switch!!!!!! if you can't judge or be on the signal boat

If you or your team cannot make your judge or signal boat assignment, please be sure to switch with another member. This allows races to start on time.

Julie Haeger, Rear Commodore

Father's Day and 25 Years of "The Dorn"

by Doug Dorn

25 years, a quarter of a century, that's a long time in anyone's book. Well that's how long LBYC has hosted the George Dorn Memorial MC Regatta. Over the years, the club has worked hard to make the off-lake participants, sailors and guests, feel welcome and provide them with worthy competition from our own fleet. (Note: Beulah sailors have won nearly half of the Geo Dorn Regattas.) LBYC has done such a good job that many of the off-lake competitors for years have given up most of their Father's Day weekend to join us for sailing, camaraderie, and food (Ah the food! It always gets rave reviews.) On behalf of the committee, the Wills, Riedls, and Dorns, I would like to thank all who pitch in to make the regatta work and create an environment the sailors enjoy and has them marking Fathers Day weekend as "The Dorn" weekend.

Now to the sailing, Saturday morning gave the competitors brisk, shifty winds and meaningful challenges for the single-handed. Daughter/crew Jenny and I had a shore-side seat for Bruce Gallagher's win in Race 1 because I got careless at the weather mark and sent us "turtle." PRO Nan Norris opted not to go back to back in the morning due to the winds and the fleet went back out later in the afternoon with good wind for Race 2. Jeff Annis, out of Georgia, had a fantastic start and seemed to extend his lead at every mark. Although Jenny and I finished 3rd, I don't think I could even read Jeff's sail number most of the time. Race 1 winner Gallagher finished 2nd. For the third race, the wind moderated and those with two on board slowed downwind, but the singles loved it and moved out. Rich Lorenz (Burlington, WI) helped his regatta standing by being the third different race winner.

Sunday Nan optimistically took the fleet out before the morning thermals died, but her race crews couldn't figure out where to place the marks. So the regatta was declared complete.

The Haegers, Al (9th) and Milt (10th), were the only LBYC sailors to crack the top 10 overall. Standings were: 1. Jeff Annis, 2. Bruce Gallagher, 3. Rich Lorenz, 4. Dan Fink, 5. Bill Bischoff. The rest of the Beulah contingent played their roles of gracious hosts Beulahfully.

18th LBSS Optimist Dinghy Regatta

by Jeff Hudson

This week, our students kicked off the summer regatta season with two events. On Monday, LBSS hosted the 18th annual "Beulah Optimist Dinghy Regatta". The event was attended by thirty two Red White & Blue Championship competitors and nineteen Green Fleeters. Under clear blue skies, the RWB sailors found winds from the northwest at 10 to 15 mph, ideal conditions for sailing on Beulah. Pewaukee's Augie Dale, a former LBSS Opti student, took home the Labanauskus Perpetual Trophy. In second was Beulah's Brooke Komas who sailed strongly despite the big breeze. Also finishing in the top 10 were Alec Bischoff, John Barr, and Mary Berg who placed 5th, 6th, and 8th, respectively. Brooke also won the Blue fleet, followed by Bischoff 3rd, Berg 4th, and Gregory Westin 5th. Barr led the Beulah sailors in the White fleet, finishing 2nd ahead of Alex Keck 4th, Patrick Schmidt 5th, Erin Sullivan 6th, Eric Komas 7th, Caroline Skotarszak 9th and Nora Kiernan 10th, John Berg 11th, Ryan Komas 13th, and Brigit Barr 14th. Kent Haeger performed the PRO duties on the Championship course, supported by his brother Matt and by Jim Kutschenreuter. Instructors Joe Kutschenreuter and Will Haeger provided coaching during the event.

Elsewhere on the Green Fleet course, three young Beulah ladies competed. Jacqueline Komas finished 5th, followed by Jada Boykin in 9th and Elizabeth Riforgiate in 14th. Jeff Hudson performed the PRO duties, supported by Gabrielle Bui and Neal Klement. Sarah Riforgiate scored for both RWB and Green Fleets. Thank you to all who volunteered!

The LBSS traveled to first Class X event, the "Training Regatta at Pine" or TRAP before returning home to prepare for the Class X Quad Lakes Regatta, hosted by LBYC. Note – Beulah sailors have won this event in each of the past six consecutive years – Good luck to all!

Sidestays' Corner

From the President

Wow, the 4th of July is just around the corner. It always seems to be a mid-point of lake activities. July is a busy month for Sidestays, so mark your calendars for the next Noon Social on July 6th.. Enjoy some time with your friends and also a delicious lunch at no charge.

The Float Boat committee has worked very hard and has four beautiful homes for this year's tour. So..... invite your friends to join you for a wonderful day and get your reservations in early.

Float Boat Tour Homes 2010

Deb McVicker and Tom Barnes, "Flatlanders" from Long Grove and Carol Stream, are the brand new owners of this total and totally wonderful Hackbarth re-do. It's a house we all know, in the cove that is home to LBYC. You will be blown away by the transformation that has taken place in the six short months since their purchase. John Hackbarth promised them they would be "in" by Memorial Day, and they were! But beyond that, they are already geared up to share their results with the public! Amazing! It doesn't hurt that Jane Thompson is the furnishing and decorating part of this team effort. Thank you one and all!

This contemporary 1940's house has a history with several LBYC members including the Lipperts and the Bohls, and most recently, the Klines. It had even been divided in several separate living units for shared enjoyment of this wonderful lakefront property. Deb and Tom, both professional photographers, have a history on Lake Beulah too. They left a property near Stringers Bridge Road on Upper Beulah that is now occupied by their daughter's family. Between these two Beulah locations, they cover the lake and can offer a lot of sleeping and playing opportunities to their large and blended families.

Shari & Jeff Mueller are the owners of this beautiful custom built home tucked in a quiet cove leading to the part of Lake Beulah known as Mill Pond. This young family includes their dog Casey, a bichon frise, a 2 1/2 year old son, Alex, and 6 year old princess, Ashley, who is a new Opti sailor at LBYC! Jeff is also enrolled in the adult "Learn to Sail" program. Shari and Jeff, both CPAs, met while both were working at Northwestern Mutual, where Shari is still employed. Jeff works at Titus.

From the start they knew they wanted to build a lake home and searched the area. A friend, who knew of a newly available property on Beulah, steered them our way. They were the first to see the property on East Shore Road and made a bid on the spot. That was home for three years until they had their "ducks in a row" to build. When ready, they arranged for their starter home to be used in an exercise by the East Troy fire department. Where to live in the meantime became a concern as Shari and Jeff's little brood was growing. They wound up in a cottage on South Shore Drive and later in Terri Savage's coach house, as their dream home became a reality. You will love your tour of this home -- it is a "dream" in the making, utilizing all the time and talents of this special young family.
