

Half Staff – Juliet M. (Moran) Burgoyne

September 25, 2001

Juliet M. (Moran) Burgoyne, 88, wife of the late J. Albert Burgoyne, of 15 Prospect St., Rockport, died on Tuesday night, Sept. 25. She was born in Malden, on Feb. 27, 1913, of the late John F. and Maria (Fay) Moran.

Mrs. Burgoyne received her bachelor of arts from Regis College with highest honors in Latin and Greek. She later attended the Chandler School of Secretarial Service for Women from which she received a certificate of highest merit.

An accomplished classical pianist, Mrs. Burgoyne studied at the Boston Conservatory of Music and was an ardent supporter of the Boston Symphony.

Mrs. Burgoyne is survived by two sons, J. Albert Burgoyne Jr. and his wife, Diane, of Saudi Arabia, and Robert F. Burgoyne and his wife, Mari-Ann, of Wrentham; three grandchildren, Marissa, Abby and Daniel; a sister, Josephine Steckevecz of Cape Elizabeth, Maine; and a nephew, Edwin Moran Steckevecz of Cambridge.

She was predeceased by a sister, Ida Moran.