Class E Scow - Albert F. Gallun, Jr. - Harry Melges III Trophy

This trophy was presented in 1949 by Albert F. Gallun, Jr. It shall be awarded each year to the winner of the annual regatta and shall be awarded permanently to the skipper of any yacht who shall win the Class E Championship at the annual regatta for two successive years. Mr. Buddy Melges, winner for 1961 and 1962, has redonated the Albert F. Gallun, Jr. Trophy and he has requested that it remain known as the Albert F. Gallun, Jr. and that it be a perpetual trophy. Harry Melges III retired the trophy after three consecutive wins in 1988 and redonated the trophy as a perpetual trophy.

Class E Scow - The Winkler Corinthian Trophies

trophies are awarded annually to the two highest placing skippers in the ILYA Class E Championship Regatta who are not executives or employees of a boat builder, sailmaker or major fitting manufacturer for ILYA Scows. The purpose behind this concept is to encourage participation at the regatta by the average "weekend" sailor and give this type of competitor an opportunity to come home with a trophy.
