A view from the foredeck

Mark your calendars for a great regatta season!

I can't wait for the regatta season to begin. There is so much to look forward to, I scarcely know where to start. As happens every few years, our Invitational and Championship regattas seem to fall at the perfect time, on the perfect lakes, and include a bunch of special events that are going to make this summer more than memorable. The first big weekend is June 23-25. Pewaukee Yacht Club reprises its popular Ladies M-16 invitational regatta on Friday, which feeds right into the ILYA M-16 Invitational on the same lake. Pewaukee is the center of M-16 activity, so attendance should be great. Up at Green, the I-20 Invitational will share the ILYA's most beautiful big lake with the NCASA Nationals. Up at Cedar, our 2005 Club of the Year sponsors the Youth Championship Regatta, which is rapidly becoming a launching point for some of the finest youth and collegiate sailors in the country. It would be worth your while to drive up to Big Cedar just to watch the great sailing.

After we all recover from too many bratwurst on the fourth of July, the Opti No Tears sailors descend on Clear Lake. The next weekend, the Es and MCs sail on big waters perfectly suited to big fleets. For the E Invite, Bill and Beth Wyman have transformed Lake Winnebago into "the Big Kahuna." Hawaiian shirts are mandatory, coconut bras optional. The MCs will sail in Mad Town—one of the Inland's best regatta towns, and will feature a "Beat the Pros" race with staggered starts, based on the regatta standings. Many of you are familiar with handicap racing like this, and know how much fun and excitement it can generate.

The C invitational will be held right in the heart of Waukesha County Lake Country at Nagawicka. The Nagawicka Yacht Club is rolling out the widest red carpet we've seen for some time with guaranteed housing, 60 campsites reserved nearby, and a list of prizes and daily raffles that make this a "can't miss" regatta. Even better, it's the start of the summer-long celebration of 100 years of C scow sailing in the Inland. Even if you've just considered yourself a local lake sailor, and haven't traveled to an ILYA regatta in years, you should come celebrate this 100th birthday with us.

The same weekend, the A scows return for their invitational to where it all started 108 years ago—on White Bear Lake. This year's regatta promises to be even better than last year's spectacularly elegant event, and one of the races will be sailed over exactly the same six-knot race course that was used at the first-ever ILYA championship in 1898. Last year, there were over 100 spectator boats at the finish line of the last race.

At the end of July, the X boats travel to Minnetonka, home of 2005 champions Robbie Allen & David Carlson, and Eric Bowers & Addie Ferguson. This event is the premier single-fleet one-design youth event in the country. Almost every Olympian, national champion, and Rolex award winner produced by the Inland began their racing career in this regatta. For our young sailors, it's the highlight of the summer.

We end the ILYA schedule with an 11-day bash at Lake Geneva for the 2006 Annual Regatta. The A Scow One Design fleet kicks off the regatta on August 9 with a welcoming party, and starts racing on the 10th. On Friday, the 11th, a premier party for The Ultimate Ride features the film's narrator Gary Jobson. Es, I-20s, and MCs begin racing on Sunday, August 13, with parties every night. Cs, Open As, and M-16s have their welcoming party on Wednesday, and race the next three days with parties Thursday and Friday. Friday's party is the C-boat's 100th birthday party and includes the raffling-off of a brand new Melges C-Scow.

All of this information, and in much more detail, is in Scow Slants and on the many club and regatta websites.

All in all, the summer is filled with spectacular sailing opportunities. A lot of people (all volunteers) have worked very hard to make these regattas fun, exciting, and worth every penny of the entry fee. Honestly, I don't see how you could go to one of these regattas and not have a great time. But in the end, it's not about the volunteers who are doing so much for you, the individual member. It's about what you bring and add to the collective excitement of racing scows on the inland lakes.

After all, the Inland Lake Yachting Association is but an association of member clubs, comprised of people who love racing our wonderful sailing machines with friends on these gorgeous inland lakes. I invite you to share that experience with me this summer. Take a couple of vacation days and air out the old tent. Grab a couple of friends from your local lake and form a caravan. Reread Buddy's book and download the tuning guides from North Sails or Quantum. Buy a new pair of sailing gloves and reread Jim Smith's "I am not a hack" on the ILYA website.

Mark your calendars. I have. Commodore Tom Hodgson

Class A Scow Trophy Reunion

Class A Scow trophies: Weyerhauser, Perrigo, Gartz (back), Schmidt, Ordway, Gartz Invitational, Three Bells, Valentine (back), Pillsbury, Valentine Consolation, Sawyer, Felker, and Kimberly (insert, upper right). Winners: Willie Crear, Tom Burton, Bob Sevey, Blair Jenness, Brad Robinson, and Kevin Caulfield.

Other than at the Annual Championship Regatta, it isn't often that one can take a look at a complete set of class trophies at once. This feat was nearly accomplished when boat owners, crew, and skippers from Minnetonka got together for a group photo with their prizes from 2003 and 2004. All of the current ILYA perpetual trophies except the Kimberly were on display as well as Oshkosh Yacht Club's fabulous Sawyer and Felker Cups. All of these were won by skippers Tom Burton and Bob Sevey, and crew/owners Willie Crear, Blair Jenness, and Kevin Caulfield.

In 2006, the ILYA trophies will be divided by agreement between the A Scow Open and A Scow One Design fleets.

The Layline Team Eventhough we use funny names and try to maintain a light atmosphere with a comedian as our hold music, we are very serious about maintaining and delivering the most professional up-to-date human knowledge base out there. I have concerns that maybe my staff looks like they are getting "a little old", that maybe Layline is aging and will become "out-of-touch..." Yes, Henry looks old, he is old, but his ideas and understanding of what is the latest and the best is as young as one can get, these guys are digging every day, on the phone with our club race and national champion customers listening to their latest efficiency ideas and helping with solutions. These guys may look "mature" but their information is the youngest and freshest out there. Henry would probably like to be described as a fine wine, that gets better with age... sorry Henry you are just an old goat who loves boats and still thinks he is 18. Martinson named Senior Judge

Bruce Martinson of the Minnetonka Yacht Club was recently recognized/certified as a Senior Judge by US Sailing. Bruce joins the very limited ranks of ILYA Race Officers who have this distinction, the others being Bob Pegel and Sander Sundberg. Bruce also serves on the ILYA Race Management and Judges Committee. On hearing of Bruce's certification, ILYA Commodore Hodgson said, "The ILYA appreciates Bruce's dedication to judging and his service to our sailors, and we offer congratulations on this significant recognition."

On-the-Water Seminar

Despite the cold and rainy weather, four brave souls attended the ILYA "On the Water" race management seminar, May 13. There were two participants from Oshkosh, one from Delavan, and one from Cedar Lake, Wis. Sander Sundberg and Chip Mann started the participants in the warmth of the Cedar Lake clubhouse. Each participant received his very own wind-wand custom made by Sander. After some sharing of goals for the day, the group was split in two, with each pair riding with the two Cedar Lake race committee boats which were running the Cedar Lake Spring Tune Up Regatta. ILYA Race Officers Roger Walsh and Sander Sundberg staffed Boat #2, and Race Officers Nancy Eckert and Chip Mann staffed Boat #1. Each participant got a first hand look at the working race officers as they ran the regatta for the participating Cs and MCs. After lunch and a brief warm up, it was back on the water, switching the students to the opposite race committee boat.

All four students gave positive feedback and felt that they could bring a lot of what they learned back to their home club.

Ward in therapy

The ILYA Race Management team was saddened to hear of an accident that befell team member Bill Ward from Mendota. Bill was working on the club gunboat in a storage facility on Mother's Day. He was sitting on the gunwale, feeling a bit dizzy, and that's about the last thing he remembers. Evidently he fell to the floor and was not found until midmorning on Monday with a body temperature considered lower than usually survivable, and broken neck and back.

Bill is accepting the prognosis that he will not regain feeling from his mid chest down, but he is able to speak and use his arms. He is now mobile via a motorized wheelchair, and has some hope that he may be able to drive a handicapmodified van some day. He says he's glad that he was hurt while he was doing something he loved (working on the race committee boat) rather than shoveling coal or something.

When I last spoke with Bill, he had a positive attitude about his situation, and he has not lost his sense of humor. Bill looks forward to being in touch with the regatta scene once again even if just as a spectator and commentator. He had been assigned as PRO for the ILYA MC Invitational.

Bill has not settled into a permanent location as yet, but when it works, his email address is wwilli163@cs.com. Perhaps fellow race officers would like to send him a note and get his phone number.

Time to get involved in ILYA Race Management? We need people at all levels of experience—including NONE! Call the ILYA; we'll get you started! (262) 275-6921 or ScowSlants@aol.com

Oshkosh X Boat Regatta July 17 and 18

Join us in Oshkosh for an X regatta to remember. The OYC invites all X boat sailors to Lake Winnebago to compete in a two day regatta. The format will consist of a series of back to back races on each day.

Trophies will be given for the first 5 places. Expect the unpredictable as other trophies are awarded for the most unexpected events.

Enjoy not only the sailing but the evening activity as well. Parents and kids, get ready to swim, dive, and slide at the all new Pollock Water Park.

Parents, would you rather have a non-kid lunch. We'd like to accommodate you. Just preorder on the registration form and we'll have it ready and waiting.

See you in Oshkosh! Expect to have fun!

Notice of Race

Regatta Site and Racing Area: Headquarters will be at the shelter adjacent to Millers Bay. Racing will be held in the navigable waters of Lake Winnebago on courses described in the Sailing Instructions.

Rules/Jurisdiction: The Regatta will be governed by The Racing Rules of Sailing (RRS), the prescriptions of the United States Sailing Association, the Rules and Bylaws of the ILYA, and the scantling rules of the X Class, except as any of these are modified by the Sailing Instructions. The Sailing Instructions will be available during the registration periods.

Eligibility: The regatta is open to all X Class skippers who comply with the requirements as set out in the ILYA bylaws.

Racing: The regatta will consist of as many as five races. One race will constitute a regatta. The first race time is scheduled for 12:30 p.m., Monday, July 18th.

Social: A fun filled water park evening will be held from 7:00—9:00 on Monday evening at the Pollock Community Water Park

Registration: Will be held at the Shelter on July 17 from 8:00 a.m. to 10:30 a.m. Advanced registration is suggested to guarantee lunch for the first day.

Entries: Entry fee is $75 per boat before July 1st. Late registration fee is $85. Registration includes daily launching and haul out, dry land mooring, lunch for two days, and admittance to the water park for kids and adults.

Spectator Fleet: Every effort will be made to provide ample spectator boats.

Trophies: Trophies will be awarded to the top five skipper and crews.

Launching and Mooring: Each yacht should be prepared to provide an anchor and sufficient mooring line for depths of 3-5 feet. Dry sailing is encouraged. Launching will take place at Miller's Bay.

Sailing Instruction: Sailing instructions will be distributed at registration.

Don't skimp on safety!

While we cannot currently supply a superior sailing life jacket with an ILYA logo patch attached, we can offer our members a special deal on two Extrasport sailing models—the popular Challenger, and the versatile Retro Avenger!

The Challenger vest, made by Extrasport, is a traditional favorite among sailors throughout the world - from USODA Team members to America's Cup winners!

The style and easy entry of the side-zip Retro Avenger combined with a hinged-quad panel design conforms to torso and body movements for maximum comfort. Smooth adjustable shoulders feature the patented shoulder system that won't snag going under the boom.

Both life vests have all the features coveted by racing sailors and those interested in comfort:

- ★ Short waisted for maneuverability
- ★ Lightweight and flexible
- ★ Built and sewn to last
- ★ Adjustable straps for personalized fit
- Non-corroding plastic buckles and zippers for durability
- ★ Deepened armholes for unrestricted action

Color: Challenger - red; Avenger - red/gray

Warning: Classifieds Scam

You may have occasion to use the ILYA Scow Slants or the ILYA Web Site (www.ilya.org) to advertise a boat or related equipment. Evidently some scam artists have found the ILYA Web site and its classified ad page. One of our current advertisers told me he was contacted twice recently with the scam. I heard a similar story from two other ILYA members recently as well.

The scam works something like this (with possible variations): The interested person (scammer) supposedly has a friend or business acquaintance who owes him money. That money (more than you are asking for the boat) is sent to you in the form of a cashier's check (WHICH IS FAKE!). When you receive the cashier's check, you are supposed to deposit it and send a personal check for the overage amount to the scammer.

Here's how you get taken: The bank has no idea that the cashier's check is fake, so they accept it, and you send a good check to the scammer. After a few days, the bank finds out that the cashier's check was fake, and you are responsible for it. By then you are out your good check, and possibly the boat, if the scammer even bothered to come get it.

You have probably read about this type of scam in your local newspaper. I know it has been paper. I know it has been written about in the Janesville (Wis.) Gazette a couple of times now.

Precautions: Don't accept or deposit any checks without having the bank first verify its authenticity. Tell others about this scam, especially if they may have items advertised somewhere.

ILYA Regatta Waiver of Liability

[The following Waiver of Liability will cover all the events that use the ILYA Regatta Entry application and online application. Regatta entrants will be required to sign the waiver as part of the entry application. A more specific children's version like the USODA/ILYA version will accompany IOD event registrations.]

WAIVER OF LIABILITY: I recognize and understand that participation in the regatta is voluntary, and that participants incur risks by participating, including the possibility of death or injury. To the fullest extent permitted by law, I hereby waive any rights I may have to sue the race organizers (organizing authority, race committee, protest committee, host club, sponsors, or any other organization or official) involved with the event with respect to personal injury or property damage suffered by myself or my crew or my child as a result of my or their participation in this event and hereby release the race organizers from any liability for such injury or damage. I understand that I am responsible for my actions or the actions of my child while I or he or she may be participating in the regatta and on the grounds of the event host, and that I am solely responsible for deciding whether or not I or my crew or my child participates or continues participating in the event. I also agree to be bound by the Racing Rules of Sailing, the rules of ILYA and by all other rules that govern this event.

Join the growing number of clubs from coast to coast who depend on Regatta by Sporting Designs for recognition of their sailors.

Notice of regatta and preliminary instructions, April 2006

ILYA E Invitational will be decided at Oshkosh

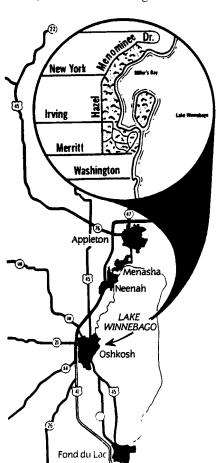

The Oshkosh Yacht Club is delighted to host the 2006 E Invitational Regatta, July 13-16. This year's event will have a Hawaiian theme with competitive back-to-back races each day and parties with the traditional Oshkosh spirit to follow.

ELIGIBILITY

The regatta is open to all Class E Scows whose skippers comply with the requirements as set out in the ILYA bylaws and are Family, Regular, Youth or Life members of the ILYA. Crew members become members of the Association by virtue of the yacht's completed registration. For details, contact the ILYA office at (262) 275-6921 or email ScowSlants@aol.com.

RULES/JURISDICTION

The regatta will be governed by the Racing Rules of Sailing (RRS), the prescriptions of the United States Sailing Association, the Rules and bylaws of the ILYA, and the Scantling Rules of the National Class E Scow Association and NCESA Bylaw Articles VI and VIII, parts 4, 5 and 7; except as any of these are modified by the Sailing Instructions. Sailing Instructions will be available during the registration periods.

[For the sake of clarification, the Class E experiment with asymmetrical rigs ended last fall, and by vote of the class the proposal to sanction the asymmetrical rig was defeated. The ILYA will honor the rulings of the national class.]

Notification of OCS (on course side) starters will be done by VHF radio first, and then by hail. General communication will be done by VHF radio and via postings on the Official Notice Board.

ADVERTISING

In accordance with ISAF Regulation 20, this regatta is classified as an "invitational" Category A event.

RISKS

Sailing is an activity that has an inherent risk of damage and injury. Competitors in this event are participating entirely at their own risk. See RRS 4, Decision to Race. The race organizers (organizing authority, race committee, protest committee, host club, sponsors, or any other organization or official) will not be responsible for damage to any boat or other property or the injury to any competitor, including death, sustained as a result of participation in this event. By participating in this event, each competitor, or in the case of minors, each competitor's parent or guardian, agrees to release the race organizers from any and all liability associated with such competitor's participation in this event to the fullest extent permitted by law.

REGATTA HEADQUARTERS

Regatta headquarters will be at Miller's Bay in Oshkosh (see map).

REGISTRATION/ENTRY

1. The Regatta Entry Application, which includes the Waiver of Liability and other pertinent information, may be found in this issue of Scow Slants. Participants may also register on-line at www.ilya.org/regattainfo.html. Complete the Regatta Entry Application form and send it and a check (or MasterCard or VISA information) for $128 to ILYA, P.O. Box 311, Fontana, WI 53125. Entries postmarked or otherwise received later than June 30 will incur late fees as specified in Bylaw 12.18.3 ($30).

- 2. Skippers must be current Family, Life, Regular, or Youth members of the ILYA and in good standing for the year 2006. A skipper who is not a current member should join the ILYA with his or her entry. Crew become Crew members by virtue of the yacht's registration. Be sure to supply complete crew names and addresses.
- 3. Registration and launching will be from 4:00 p.m. to 8:00 p.m. on Thursday, July 13, and from 7:00 a.m. to 8:30 a.m. on Friday, July 14.
- 4. Sailing Instructions will be provided during registration.

MEASURING AND WEIGHING

Pursuant to ILYA Bylaw 12.22, measurement and weighing will not be conducted, but each entry is bound by the National E Scow Association's scantlings.

TOP TEN REASONS TO SAIL FAST AND QUALIFY THIS YEAR:

- 10. Keep those glassware sets going.
- 9. Triumphant return of Pasta with Pete to Friday night.
- 8. Experience the beautiful Wisconsin weather in September. Could be 80, could be snowing.
- 7. Can't go another minute without a Blue Chip Sandwich.
- 6. It's always good to see Billy Allen again.
- 5. See the latest fashion in boxers strolling across the bar.
- 4. Hey East Coasters, it's on your way home from Nationals anyway.
- 3. You and your crew are just finding the groove by September.
- 2. See how you fare against the best of the best.

AND THE NUMBER ONE REASON:

1. If one Mystery Guest is good, then two must be twice as good!

LAUNCHING AND MOORING

Launching is available at Millers Bay. Mooring at Millers Bay would be on a buoy and anchor which each yacht would have to provide. Trailers may not be kept overnight at Millers Bay. Bring your own anchor, buoy, and sufficient line for depths of 6-10 feet. Although dry sailing is allowed for all yachts at this regatta, there will be no dry sailing allowed at Millers Bay.

COMPETITORS' BRIEFING

Friday, July 14 at 8:45 a.m. at Regatta Headquarters.

RACE OFFICIAL

The Principal Race Officer for the event will be Mike Sherin.

RACING SCHEDULE

The warning for the first race is scheduled for 11:00 a.m. on Friday, July 14. Five races are scheduled. Two races back-to-back are scheduled on the first two days. On the water, drinking water and energy bars will be provided. Times will be determined by the PRO. If long delays are anticipated a new earliest next race start time will be posted at regatta headquarters, making long waiting times at the regatta headquarters unnecessary. If two races have been sailed, no race shall start after noon on Sunday, July 16.

SCORING/PENALTIES

The Low Point System, RRS A4, will apply, except that each boat's total score will be the sum of her scores for all races. Two completed races shall constitute a regatta. The Turns Penalty shall apply, except that RRS 44.1 and 44.2 are changed so that only one turn, including one tack and one gybe, is required.

MEALS AND SOCIAL

The Hawaiian theme and the planned parties will live up to the Oshkosh tradition. Free beer at registration, tickets to The Grass Roots outdoor concert on Thursday, pancake breakfast during the skipper's meeting, Hawaiian happy hour after the race on Friday and a grand evening party on Saturday will all be included in each participant's social fee.

TROPHIES

Trophies will be awarded to the skipper and crew of the top ten finishing boats as well as race winners. The winner of the regatta is awarded the Jule Hannaford trophy, an ILYA perpetual trophy given each year in memory of its namesake.

Mendota to host MC Scow Invitational Regatta

You're Invited

Mendota Yacht Club cordially invites all eligible ILYA sailors to the 2006 Inland Lake Yachting Association Class MC Scow Invitational Regatta to be held on the waters of Lake Mendota from July 13 to July 16, 2006.

Headquarters for the Regatta will be hosted at the beautiful Bishops Bay Country Club, in association with the Mendota Yacht Club.

Regatta Chairman

Tom Stitgen

Phone: 608-850-1503

Eligibility

The regatta is open to all Class MC Scows whose skippers comply with the requirements as set out in the ILYA bylaws and are Family, Regular, Youth or Life members of the ILYA. Crew members become members of the Association by virtue of the yacht's completed registration. For membership information, please contact the ILYA office at (262) 275-6921, email scowslants@aol.com, or find it on the web at www.ilya.org/membership.html.

Rules

The Regatta will be governed by The Racing Rules of Sailing (RRS), the prescriptions of the United States Sailing Association, the Rules and Bylaws of the ILYA, the scantling rules of the MCSA, except as any of these are modified by the Sailing Instructions, and the Sailing Instructions. The Sailing Instructions will be available during the registration periods.

Notification of OCS (on course side) starters and other communication will be done first by VHF radio and second by hailer.

Advertising

In accordance with ISAF Regulation 20, this regatta is classified as an "invitational" Category A event.

Risks

Sailing is an activity that has an inherent risk of injury and damage. Competitors in this event are participating entirely at their own risk. See RRS 4, Decision to Race. The race organizers (organizing authority, race committee, protest committee, host club, sponsors, or any other organization or official) will not be responsible for damage to any boat or other property or the injury to any competitor, including death, sustained as a result of participation in this event. By participating in this event, each competitor, or in the case of minors, each competitors parent or guardian, agrees to release the race organizers from any and all liability associated with such competitor's participation in this event to the fullest extent permitted by law.

Advanced Registration

The entry fee is $64.00 per boat. Entries should be submitted on the official ILYA Regatta Entry form and postmarked or otherwise received by June 30, 2006. Entries postmarked or otherwise received after June 30, 2006 will be charged a $20.00 late fee. The Regatta Entry form, which includes the Waiver of Liability and other pertinent information, may be found in this issue of Scow Slants. Participants may also register on-line at www.ilya.org/ regattainfo.html.

Schedule of Events

A pre-regatta clinic will be held at 2:00 p.m. on Thursday, July 13. MC experts provided by the ILYA will be on hand to work on techniques, after which you may test your skills in a practice race at approximately 4:00 p.m.

Registration will be from 5:00 to 7:00 p.m. on Thursday and from 8:00 - 9:00 am on Friday morning.

The skippers meeting will be held at 9:00 a.m. on Friday.

Five races plus a "Beat the Pros" race are scheduled. The first race is scheduled for a 10:00 a.m. warning signal on Friday. Warning times for subsequent races will be at the discretion of the Principal Race Officer. No races will begin after noon on Sunday if two races have been completed. The "Beat the Pros" race will be the third race of the first day, conditions permitting, or held on the second day as determined by the organizers, conditions permitting. There will be staggered starts for this race determined by Regatta standings to that point.

This race will not count as part of the official regatta standings.

Launching

This will be a primarily wet sailed regatta. Launching will take place at Governor Nelson State Park, located approximately 2 miles east on Hwy M from Bishops Bay. Parking will be available for trailers at the park in a designated area. A Wisconsin State Park permit must be displayed on all vehicles and are available for purchase at the Park Office. Trailers are Trailers are expressly prohibited at Bishops Bay. Please help prevent the spread of Eurasian milfoil and Zebra mussels. Be sure your rig is free of weeds before launching.

Moorings

Each yacht shall be required to provide an anchor and sufficient line for depths to 25 feet. Shuttle boats will be available for sailor's convenience to and from the designated mooring areas. Although dry sailing is allowed for all yachts at this regatta, there is no dry sailing available at Bishops Bay.

Spectator Boats

MYC will provide spectator boats for those wishing to watch the races from the water. Spectator boats will be at the docks in front of the clubhouse approximately 1/2 hour before race time.

Powerboats may launch from Governor Nelson State Park.

Scoring / Penalties

The Low point system, RRS A4, will apply, except that each boat's total score will be the sum of her scores for all (five) races. Two completed (official) races shall constitute a regatta. The Turns penalty shall apply.

Mendota

Trophies

In additions to trophies mentioned below, a "Coveted Green Jersey" shall be awarded to each skipper who wins a race. Such skipper shall wear the Coveted Green Jersey for the following race. The Coveted Green Jersey shall be awarded on the water when necessary to accommodate the preceding requirement.

Trophies will be awarded to the top ten skippers in the regatta as well as the race winners and the top three masters and top woman and top junior sailor following completion of racing on Sunday.

Regatta Site and Racing Area

Racing headquarters will be at Bishops Bay Country Club. Racing will be held in the navigable waters of Lake Mendota on courses described in the sailing instructions.

Sailing World to cover ILYA C Championship

Dave Powlison of Sailing World will be covering the 2006 ILYA Class C Championship Regatta at Geneva. The focus of the coverage will be the 100th anniversary of the C Scow in Inland sailing. In order to better get a flavor for the competition and the boat, Dave hopes to be invited aboard as a crew for the regatta, or as a skipper with a competent crew aboard. At press time it looks as though Melges Performance Sailboats may be locating a boat for Dave to sail. Plan to meet Dave at Geneva, and attend the regatta where a brand new Melges C Scow will fall into the hands of one lucky raffle ticket holder!

Schedule of Events

Registration and Launching will be from 5:00 p.m. to 8:00 p.m. on Thursday, July 20, and 7:30 a.m. to 9:00 a.m. on Friday July 21. Sailing instructions will be provided at these times. The competitors' briefing meeting will be held at 9:00 a.m. Friday morning at the NLYC Clubhouse. Five races are scheduled. The first race is scheduled for a 10:00 a.m. warning signal on Friday. Warning times for subsequent races will be at the discretion of Principal Race Officer Jeff Butzer. No race will begin after

see Nagawicka C Invite, page23

Nagawicka C Invite

noon on Sunday if one race has been completed.

Launching

Boats can be launched at the NLYC clubhouse or at the Nagawaukee Park ramp adjacent to the NLYC grounds. Sailors using the park ramp are subject to the park launching fee. Directions for off-site trailer parking will be given at registration.

Mooring

Each yacht is required to provide an anchor and sufficient line for 20 foot depth. While dry sailing is permitted, and some dry sailing space is available at NLYC, it is limited. Taxi boats will be provided for sailors who moor their boats.

Regatta Site and Racing Area

Race headquarters will be at the NLYC clubhouse. Racing will be held on the navigable waters of the Nagawicka Lake on courses described in the sailing instructions.

Social

A continental breakfast and lunch will be available each race day. Friday after racing, a complimentary keg will be tapped along with free appetizers. A regatta dinner is planned for Saturday night with a live Blues band. Tickets for all meals (except Friday evening) must be purchased at registration to permit proper planning for food and beverages.

Spectator Boats

NLYC will provide spectator boats for those wishing to watch the races from the water. Please sign up at registration if you would like to join a spectator boat. Competitors wishing to bring their own powerboats are free to launch from the NLYC ramp as long as there is no interference with the racing fleet. Please also keep in mind that pier space is limited.

Scoring / Penalties

The Low point system, RRS A4, will apply, except that each boat's total score will be the sum of her scores for all (five) races. Two completed (official) races shall constitute a regatta. The Turns penalty shall apply.

Trophies

Trophies will be presented to the top ten skippers and crew (including third crew) in the regatta, as well as individual race winners following the completion of racing on Sunday at the NLYC clubhouse.

Directions to NLYC

The NLYC clubhouse is located on the east shore of Nagawicka Lake about one mile north of I-94. Get to the clubhouse by exiting I-94 on Hwy 83 in Delafield. Take Hwy 83 north approximately one mile to Mariner Lane. (Mariner Lane borders the north side of Nagawaukee Park.) Take Mariner Lane approximately one mile to the lake and the NLYC clubhouse.

Special Regulations

Wisconsin law requires all boats to have a Coast Guard approved personal flotation device for each person on board. Wisconsin DNR also requires that the boat registration card be carried on the boat at all times. In addition, all Wisconsin registered boats will be required to have the registration number displayed forward of the mast on the hull or deck.

ILYA CENTENNIAL C INVITATIONAL REGATTA NAGAWICKA LAKE July 20-23

WILL OLD GUYS RULE?

The theme of this regatta was a result of a comment made by Zach Clayton, who wrote that he would not race sailboats anymore after the age of 50. (see Scow Slants, Fall/Winter). This made us think about the C Fleet, and how many of the top sailors are considered 'Old Guys', at least in Zach's eyes. When the C Fleet comes together for its Centennial Invitational Regatta this summer, will the 'Old Guys' rule? Or will the winners be the 'Other Guys?' Along with the race standings each day, a cumulative score sheet for 'Old Guys' vs. 'Other Guys' will be posted. (P.S. Good Luck, Other Guys.

We already have Buddy signed up and registered!)

Need more incentive?

NLYC has a reputation for running great regattas, and this will be no exception. Some of the perks are:

- Guaranteed housing with sailing families. Contact Sharon Kraklow. skraklow@hotmail.com 262-367-6222.
- 60 reserved campsites in adjacent park. Contact Pete Templeton. ptempleton@wi.rr.com 414-258-2714
- Plenty of spectator boats and taxis for your sailing entourage.
- Free Friday night 'hors d'oeuvres' party.
- Saturday night party featuring the Shepard-Niles Blues Band.
- Daily raffle for an invaluable prize: Win a 'tender-boat-for-aday' in which to keep your 3rd, sails, cooler, and other necessities. Boat is equipped with driver and gas.

!REGISTER EARLY for GREAT PRIZES!

Early registrants will have their names put in a drawing for the following prizes. While you won't pay a late entry fee till after July 7, you can get more benefits if you register before June 1.Registration for the following drawings ends June 1, 2006.

- Money-back registration fee.
- An in-lagoon boat slip for the duration of the regatta.
- Two free admissions to Sat. night Blues Party
- Three free lunch tickets.
- Two regatta T-shirts.
- Crewing for Dex in any one of 3 Scow Fleets whenever he needs you (booby prize).

Notice of regatta and preliminary instructions, April 2006

Birthplace of the Class A Scow...

White Bear hosts the ILYA Class A Invitational

The White Bear Yacht Club (WBYC) is delighted to announce it is hosting the 2006 Class A ILYA Invitational Regatta on July 20-23. Both Open and One Design Classes are invited to enter the regatta and will be raced in a single fleet. This Invitational event marks the 106th year since the first A scow was built in White Bear Lake by John O. Johnson. One of his grandsons, Steve Johnson, will be racing the last wooden A scow built by Johnson Boat Works in 1963. Registration for the regatta will take place at the WBYC Sailing Pavilion on Thursday afternoon, July 20, 2006.

The primary objectives of the regatta committee are to (1) provide challenging and unusual racing conditions, (2) create memorable social events that enhance the comradeship of A sailors, and (3) build enthusiasm in the greater White Bear community for scow sailing. The committee welcomes the assistance of the Minnetonka Yacht Club in conducting this regatta. Our Principal Race Officer has indicated that he will design one or more unique courses that will be similar to courses sailed in the first part of the last century. The design of these courses will allow spectators on shore to witness the races from excellent vantage points. Last year, more than 100 enthusiastic, but respectful, spectator boats cheered on the crews during the final race of the regatta.

Rules/Jurisdiction

Tom Hodgson, Commodore of the ILYA, will serve as the Principal Race Officer (PRO). The regatta will be governed by the (2005-8) Racing Rules of Sailing, the prescriptions of the United States Sailing Association, the Rules and Bylaws of the ILYA, the scantling rules of Class A Open, except as any of these specifications are modified by the Sailing Instructions. The Sailing Instructions will be included as part of the registration materials. There is no requirement that boats be weighed for this regatta.

All communications will be by VHF radio, hailer when required, and flag signals.

Eligibility

The regatta is open to all Class A Scows whose skippers comply with the requirements set out in the ILYA bylaws and are Family, Regular, Youth, or Life members of the ILYA. Crew members become members of the Association by virtue of the yacht's completed registration. For membership information, please contact the ILYA office at (262) 275-6921, email ScowSlants@aol.com, or find it on the web at www.ilya.org/ membership.html.

Advance Registration and Entry Fees

Entries should be submitted on official ILYA Regatta Entry Application forms. The entry fee is $240 per boat. Entries must be postmarked or otherwise received by July 7 to avoid the $40 late entry fee prescribed by the ILYA bylaw 12.18.30d. The Regatta Entry form, which includes the Waiver of Liability and other pertinent information, may be found in this issue of Scow Slants and is also available from the ILYA Executive Secretary. Participants may also register on-line at www.ilya.org/regattainfo.html.

Advertising

In accordance with ISAF Regulation 20, this regatta is classified as an invitational Category A event.

Headquarters

Headquarters for the event will be the Sailor's Pavilion, White Bear Yacht Club, Dellwood, Minn. Please see the accompanying maps. A tent will be set up near the Sailor's Pavilion for special events associated with the regatta.

Launching, Mooring, and Registration

A scows and accompanying powerboats can be launched at the

see White Bear Invitational, page 26

White Bear Invitational

Ramsey County Public Beach on the north shore of the lake (see maps). Entrance to the beach area is from Highway 96. Launching assistance will be provided by WBYC members. Trailers can be parked at a nearby school parking lot. Directions to the parking lot will be given to each skipper at the time of launching. If required, towing service to the mooring area in front of the Yacht Club will be provided. All mooring gear must be furnished by competitors (anchor, lines, buoy, etc.). The mooring depth is approximately 10-15 feet; exposure is to the west-northwest, thus buoy equipment must be stout. Water taxi service to and from the moored boats will be provided. Upon conclusion of the regatta the moorings will be retrieved and taken by the Regatta Committee to the launching area for pickup.

For the convenience of skippers, crews, and visiting spectators, arrangements will be made for accompanying powerboats to be moored at private homes during the regatta. Early notice of your requirements will be appreciated.

Registration at the Sailor's Pavilion located on the waterfront at WBYC will take place from 3:00 - 8:00p.m. on July 20.

Racing Schedule

A competitor's briefing will be held at 8:30 Friday morning at the Sailor's Pavilion. Five races are scheduled. The warning signal for the first race will be at 10:30 a.m. Friday. Warning signals for subsequent races will be posted by the Race Committee. No race will begin after noon on Sunday if at least one race has been completed during the regatta up to that time.

Social Events

There will be a welcoming party at the Sailor's Pavilion on Thursday, July 20th from 5:00 - 8:00 p.m. with complimentary hors d'oeuvres, popcorn, chips, wine, beer, and soft drinks.

complimentary continental breakfast will be available on the morning of each racing day at the Sailor's Pavilion starting at 8:00 a.m. Box lunches with soda or water will be available at the Sailor's Pavilion on all per person. Tickets can be purchased at registration.

Trophies

Trophies will be awarded to the top three finishers. In addition, a special challenge trophy will be awarded to the racing days. In addition, skippers will be furnished complimentary bottled water before the start of each race.

On Friday, a lawn party will be held beginning at 6:00 p.m. at Catherine and Ford Nicholson's home on the Peninsula located approximately onehalf mile south of the WBYC. Views of the lake from this property are spectacular, and Catherine always has an unusual collection of animals. A cash bar will be available; wine, beer, and sodas are complimentary, and entertainment will be provided.

Saturday evening, the Regatta Committee will host a reception and dinner at the WBYC beginning at 6:00 p.m. A cash bar will be set up at poolside during the reception. A buffet dinner will > take place in the main dining room of the Club. Musical entertainment will be provided during and after dinner.

The cost of the social program including three lunches and Friday and Saturday evening dinners is $97.00

Minnetonka or White Bear Team that compiles the lowest overall point score in the regatta. Trophies will be presented during lunch following the last race. Haul out will take place at Matoska Park at approximately 2:00 pm. Sunday.

Clear Lake Yacht Club invites all Optimist sailors and families to the ILYA West No Guns, No Tears, No Protests Regatta on Friday, July 7, 2006.

Registration

Friday 7:30 a.m. to 9:30 a.m.

Fee and Registration

$35.00 per sailor with advanced registration. $45 after June 21. Skippers need not be members of the ILYA in order to participate. Checks payable to Clear Lake Yacht Club.

Special Requirements

- 1. Launch at Clear Lake Yacht Club.
- Only sailing school and race committee motorboats are allowed within 200 yards of the racecourse.
- There will be no swimming off boats at anytime while out on the water.
- Coaching from instructors and seasoned sailors is welcome before and after the races to encourage the young sailors to have fun and learn from their experiences.
- 5. Only USODA class legal boats will be allowed to compete.
- Motorboats may be launched downtown at City Beach or on South Shore Drive near the Heartland Inn.
- 7. No motorboats are allowed in the swim area at Clear Lake City Park.

Schedule

A skippers' meeting will be held at 10:00 a.m. and the first race will start at 10:30.

Races

Five races will be scheduled for the Senior fleet, and four will be scheduled for the Junior fleet. The races will be scheduled to best accommodate launching, fun, and lunch. All courses will be explained at the skippers' meeting.

Fleets

The Junior fleet will be for sailors aged 5-8; the Senior fleet for ages 9-15. Ages will be determined as of 1/1/06. The fleets are planned to race on separate courses.

A sailing school instructor and motorboat is required for each fleet in which a lake has a sailor registered, i.e., two instructors or more plus two motorboats are needed if the lake has sailors in both the Junior and Senior fleets. Instructors must check in with the regatta officials at the time of arrival.

Rules and Safety

- Life jackets must be worn at all times while on the water and on regatta piers. A whistle must be attached to the lifejacket.

- Other rules will be posted or communicated at the skippers' meeting.

Assistance

Sailing School instructors and others as designated by the Principal Race Officer of each fleet will send help to any boat in need of assistance—emotional, physical, or medical. Spectator boats will be instructed to stay 200 yards from the race course.

Starting Sequence and Procedures

The Race Committee will call out starting sequence times to the sailors. The system will be explained at the skippers' meeting.

Any boat which starts prematurely will be hailed by the Race Committee to do a 360° turn when safe to do so. Sailors only have to do the 360° turn when the Race Committee hails them to do so.

Scoring

The Low Point System will be used. Ties will be broken by US SAILING tie breaker; i.e., the boat with the highest finishing race will win the tie. DNF and DNS will be scored one worse than the number of registered boats.

Awards

Each participating skipper will receive a gift bag. If two sailors are known to be coskippering in the same boat, please indicate on the registration form. Awards for 1st through 10th places will be awarded in both fleets.

Awards will also be given to the winners of each race in both the Junior and Senior fleets.

Lunches

All skippers will receive a T-shirt and lunch with their registration. Additional lunches may be purchased for a nominal fee.

Waiver for Optimists participating in ILYA No Tears West, ILYA No Tears East, and or ILYA/USODA Championship

WAIVER OF LIABILITY: I recognize and understand that participation in the regatta is voluntary, and that my child incurs risks by participating, including the possibility of death or injury. In consideration of the acceptance of my child's entry, I waive any and all claims, charges, losses and liabilities including those caused by negligence, against the USODA, the Inland Lake Yachting Association, the Pewaukee Yacht Club, the Clear Lake Yacht Club, and or the Lake Beulah Yacht Club, their respective officers, trustees, contractors, employees, and members, and against any and all volunteers, which may arise from, or in any way be in connection with, the practices or activities of the regatta and its organizers. I am aware that the activities of my child may involve maneuvering a boat on deep waters in potentially hazardous conditions which may include among other things, cold water temperature, strong winds and high waves, sudden and unexpected immersion in deep waters and collision with other watercraft or stationary objects such as docks, pilings, and buoys. I understand that I am responsible for the actions of my child while he or she may be participating in the regatta and on the grounds of the event host, and that I am solely responsible for deciding whether or not my child participates or continues participating in the event. We also agree that the sailor will be bound by the Racing Rules of Sailing, the rules of USODA, IODA, ILYA and by all other rules that govern this event.

Notice of regatta and preliminary instructions (Revised June 9, 2006)

Junior and Senior X Championship

Class X Championship Minnetonka Yacht Club July 26-29, 2006

The Minnetonka Yacht Club will host the 2006 Junior and Senior Class X Inland Championships. The members of the MYC invite all X Boaters to join us for a great event. All races will be sailed from the Minnetonka Yacht Club on Lake Minnetonka, Minnesota.

ELIGIBILITY

All Skippers in Class X and crew who turn 16 during or after the calendar year 2006 may participate.

Only skippers who turn 14 or younger in the calendar year 2006 are eligible to sail in the Junior Fleet. Skippers who turn 15 or 16 during the calendar year 2006 must sail in the Senior Fleet. Crew members may sail in either fleet as long as they are not older than 16 in the calendar year 2006.

RULES/JURISDICTION

The Regatta will be governed by The Racing Rules of Sailing (RRS), the prescriptions of the United States Sailing Association, the rules and bylaws of the ILYA, the scantling rules of Class X, except as any of these are modified by the Sailing Instructions, and the Sailing Instructions, which will be available during the registration period.

ADVERTISING

In accordance with ISAF Regulation 20, this regatta is classified as an invitational Category A event.

RISKS

Sailing is an activity that has an inherent risk of damage and injury. Competitors in this event are participating entirely at their own risk. See RRS 4, Decision to Race. The race organizers (organizing authority, race committee, protest committee, host club, sponsors, or any other organization or official) will not be responsible for damage to any boat or other property or the injury to any competitor, including death, sustained as a result of participation in this event. By participating in this event, each competitor, or in the case of minors, each competitor's parent or guardian, agrees to release the race organizers from any and all liability associated with such competitor's participation in this event to the fullest extent permitted by law.

REGISTRATION

Registration and launching will officially be open from 10:00 a.m. to 6:00 p.m. on Wednesday, July 26 at the Deephaven Elementary School. There will be no registration on Thursday.

Advanced reservations for meals and social activities is available on line at http:// www.lakeminnetonkasailingschool.org/xinland/. Reserve your meal and social activity tickets early and save! Regatta merchandise will be on sale at registration and during the event.

REGISTRATION INSTRUCTIONS

- 1. The Regatta Entry form, which includes the Waiver of Liability and other pertinent information, may be found in this issue of Scow Slants. Participants may also register on-line at www.ilya.org/regattainfo.html. Complete the Regatta Entry Application form and send it and a check (or MasterCard or VISA information) for $80 to ILYA, P.O. Box 311, Fontana, WI 53125. Entries postmarked or otherwise received later than July 10 will incur late fees as specified in Bylaw 12.18.3 (max. $15).
- 2. Skippers must be current Family, Life, Regular, or Youth members of the Island safety procedures in force

Modifications to the ILYA Sailing Instructions for 2006 include the following related to wearing PFDs:

"Approved personal flotation devices shall be worn by all competitors when on the water, except they may be removed for brief periods for the purpose of adding, removing, or adjusting clothing. This requirement additionally applies to sailors being shuttled to the yacht club or to their boats from the MYC Carsons Bay facility or other points on the lake. This changes RRS 40 and flag 'Y' will not be displayed."

ILYA Officials and MYC officials will be enforcing these safety procedures. ILYA judges have the discretion to give warnings or penalties (without a hearing) for reported violations of these rules.

Sailors: Please use good judgement on the water and wear your lifejackets at all times when on the water.

ILYA and in good standing for the year 2006. A skipper who is not a current member should join the ILYA for $40 (Youth membership) now or with his or her entry. Crew become Crew members by virtue of the yacht's registration. Be sure to supply complete crew names and addresses. Skippers' ages and birthdates should be noted on the Regatta Entry Application.

- 3. The weight limit for an X Boat is 470 lb. when dry. Bring extra lead if you believe you may need it.
- 4. Sailing instructions will be available during registration.

will be decided on Lake Minnetonka

COMPETITORS' BRIEFING AND OPENING CEREMONIES

The competitors' briefing will immediately follow the opening ceremonies, which begin at 6:00 p.m., Wednesday, July 26 at the MYC clubhouse on Lighthouse Island.. All clubs are asked to have someone bring a burgee from their club

LAUNCHING AND MOORING

All yachts must have a lifting bridle. There is a crane available at MYC's Carson's Bay facility for launching sailboats only. Next door in Carson's Bay is a ramp for other boats. You will be instructed at registration how to launch your boat. All trailer parking will be at the Deephaven Elementary School.

Sailboats will be moored in Carson's Bay in groups by yacht club so that parents and coaches can help with shuttling. Bring your own anchor, buoy and line (25 feet). Water in mooring area is between 10-15 feet deep. Although dry sailing is allowed for all yachts at this regatta, there will be no dry sailing allowed at the MYC or in the immediate area. All moorings must be removed on Saturday, July 29.

POWERBOATS

Powerboats can launch at the Carson's Bay ramp. MYC will supply spectator boats for those wishing to watch the races from the water. More information will be online.

SAILING CLINIC

Weather permitting, a racing clinic will be held Wednesday, July 26 at 2:00 p.m. Gordie Bowers will be the lead instructor. A practice race will be sailed and a trophy will be awarded to the winner. In order to participate in the clinic, you must have completed all aspects of the regatta registration, including checking in with the measurer and the registration desk.

RACING

Racing headquarters is the Minnetonka Yacht Club. This is where the skippers' meeting will be held, following Opening Ceremony (6:00 p.m. Wednesday evening), where the race committee will fire the one-hour gun, where protests will be heard, and meals will be served.

The first race is scheduled for 10:00 a.m. on Thursday, with subsequent races as posted on the Official Regatta Notice Board. Eight races are scheduled for each fleet. Every effort will be made to complete all scheduled races during the course of the Regatta. The minimum course length is 3.2 miles for both Junior and Senior Fleets, with a two hour time limit. If six or more races are completed, a throw-out race will be figured in the final scoring.

TROPHIES

Daily trophies will be awarded to the race winners each afternoon after racing. These awards will be at MYC on Lighthouse Island. The final trophy presentation will be at Deephaven Elementary School. The top 15 finishers in both the Junior and Senior fleet will receive trophies presented to both skippers and crews. The top female skippers in each fleet and the highest Junior finisher who is 13 years of age or younger as of July 26 will also receive individual trophies.

SHUTTLE AND SPECTATOR BOATS

Shuttle boats and spectator boats will run from the Carson's Bay facility and from the Park Avenue landing to Lighthouse Island where the Minnetonka Yacht Club is located.

MEALS AND SOCIAL

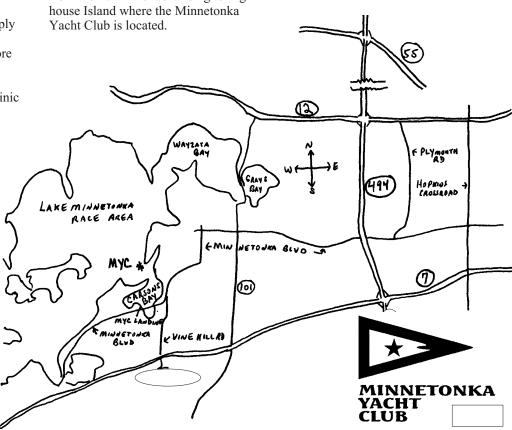

A full social schedule is planned for Wednesday and Friday evening. All meals will take place on the MYC grounds, except Friday night as noted below. Lunches will be available Thursday, Friday, and Saturday. Dinner will be available on Wednesday and Friday evenings. Thursday is a free evening. See the Schedule at a Glance on page ???

All activities are for the family. Parents must accompany their children to the parties and are expected to supervise them throughout the regatta. No pets are allowed on the MYC grounds or at Friday night's dinner at Woodhill.

If you haven't already pre-purchased lunc and social tickets, please purchase all lunch and evening tickets before the end of the registration period. T-shirts and other regatta items also will be available for purchase. More detailed information is available on the MYC web site at www.lakeminnetonkasailingschool.org/xinland/socials.htm.

Monday, July 31-Wednesday, Aug. 2 Green Fleet:

Monday, July 31-Tuesday, Aug. 1

By agreement with USODA, the 2006 ILYA Championship Regatta is also a USODA Team Trials qualifier event as it was in 2004 and 2005. Additional fees are required of skippers who wish to try to qualify at this event. See below.

Headquarters: Lake Beulah Yacht Club

N9220 East Shore Road

East Troy, Wis. 262-642-4468

Registration: Monday 3:00 p.m. to 7:00 p.m.

Skippers' Mtg: 9:00 a.m. Tuesday (Red, White Blue)

9:30 a.m. Tuesday (Green)

First Race: 10:00 a.m. Tuesday (Red, White Blue)

10:30 a.m. Tuesday (Green)

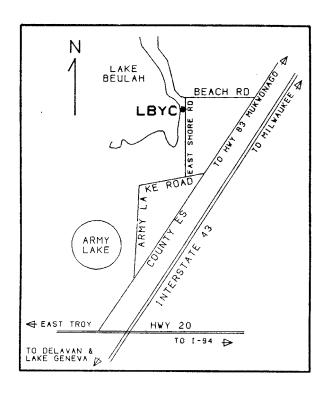

Fleets: White Fleet (8-10 years)

Blue Fleet (11-12 years)

Red Fleet (13-15 years)

Green Fleet (5-15 years) The Green Fleet is intended for beginning sailors. No one who has participated in an ILYA Championship Optimist Regatta may compete on the green course.

Age will be determined as of January 1, 2006 for ILYA purposes. USODA qualifiers must follow USODA age restrictions.

Fee and Registration: $65 for Red, White, or Blue Fleet sailors with advanced registration postmarked or otherwise received on or before July 15. After July 15 the following penalties apply: $75 postmarked July 16 to July 25, $85 postmarked July 26 or later. For Green Fleet sailors, the fees are $35, $45, and $55 respectively.

T Shirts and Lunches: The registration includes regatta shirt and lunch each race day for each skipper. Additional spectator lunches will be available for purchase at the regatta headquarters.

Required Memberships: All skippers must be members of the ILYA. Minimum level of ILYA membership is the $30 Dinghy Membership, which can be paid directly to ILYA using the form on page 44 or via the ILYA web site at www.ilya.org/membership.html. For those skippers attempting to qualify for the USODA Team, USODA membership is $29 which can be paid via the USODA web site at www.usoda.org and an additional USODA fee of $10 applies. All fees are also payable on site.

Risks: Sailing is an activity that has an inherent risk of damage and injury. Competitors in this event are participating entirely at their own risk. See RRS 4, Decision to Race. The race organizers (organizing authority, race committee, protest committee, host club, sponsors, or any other organization or official) will not be responsible for damage to any boat or other property or the injury to any competitor, including death, sustained as a result of participation in this event. By participating in this event, each competitor, or in the case of minors, each competitor's parent or guardian, agrees to release the race organizers from any and all liability associated with such competitor's participation in this event to the fullest extent permitted by law.

Safety Check and Measurement: Monday 3:00-7:00 p.m. Further details on the day of the regatta. Each yacht must have a legal bailer, flotation, and bow line.

Waiver: Parents of all skippers are required to sign a waiver of liability form protecting USODA, ILYA, and the Lake Beulah Yacht Club. The waiver should accompany the application and is found on page 14.

Rules:

1) The Regatta will be governed by The Racing Rules of Sailing (RRS), the prescriptions of the United States Sailing Association, the Rules and Bylaws of the ILYA, the rules of IODA and USODA, except as any of these are modified by the Sailing Instructions, and the Sailing Instructions will be

Opti Champs

IOD Championship: Waiver and Entry Application

WAIVER OF LIABILITY: I recognize and understand that participation in the regatta is voluntary, and that my child incurs risks by participating, including the possibility of death or injury. In consideration of the acceptance of my child's entry, I waive any and all claims, charges, losses and liabilities including those caused by negligence, against the USODA and the Inland Lake Yachting Association and the Lake Beulah Yacht Club, their respective officers, trustees, contractors, employees, and members, and against any and all volunteers, which may arise from, or in any way be in connection with, the practices or activities of the regatta and its organizers. I am aware that the activities of my child may involve maneuvering a boat on deep waters in potentially hazardous conditions which may include among other things, cold water temperature, strong winds and high waves, sudden and unexpected immersion in deep waters and collision with other watercraft or stationary objects such as docks, pilings, and buoys. I understand that I am responsible for the actions of my child while he or she may be participating in the regatta and on the grounds of the event host, and that I am solely responsible for deciding whether or not my child participates or continues participating in the event. We also agree that the sailor will be bound by the Racing Rules of Sailing, the rules of USODA, IODA, ILYA and by all other rules that govern this event.

Annual Regatta to sail on Lake Geneva

The 2006 ILYA Annual Championship Regatta for Classes A, E, C, I-20, M-16, and MC will be hosted by the Lake Geneva Yacht Club. August 9-19.

The regatta will be sailed in three parts. The first part will feature the Class A One Design fleet, Wednesday, August 9, through Saturday, August 12.

The second part of the regatta begins Sunday, August 13 and ends Wednesday, August 16. Classes E, MC, and I-20 will fill up some (I-20) or all (E, MC) of this segment.

The final segment of the event begins Wednesday, August 16 and runs through Saturday, August 19. Classes C, M-16, and A Open will participate in this time frame.

The entry fee includes an extensive, fun-filled social schedule (see page ??).

Eligibility and Entries

The regatta is open to all Class A, E, C, M-16, I-20, and MC Scows which comply with the requirements of the ILYA bylaws. The entry fees for this regatta are $600 for Classes A One Design and A Open, $310 for Class E, $220 for Class C, $180 for Class I-20, $180 for Class M, and $130 for Class MC. These all-inclusive fees cover all measuring, weighing, and crew membership fees. The fees also include a social package for each boat which is priced to include a welcoming party each day of registration, an appetizer party after the first day of racing, a dinner party after the second day of racing, an awards celebration at the end of racing, as well as box lunches each day. The fees are based on the following number of skipper and crew per boat: A-6, E-3, C-2, I-20-2, M-16-2, MC-1. Additional social packages for extra crew, family, friends, etc., can be purchased on the day of registration only (or earlier) for $50 each ($40 for Class I-20).

Skippers must be Family, Regular, Youth, or Life members of the ILYA. Crew members automatically become members by virtue of the yacht's registration.

All entries should be postmarked or otherwise received no later than July 25, 2006 to avoid late penalties per ILYA Bylaw 12.18.3.d., and should be sent on an Official ILYA Regatta Entry Application.

The Regatta Entry Application, which includes the Waiver of Liability and other pertinent information, may be found in this issue of Scow Slants. Participants may also register online at www.ilya.org/regattainfo.html.

Risks

Sailing is an activity that has an inherent risk of damage and injury.

Competitors in this event are participating entirely at their own risk. See RRS 4, Decision to Race. The race organizers (organizing authority, race committee, protest committee, host club, sponsors, or any other organization or official) will not be responsible for damage to any boat or other property or the injury to any competitor, including death, sustained as a result of participation in this event. By participating in this event, each competitor, or in the case of minors, each competitor's parent or guardian, agrees to release the race organizers from any and all liability associated with such competitor's participation in this event to the fullest extent permitted by law.

Rules

The regatta will be governed by The Racing Rules of Sailing and the prescriptions of the United States Sailing Association; the bylaws of the Inland Lake Yachting Association and its scantling rules for Classes C, I-20, and M-16; the scantling rules of the National Class E Scow Association and NCESA Bylaws Articles VI and VIII, parts 4, 5, and 7; Article IX and the Appendix of the bylaws of the International MC Class Scow Racing Association; except as any of these are altered by the Sailing Instructions, and by the Sailing Instructions.

[For the sake of clarification, the Class E experiment with asymmetrical rigs ended last fall, and by vote of the class the proposal to sanction the asymmetrical rig was defeated. The ILYA will honor the rulings of the national class.]

Notification of OCS (on course side) starters and other communication will be done first by VHF radio and second by hailer.

Advertising

In accordance with ISAF Regulation 20, this regatta is classified as an "invitational" Category A event.

Registration, Weighing, Measuring, Launching, Mooring

Registration, Weighing, Measuring, and Launching will all take place at the Yacht Club. Registration is not officially complete until measurement and weight requirements have been checked, and sailing instructions have been received and signed for.

Registration for each fleet will take place at times listed in the Registration, Racing, and Social Schedule on page ??.

This regatta will be dry-sailed, so all yachts are required to have the proper lifting bridles. As parking space for boats, trailers, and cars at the Lake Geneva Yacht Club will be at a premium, yachts will not be admitted prior to the start of their registration time. It is especially critical that Classes C, M-16, and A Open do not enter the property prior to 3:00 p.m. on Wednesday, August 16.

Regatta Headquarters

Regatta Headquarters will be the Lake Geneva Yacht Club.

Auto and Trailer Parking

Please park in the designated areas and place your trailers in the designated areas to allow for appropriate traffic flow.

Competitors' Briefings

Competitors' Briefings for all fleets will be held at Regatta Headquarters per the times listed in the Registration, Racing, and Social Schedule on page 37. In all fleets except I-20, these briefings are held in conjunction with the ILYA Welcome Party on the evening prior to the first race. Fleet PROs will be available briefly for questions 90 minutes prior to the start of each fleet's first race at the LGYC flagpole for competitors who were unable to attend the Competitors' Briefing in their Class (this does not apply to Class I-20).

Annual Regatta

Racing Schedule

Six races will be scheduled for each class. The warning signals for the first official race in each of the various classes will be as follows:

A OD Thursday, Aug. 10, 11:00 a.m. I-20 Sunday, Aug. 13, 1:00 p.m. E Monday, Aug. 14, 10:30 a.m. MC Monday, Aug. 14, 11:30 a.m. C Thursday, Aug. 17, 10:30 a.m. M-16 Thursday, Aug. 17, 11:30 a.m. A Open .. Thursday, Aug. 17, 11:30 a.m. Back to back racing will be the rule rather than the exception. Except when races are sailed back-to-back, the time of the warning signal for subsequent races will be posted.

In Classes A One Design, A Open, C, and M-16, if three races have been completed, no race will begin after 1:00 p.m. on the last day of scheduled racing. In Classes E and MC, if three races have been completed, no race will begin after noon on the last day of scheduled racing.

Fleet Meetings

Fleet meetings will be held as posted on the Official Notice Board by the ILYA Fleet Representative of each class.

Trophies & Presentations

ILYA perpetual or keeper race trophies will be awarded at the end of each day's racing or in conjunction with each evening's social schedule. Overall standings trophy presentations will be held after the racing at Regatta Headquarters.

Trophies for the top ten skipper and crew in Classes E, C, and MC will be awarded, and trophies for the top five skipper and crew will be awarded in Classes A Open, A One Design, M-16, and I-20.

Special Corinthian awards will be given in Classes E and C, and a trophy for the highest placing wooden E Scow may also be awarded. Masters trophies will also be awarded in Class MC, as well as a Grand Master trophy and a Top Junior (under 21) award. Class C will also award a top junior (under 21) trophy and a Master trophy. Class M will award a "Top Rookie" trophy and a Masters trophy.

Social and Meals

Outstanding social events are planned for all fleets (see the social schedule on page 37).

Wednesday night, August 16, is reserved for Bilge Pullers.

Auto and Trailer Parking

We are confident we can accommodate all the fleets, but car and trailer parking will be tight on the Yacht Club grounds. Each yacht will be assigned a place for the duration of their stay. We plan that one auto for each yacht will be parked with the yacht and its

The Ultimate Ride

"The Ultimate Ride," a documentary film on the history of the A scow, is being produced and directed by Peter Crawford and his production company, Penalty Box Productions. Peter grew up sailing scows on Lake Minnetonka and in recent years began his career in the television and film industry. Peter has been working on this film for the past 2 years, and his hard work and passion for sailing and filmmaking has produced some great footage. You can find out more details about the film and view the trailer at the films website www.theultimateridethemovie.com.

"The Ultimate Ride" will have a running time of just over 60 minutes and will document and preserve the 107 year old history of the A scow and pay homage to the real reason for its success, the people behind it all. The film will be loaded with interviews, archived film and photos, as well as adrenaline soaked live A scow action. The film's objective is to excite people of all ages to desire to become active in the sport of sailing and more importantly SCOW sailing.

Gary Jobson will provide commentary and narrate the script written by ILYA Historian and Commodore Tom Hodgson. Gary has also agreed to present the film at its World Premiere August 11, 2006 at the ILYA Championship Regatta hosted by the Lake Geneva Yacht Club. This is an event you will not want to miss! The night will make you feel like you are at a starstudded Hollywood Premiere!

Peter plans to distribute the film in DVD format with a portion of every DVD sold going to support the NCASA and ILYA organizations. You can order your copy now on The Ultimate Ride website for a special pre-sale price, and soon you will be able to order copies from www.ilya.org. Other media outlets being pursued include various high profile film festivals and cable television channels that support sailing.

trailer. We urge competitors and spectators to keep the number of extra cars at the club during the day to a minimum. This will make it easier for everyone.

Liquor Regulations

The Lake Geneva Yacht Club holds a Wisconsin liquor license. Absolutely no liquor, beer, or wine other than that served by the Yacht Club may be consumed on the premises. Also, Club policy prohibits consumption of alcohol on the premises by any person under the age of 21. Please do not jeopardize our liquor license.

Spectator boats

We expect to have some spectator boats available. If you bring your own support boat, launching will be available on a daily basis at the club prior to 8:00 a.m. each morning only. Spectator boats may be hauled out only after the sailboats have all been taken out.

Docking space for spectator boats will be extremely limited at times during the event, especially during lunch breaks. Priority will be given to Race Committee Boats and racing yachts. Other boats should make alternate docking plans for these time periods.

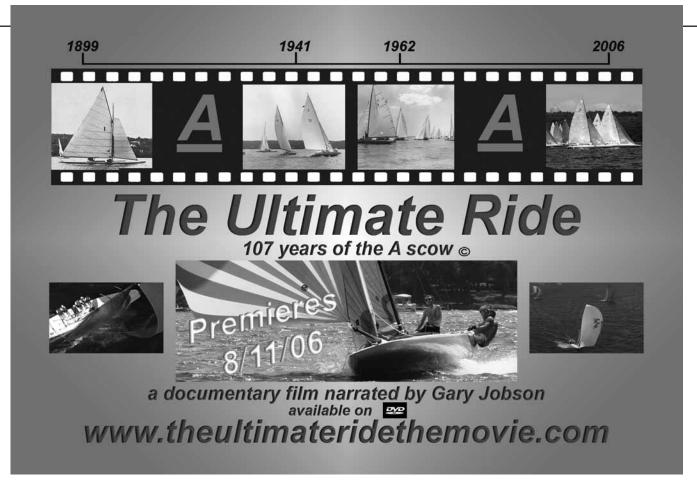

Each spectator boat must be taken out daily or moored off premises. Limited overnight parking may be available on club grounds.

ILYA WAIVER OF LIABILITY: I recognize and understand that participation in the regatta is voluntary, and that participants may incur risks by participating, including the possibility of death or injury. To the fullest extent permitted by law, I hereby waive any rights I may have to sue the race organizers (organizing authority, race committee, protest committee, host club, sponsors, or any other organization or official) involved with the event with respect to personal injury or property damage suffered by myself or my crew or my child as a result of my or their participation in this event and hereby release the race organizers from any liability for such injury or damage. I understand that I am responsible for my actions or the actions of my child while I or he or she may be participating in the regatta and on the grounds of the event host, and that I am solely responsible for deciding whether or not I or my crew or my child participates or continues participating in the event. I also agree to be bound by the Racing Rules of Sailing, the rules of ILYA and by all other rules that govern this event.

ILYA REQUIREMENTS

Skippers residing outside of the traditional Inland states of Wisconsin, Minnesota, Iowa, Illinois, Michigan, Indiana, and Missouri need not be members of ILYA member clubs in order to participate in ILYA sanctioned events.

Skippers residing within the Inland states listed above must be members of an ILYA member club, or must make special arrangements with the ILYA Executive Secretary prior to the first entry deadline.

Individual memberships in the ILYA are not required for persons serving as crew at Inland events. Persons who do register as crew members at ILYA sanctioned regattas will receive free subscriptions to SCOW SLANTS if crew addresses are supplied.

Random measuring of boats and sails is required at all championship events and at some invitational and regional events, but all measuring costs are included in the registra-

Sailors new to the ILYA can anticipate paying the entry fee and the skipper's regular membership in the ILYA. The only other registration and regatta costs should be for food and social activities.

Are We All Playing the Same Game?

by Dave Perry

In my book Understanding the Yacht Racing, I've ■ tried hard to explain the racing rules as they're written in the rule book. Consider for a second what the rules are for: they tell us what we can and can't do. Driving rules tell us we have to come to a complete stop at stop signs, that we can't drive faster than the speed limit, and that we can't drive when we're drunk. Why were these rules written? Because people saw that cars could hurt and kill them and others, and they saw the need to create a system in which people were safe, in which they'd know what to do and expect in every situation. Why don't people always stay within these rules? Because the rules restrict them, they hold them back. People feel in control of themselves - they aren't going to hurt anyone, and they don't need a bunch of rules to tell them what to do. Unfortunately, what they don't see or care about is this attitude is contagious ("Heck, he's going 60, why should I poke along at 35?) and their peer pressure is pretty strong (C'mon, we haven't had that much to drink, let's hit the road").

It's easy to see this attitude of not caring about rules is what poisons a system and makes it dangerous and unpleasant for others. To change the situation the people affected call for enforcement, of which there are two kinds available: external and internal. In driving, the external enforcement is the police, the unmarked cars, speed traps and the threat of paying money for tickets or losing your license, etc. Internal enforcement comes from many places. Maybe we've been involved in an accident or seen one where people have been hurt or killed, and our fear or our concern becomes strong enough to make us want to stay within the rules' limits.

In the world of sailing, where we're dealing with many different kinds of people, the stakes of winning are often high: business, money, prestige, our self-image and ego, acceptance, etc. And when we lose (i.e. don't win the regatta) we feel bad or frustrated or angry not simply because we didn't win, but because we won't get all the things that come along with winning. And what's worse, we can't avoid watching as the winners rake it in.

So we have a game going here with winners and losers, and we have a network of rules that form the system in which we play. The rules for sailing are the International Yacht Racing Rules, the rules of the class being raced, the rules for the regatta (i.e. the sailing instructions), and a fourth set of rules - the "human" rules. The last are the rules that govern our behavior more than anything else, that say when we decide to enter a game we agree to play within the rules and will give our best shot to overcoming the obstacles and challenges to winning; but they also say we'll respect the people we're racing against and won't pull any cheap shots in order to beat them.

hile I was watching a post-game show after the Super Bowl, I heard a pro linebacker say, "One thing that the team which won does so beautifully is that their ends run a series of picks on the defensive backs, which is basically illegal, but they're so smooth that they rarely get called for it. That's how they get people open so often." It's easy to see that they'll have more completions, more passing yardage and more points scored, etc., all of which reflect highly on the quarterback and the coach (who obviously know what's going on). But until the issue can be brought out in the open, documented, and proved, hardly anyone seems to notice; and while the quarterback and coach are tanning themselves in the rays of their success, other teams are already plotting similar plays for next season.

To some people who sail, this is the real world. They're in it for themselves, for the attention, the publicity, the lime-light, and the business. Of course they're going to do everything possible to try to win. Why not? Isn't that what it's all about? So what if they cut a mark at night, knowingly race a boat that was measured in illegally, or lie in the protest room. "Big deal!" they say. "It's just a race, C'mon, I'll buy you a beer. I just have to talk to these reporters first."

To others, this attitude seems pretty shallow. Sure, they want to win too, but to them there are some continued on page 46

Everyone needs to buy in parameters within which the game must be played. They love it when they can tack right in front of someone with only a few feet to spare because they know the other person will hold his course until the tack is completed, and then immediately head up and keep clear; or when they're on port and cross someone on starboard by inches, and nothing comes out of the starboard boat except "Nice sailing." They'd do the same thing too. They want the other people to be racing at their best, because that's when it's the most challenging to try to win, and the most satisfying when they do. Their question is, "How can it feel good to win when you know you've somehow cheated the people you've beaten?"

It's almost as if the game can be divided into two categories of players. One is the group that, to varying degrees will intentionally go outside the limits of the rules (including the "human" rules) to try to win, feeling that as long as they don't get caught or get thrown out on a protest, they've done nothing wrong. The other group is the people who see racing as a personal challenge, a series of obstacles including the other competitors, the boat, the physical demands, the organization of a campaign, etc., all of which must be overcome to emerge on top. It would be meaningless to them if it were easy, and it would deflate the whole challenge to go outside the rules to win.

When you stop to think about it, these two are, in fact, playing two entirely different kinds of games and this is the bottom line of a lot of the trouble in sailing. How then do we reconcile these two groups on the same race course? One side calls for more enforcement; the other denies the whole problem on the surface, with the attitude: "C'mon, get with it; stop being Joe Righteous. Let's have some fun." I sense that this division in attitude and conscience is the cause of many of the hot issues that we debate in sailing today, such as professionalism, means of propulsion (rule 54), and gross breach of conduct (rule 75).

Let's look at the pumping, rocking, ooching scene (rule 54), and more specifically rocking, which is the most common illegal action. Again, there are two elements: the rule and the enforcement. The rule is clear in that it specifically defines what rocking is, and then prohibits it at all times. It's fair to say that most sailors know when they are intentionally rocking their boat or when they are deliberately letting the boat rock even though their bodies aren't moving. In both cases the boat is rocking and the rule prohibits that.

ow for enforcement. The problem begins when someone in your fleet makes the conscious decision that he or she doesn't care what the rule says, and is going to go faster by rocking. Now he's gaining an advantage over you, so you have to make a decision; either do nothing, try to stop him, or start rocking yourself. If you're confident that the system of enforcement is there to back you up, you might yell to the guy to stop it, and if he doesn't, then protest. But if you sense that the protest is going to cause a lot of tense feelings (no one likes to be the bad guy) or that it will probably be disallowed anyway, you'll either sit there and get upset, or join in. The upset feeling gets even worse when you feel people are doing it all over the course and that by throwing one guy out, you're not really solving the problem.

This unsettling atmosphere is leading sailors to call for more judges on the race course to police rule 54 actively (external enforcement). But if it's not that they actually want judges on the course; they just want to be confident that everyone is playing the game the same way so that no one has an unfair advantage and the racing remains a good challenge. It would be no fun racing your Pinto against a Ferrari, just as it's no fun sailing by the rule while people rock by.

The truth is that we sailors don't trust each other to enforce the rules internally and it's right here, at this lack of trust for each other, that we have to start to work- For a fleet, or class, or group of us assembled at a regatta, the first thing to see is that we need everyone to want to come out and race: otherwise there'd be no regatta. Also that the racing is the most fun for everyone and the most challenging for the top guys when we all agree to leave the B.S. on shore, and go out and race hard within the rules.

This attitude will work only if everyone agrees with it and the best way is to have a meeting of all the sailors and bring it out in the open before the racing begins. A few simple words such as: "Hey, we all know all the sleazy moves and we know what's going on, and it will be a lot more fun if we just leave that stuff ashore," get the message out. Also, there maybe specific problems: people not doing 720s, too many general recalls because people just aren't holding back, or rules that people aren't sure of or have different interpretations of, and it's very important that these be discussed ahead of time. Even if the group's idea of pumping isn't the same as another group's somewhere else, at least everyone will know how the game's being played in the upcoming racing, including the judges and race committee, who are the external enforcers of our game. This is critical.

Another element that greatly increases internal rule enforcement is rules knowledge. To this end, we should open the doors to our protest hearings. Let the people who have never been in the room before see how the rules work. This can also serve to cut down on the bogus protests. Many protests involve at least one person who knows he is wrong but feels that he may be able to win the protest on a technicality, or by his presentation to the committee. This is morally wrong, and it will be a lot tougher to do this with all his peers peering at him. Of course there would be some necessary ground rules such as: 1) total silence; 2) once in the room no one leaves until dismissed; 3) named witnesses remain outside; and 4) disturbance is grounds for some sort of penalty, etc.

To me, the real meat and subtle nuances of the rules are discussed in the "deliberation" segment, and that's the segment in which people would really learn a lot. Also, opening this up would help the committees remain more objective and base their decision solely on the rules in the book and the facts as they came out in the hearing, rather than on suppositions and personal prejudices. Short of this and time permitting, the committee should at least allow the audience back in for the verdict, and explain how and why they made their decision. This is especially important at youth events, but should be applied across the board.

Also, US SAILING has a pool of certified judges and has appointed a Regional Administrative Judge (RAJ) in each region of the U.S. These people can be very helpful in locating qualified judges for your regattas, giving rules talks, and helping interested people to become better judges. Their names, addresses and phone numbers are in the US SAILING Directory provided to every US SAILING member. If you're not a member (and you should be if you're racing!), then borrow one from a friend to find the RAJ in your area, or call US SAILING at 1-401-849-5200.

Tt all boils down to: "What game are we playing out ⊥ there?" For those who have actively raced for a couple of years, what's really going on around them and what the tricks of the trade are is no mystery. So it's really a matter of making the inner decision of what we are and aren't going to do. I'd like to propose that though it's tougher to win when we stay within all the rules-including the one that makes us morally responsible to our friends to sail fairly-the best racing is when we can trust each other to play it straight, respect each other when we try our hardest, and see ourselves improving from the challenge. No external system of enforcement will ever be as effective as our own internal agreements to all play the same game. Unfortunately, it takes only one person to burst the bubble.

Talk about this with the people you race with.

EXCITING NEW LOCATION FOR THE OPTIMIST RWB CHIP!!

LaBelle Yacht Club is pleased to announce the sixth annual Red White & Blue Chip Regatta, August 20 – 22, to be held at Olin Sang Ruby Union Institute. This amazing camp is on the west end of Lac LaBelle, (aka the "big end") where all the racing occurs. It occupies 215 beautiful acres with 650 feet of sandy shoreline. Olin Sang Ruby graciously offered to host the RWB Chip, given that the former site, Lutheran Homes of Oconomowoc, is undergoing major new construction. All activities for the RWB Chip will be held on the Olin Sang Ruby grounds, including the youth party featuring music, campfires, volleyball, basketball, soccer and more!

Optimist sailors earn invitations to the RWB Chip by being top finishers at the following white-blue-red fleet regattas: two invitations at Midwest Junior Olympics (Lake Forest), Beulah Fun Regatta, Aquatennial (Calhoun), USODA Upper Midwest Champs (Minnetonka), GLSS Opti Open, Deephaven (Minnetonka), Kaszube Cup (Milwaukee), SHEETS, TCYS; five invitations and "declines" at ILYA Opti Champs (Minnetonka).

Each yacht club with active Opti sailors also receives one invitation to award to a sailor of their choice. Clubs should contact rwbchip@wi.rr.com to Red 27, See Blue Chio express interest and identify the club official and address to whom the invitation documents should be sent. All invitations must be awarded by August 9 to ensure admission of all qualified sailors.

New Format for WYA X Championship at Labelle

The WYA X Championship regatta will be held July 21, 22 and 23, 2006 at Lac Labelle in Oconomowoc. Following a strong X turnout at the Labelle Tuneup, we've made some major changes to better accommodate the large fleet we expect at the X Championship.

First and foremost, the regatta will be headquartered in the beautiful barn owned by Dave, Cathy, Dirk and Teri Debbink, on the northeastern side of Lac Labelle. What our lake lacks in facilities is always made up for in hospitality, and this regatta is certainly no exception. Sailors will be pre-assigned to host houses in the bays closest to the barn for mooring, and LYC volunteers will walk everyone through the registration, launch and pullout process. The barn gives us far more room than the Parks and Rec Center, where the regatta was originally scheduled to be headquartered. With more parking, less congestion, no grappling with city traffic on Wisconsin Avenue, and easy mooring in several adjacent bays, we expect the barn to be a great location for everyone.

With the change in venue, LYC volunteers are putting together a launch process that ensures each X boat will be launched, taxied to their host home, and returned to the barn without excessive wait times at any point. To better facilitate this, we need all participants to register and launch on Friday, July 21. If you are absolutely unable to launch on Friday, please contact me as soon as possible to make other arrangements. Before launching, all boats will register at Greenland Elementary School, approximately halfway between the barn and the Parks and Rec. Upon registration, each boat will be issued a launch ticket and sent to the Parks and Rec Center for launching, where an LYC taxi will be waiting to take the X-boat to its pre-assigned host house. Trailers will be returned to Greenland Elementary, where they will be stored for the weekend.

This sounds like a lot of planning for an X regatta, and it is. But, we are hoping for 75 boats, and we want to make sure we're ready to accommodate everyone. We are looking forward to a great regatta, and expect to see some of the best young sailors in Wisconsin on our lake next month. Registration continued on page 50

chris Wean Xercises consistency in win

by Tammi Hauck

The weekend before Memorial Day was the start of glorious summer sailing conditions and the good turnout at LaBelle Yacht Club's annual Tune Up Regatta indicated that the sailors are ready. Three good races were sailed by 15 C scows and 25 X boats – one of the largest fleets at this regatta in awhile.

Three different skippers enjoyed race wins in the X fleet: Alex Kay (Okauchee), Chris Colombe (Pewaukee/Beulah), and Ryan "way out in front" Grosch (Nagawicka). But consistent sailing won out for the home-lake overall fleet winner – Christopher Wean (LaBelle).

Everyone had a great time and LaBelle invites even more C and X skippers to attend this regatta next year – always the weekend before Memorial Day and always a great, relaxed way to get your season going.

Kutschenreuters thrive in Xtreme weather

submitted by Jeff Seeboth

The 17th annual PYC X Class White Cap Regatta was held on May 13th which was one week later than last year but you couldn't tell that based on the temperature. Although this event has had a history of cold weather sailing the 48 degree ambient coupled with the 52 degree water temperature made for an uncomfortable day to be out on the lake. Race 1 started on time in 5 to 7 mph wind out of an easterly direction which makes for a good course on Pewaukee. George and Charlie Kutschenreuter from Beulah took the lead with Nicholas and Madeline Clemence from Pewaukee and Chris and Greta Banholzer from Beaver in hot pursuit. With the small turn out of 13 boats the balance of the fleet was made up of a group of very talented sailors all of which were capable of winning a race so the lead was feeling the pressure, The B-16 held on to win race one.

Race two was scheduled to start immediately and with a steady breeze continuing out of the east race two started at 11:44. Again George and Charlie in the B-16 were out in front. Nicholas & Madeline in the V-62 were again chasing closely but the mix had changed with Jordan Kaerek and Nathan Heppe in the V-34 battling for position. This left the Banholzer boat K-505 working very hard to improve their situation. Again, a very competitive race with the B-16 taking the honors. The fleet retired to the club house for a lasagna lunch complete with salad and garlic bread which really hit the spot, needless to say there were no leftovers.

After lunch and some serious warming up race 3 was scheduled for 2:30 start. The breeze had freshened a bit to 8 to 10 mph. This time George and Charlie in the

B-16 found themselves in trouble as they struggled to work their way through the fleet. Chris & Greta Banholzer sailing the Buckshot worked themselves into a solid lead but Nicholas & Madeline in the V-62 were a serious threat. At this point the B-16 was back in the pack dealing with the likes of Ben Biwer, Drake Sprinkman and Alex DeGuire which is a difficult position to be in. As the final leg of the race played out the K-505 held onto their lead to the finish followed by V-62 and the Kutschenreuter boat with a brilliant tactical effort finished third.

It was a fun day of racing and as with any event we thank the volunteers who were responsible for putting this event together. Russ Ackley our PRO and his team were on task and put together near perfect courses and worked the schedule very well to accomplish all three races in a timely manner. Big thanks to Barb Seeboth and her team who put together breakfast and a fabulous lunch. Complete results follow:
