

Half Staff – Jack H. “Jake” Clements

1997

Jack H. “Jake” Clements, 85, husband of Geraldine C. (Kierstead) Clements, a former longtime resident of Rockport, died on Wednesday at the Greenery Health Care Center in Beverly, MA. He was born in Bristol, England, on Jan. 21, 1912, to the late Frank W. and Alice M. (Huxtible) Clements.

Mr. Clements worked for several companies as a sheet metalist and moved to Rockport in 1952.

Upon retirement, he and his wife operated a successful canvas bag business, “Jakes Bags” in Rockport.

Mr. Clements was a great boating enthusiast and served as a steward at the Sandy Bay Yacht Club in Rockport.

He was a veteran of World War II having served in the U.S. Army with the 10th Mountain Division.

Mr. Clements is survived by his wife, Geraldine Clements, now a resident of Framingham, and a step-daughter, Carol A. Pike of Holliston.

At the family’s request, services will be private. Contributions may be made to the charity of one’s choice.
