Announcing the 2006 Commodore's Tour

At the 2006 Winter Inland, I met with the delegates and board of directors to share my thoughts about sportsmanship, governance, regatta management, youth sailing, and other important initiatives that affect the future of the ILYA. I believe these initiatives represent a starting point for long-range planning for our association, and they are discussed more fully in a document posted on the ILYA Web site.

My views in that document have been forged through thirty years of listening to members, delegates, board members, and past commodores in my various roles as sailing school director, measurer, race officer, judge, board member, historian, and now commodore. But any long-range planning that will be undertaken won't be done in a vacuum. It will require considerable communication among all ILYA members.

The "Commodore's Tour" I have proposed is all about communication-bringing the message of ILYA heritage and traditions to our members, yet doing some serious listening too. The overarching goal of the tour is to connect our local lakes more closely to the ILYA by sharing what we stand for, what we do, and how we might do it better. This sharing can be in the form of:

 talking about the ILYA initiatives on sportsmanship and fair sailing, and how it enhances the ILYA regatta experience;

Keep this issue handy!

Sailors, many of the Regatta Notices of Race that you may need for this season are in this issue. They may not be repeated in the Late Spring issue, so hang on to this one.

- explaining the many services offered by the ILYA, and how clubs can take advantage of them;
- presenting race management and judging (protest) seminars;
- giving talks to sailors on ILYA history and traditions; and
- meeting with sailing school instructors, boards, and students to discuss a healthy approach to youth sports and sportsmanship.

I'd like to start the communication process by visiting any member club of the ILYA within Minnesota, Iowa, Wisconsin, and northern Illinois. The communication format can vary. We can meet in round-table discussions, at social events, lunches or dinners, or at illustrated "lectures" in groups of any size. We can sit around a dining room table or gather a half-dozen clubs in a local auditorium.

I've already scheduled stops in June and July to southern Wisconsin, perhaps by way of Lake Winnebago and Green Lake. My June 10-15 trip will include a visit to the ILYA instructors clinic at Lake Beulah, while my July 16-19 trip to the southern lakes will allow me to visit sailing schools during the day and member clubs at night. (Both trips have open slots for additional visits.) I've also scheduled visits in March, April, and May to visit Clear Lake, Lake Calhoun, and White Bear Lake. If club commodores, sailing school directors, social directors, or sailors want to sign up for a visit, or have other ideas about how the Commodore's Tour can better serve your club's needs, please drop me an e-mail (tom_hodgson@comcast.com) or call me at 651-739-8406 (home) or 651-248-1058 (cell).

Nothing would be more personally rewarding than to spend part of this summer sharing ideas about our wonderful organization and how its strong heritage can ensure an equally strong future. It is my hope that, by the end of my term as commodore next February, we will have built a philosophical vision-a working definition of our purposes as stated in the ILYA bylaws-that will guide future decisionmaking in a way that honors the countless members who have volunteered a century's worth of time and energy to make the ILYA great. --Commodore Tom Hodgson

E Hood retires from North Sails Zenda

After forty-five years of sailing, thirty-four of which have been spent working in the sailing industry on various levels, Eric Hood, 50, currently with Melges Performance Sailboats and North Sails Zenda has announced his retirement as of February 24, 2006.

"I am very thankful to have had a great career, not to mention the tremendous amount of success I have experienced as a member of the Melges and North Sails organizations and sailing teams. In particular, I would like to extend a very special thank you to everyone in Zenda and at North. You are the next best thing to family to me and I appreciate your encouragement, confidence and support over the past seventeen years. It has been really fun. I witnessed some unforgettable moments and have made many fantastic friendships that will remain with me forever."

Eric's last regatta was at the legendary Lake Eustis Sailing Club in Lake Eustis, Florida where he is an honorary, lifetime member.

Eric will be beginning a new career with Willow Creek Community Church and longtime sailing friend Senior Pastor, Bill Hybels, where he will be assisting in the development of relationships with other church organizations that participate in a worldwide conference pioneered by Hybels called the Leadership Summit.

"This is simply a change of season for me. It's about choosing between something excellent and something great, and this is something that is a significant value in my life."

Stay in touch with Eric beyond the sailing world realm. He can be contacted by email at hood.eric@gmail.com.

The 2006 Winter Inland Festival

The 2006 Winter Inland, the sixteenth annual, was held in the heart of Wisconsin Scow Country, at the Country Springs Convention Center in Pewaukee with a great turnout rivaling any so far.

Junior Programs and the Sailing Director and Promotion Programs were the kickoff events for Friday afternoon and evening. Saturday morning was reserved for the adult fleet meetings, followed by the luncheon and awards presentations. Saturday afternoon's roundtable discussions were capped off with a fabulous tour of the Harken members and delegates and to complete the agenda for their biannual meeting.

It was with great satisfaction that Commodore Hodgson awarded the John Hunt Memorial Trophy jointly to Sally Barkow and to Ralph Eckert (representing the entire Eckert clan) as co-members of the year.

Sally had just been named the US SAILING Rolex Woman Sailor of the Year, and had spent the year campaigning in preparation for the 2008 Olympics, winning seven major international and national events. Everywhere she went she brought the spirit of Inland sailing and its correspondent sportsmanship ideals with her. She made a great ambassador for the ILYA.

Meanwhile, back at home, the Eckert family represented the entire history of Inland club-oriented family sailing. Several generations of Eckerts were on hand to congratulate patriarchs Jack and Ralph for instilling the love of sailing and good sportsmanship in so many of the family, a significant number of whom have gone on to earn credible sailing honors within and without the ILYA

In conjunction with the honoring of the Eckert family, their home club, Cedar, Wisconsin was awarded the ILYA Club of the Year Trophy for their special brand of hospitality in running ILYA events, and especially junior events in 2005. Commodore Anita Hauske was on hand to accept the award.

The Pillsbury Trophy is awarded to the ILYA Champion of Champions each year, determined by a (not so secret) committee of the Board. The 2005 recipient was Chris Jewett, who sailed a fantastic Class E Scow Championship Regatta at Okoboji with his brother Tony, Commodore Hodgson, also Past Admiral of the Bilge Pullers, was happy to announce and present the ILYA Hall of Fame honorees for 2006, which included Peter Barrett, John O. Johnson, Harold Koch, Edmund Pillsbury, Nat Robbins, and Walter Sprinkman. Families and friends were present to accept these awards.

We were fortunate to have 2004 Olympic Gold Medalist Kevin Burnham address us at the luncheon and lead a couple of afternoon seminars. In addition, we were graced by the attendance of US SAILING President Janet Baxter.

The Nagawicka Yacht Club, hosts of the 2006 ILYA C Scow Invitational, displayed their theme "Will Old Guys Rule?"

The Edmund Pillsbury Memorial Cup

In August 1952, Mr. and Mrs. John S. Pillsbury and family in memory of Edmund Pillsbury presented to the Inland Lake Yachting Association a trophy to be known as "The Edmund Pillsbury Memorial Cup" to be awarded annually to the skipper of the yacht, irrespective of class, who makes the outstanding record in the annual Inland Lake Yachting Association Regatta.

With the permission of the Pillsbury family it was decided in 1965 to award this trophy in the future to the outstanding skipper at the annual regatta, selection to be made by an anonymous

ILYA HAll of Fame

presented by ILYA Bilge Pullers

The ILYA Hall of Fame was organized in 2002, the brainchild of Bilge Puller's past Admiral Dick Casper. To date, seventeen ILYA competitors and contributors have been honored in the Hall of Fame.

The process of electing an honoree is an elegant one and begins with nominations from any ILYA member. These nominations are forwarded to any ILYA Past Commodore, or any Bilge Puller's Past Admiral. From there, nominations go to a screening committee and, if qualified, are placed on the ballot as either an outstanding contributor or an outstanding competitor. The ballot is then sent to all Past Admirals and Past Commodores who are then asked to vote for up to 10 nominees in each category. Any nominee receiving a vote on 70% of the ballots qualifies.

In addition, qualified nominees from the first half-century of the ILYA's existence can be placed into the Hall of Fame by a unanimous vote of the Historian's Committee. This committee, made up (no surprise here) of Past Admirals and Past Commodores, seeks to fill the void where the memories of our current electors leave off.

How you can be involved:

All members of the ILYA can participate in the nomination process. Simply contact any Past Commodore of the ILYA, or Past Admiral of the ILYA Bilge Pullers. Any biographical information you can provide would be helpful. All names will be forwarded to the screening committee for consideration.

The first four elections to the Hall of Fame have produced a group of honorees that is extraordinary. In the near future, you will be able to read more about these extraordinary sailors on the ILYA web site. Here, with the briefest of introductions, are the inductees that were honored at the Winter Inland:

Edmund Pillsbury (Minnetonka Yacht Club)

Pillsbury was one of the premier A scow sailors in both the pre- and post-World War II ILYA. A seven-time Class A Champion, he won championships in 1933-35, 1946-48, and 1950. In his streak of championships between 1935 and 1948, Pillsbury won 15 of the 18 races sailed in those Annual Regattas, and never finished out of the top three.

Nat Robbins (Minnetonka Yacht Club)

Elected Commodore in 1975. Robbins entered his first ILYA regatta in 1957—the ILYA E Championship, and won it by capturing the last race. He won ILYA Championships again in 1966 and 1971, and also finished runner-up three times. In between his ILYA wins, he captured the 1961 NCESA regatta and won the Blue Chip in 1968.

John O. Johnson (White Bear Yacht Club)

Founded Johnson Boat Works in 1896 and is considered one of the true pioneers of scow design. In 1934, Johnson was commissioned by the ILYA to create the Cub boat's basic design. He designed the D and Y scows, which became sanctioned ILYA classes. Johnson crewed for many ILYA champions in the Corinthian era of ILYA sailing.

Peter Barrett (Pewaukee and Mendota Yacht Clubs)

ILYA Champion in A-scow in 1978. Competed in three Olympic Games, winning the Silver medal in the Finn class in 1964, and Gold (with Lowell North) in Stars in 1968. Won 470 Nationals, Finn North Americans, and the 1971 Chicago-Mackinac race. Regarded world-wide for his sportsmanship. Honored in the Sailing World Hall of Fame.

Walter Sprinkman (Cedar Lake Yacht Club)

Elected Commodore of the ILYA from 1942-1947. The driving force behind the founding of the Bilge Pullers and first Keeper of the Log and Lucre, serving from 1939 until elected Admiral in 1949. His remarkable record of service includes decades of race committee work and eight terms as Commodore of the Cedar Lake Yacht Club.

Harold Koch (Pewaukee Yacht Club)

Elected Commodore of the ILYA in 1959, and served as Admiral of Bilge Pullers from 1960-61. Koch and his Thor of Oslo set hundreds of ILYA race courses and starting lines. One of those rare, generous people who understood and perpetuated the traditions of the ILYA. At the time he became Commodore, he had been a part of the ILYA for 50 years.

RC Seminars, SI changes, and PRO assignments

ON-THE-WATER SEMINAR

We will again be sponsoring a spring workshop on Saturday, May 13, 2006, at Cedar Lake Wisconsin in conjunction with the Cedar Lake Spring Tune-up Regatta.

We'll start at 08:30 and will conclude by 16:00. Included will be classroom presentations and discussion which will be followed by "on the water" practice.

Please RSVP to Chip Mann at jmann@jensengroup.com before May 6, 2006.
There is a nominal charge of $10 to cover the cost of lunch and incidentals.

For those of you who are interested, a US Sailing Basic Race Management Seminar will be presented at the Lake Geneva Yacht Club on May 6, 2006. Contact John Strassman at jstrassman@wi.rr.com or Bob Pegel at 262-245-6242 or check the US Sailing website for more information.

Attendance at this seminar and successful completion of the test will result in certification as a Club Race Officer.

SAILING INSTRUCTION CHANGES

In response to many comments from sailors and race management personnel, the Committee took a close look at our Sailing Instructions. The main problem seemed to be the fact that many of us attend several ILYA regattas in the course of the summer and at each regatta the SIs, while basically the same, have subtle differences. To eliminate this problem, the Committee has divided the SIs into two parts. Part A Sailing Instructions are specific for each regatta and class. Part B Sailing instructions are general for all ILYA regattas and classes and will not change during the racing season. Therefore, after your first regatta, you really only have to study Part A because it will have all the important stuff.

Also in response to a request by some race officers and the necessity to discard a race because of some ambiguities in the shorthand used to represent a specific course, we have reviewed the course illustrations. We think we've come up with a simple, straight forward method. For 2006, the Olympic (O) designation has been eliminated. There will now be only two types of laps: Windward/Leeward (W) and Triangle (T). The course display shorthand will be a combination of the types of laps, a number of successive repetitions of that particular type of lap (if the number is absent, 1 is assumed), and a plus sign (+) if the finish is to be upwind. Thus a W2+ represents 2 successive windward/ leeward laps with an upwind finish and is the same as the old W-2 1/2. A W2T+ represents 2 successive windward/ leeward laps followed by 1 triangle lap with an upwind finish. Omitting the plus sign (+) would represent a downwind finish at the end of the last lap listed. While developed for ILYA regattas, the system is easily adaptable to club racing and a slightly modified presentation will be available on the ILYA website.

ANNUAL CHAMP COORDINATOR

Diane Sherin will be serving as race management coordinator for the Big Inland at Lake Geneva in August. If you are in need of housing, etc., please contact Diane at sherin@adcnet.com or 262-275-3095.

The ILYA Race Management & Judging Committee has assigned the PROs for almost twenty ILYA sanctioned regattas. This list is published on the ILYA website and in this ScowSlants. If you're interested in participating on one of the race committees, please contact the PRO. They have been instructed to try and incorporate all volunteers onto their teams.

The ILYA is back in the PFD business. We are offering Extrasport Challengers at $50 and the higher end Retro Avengers at $85. These were especially well received this past summer.

Limited quantities are in stock for all sizes of both models. While we can't put an ILYA patch on the jackets, we can maintain our service of supplying quality safety equipment for our youth and adult sailors. It's easy to order these through the ILYA office. See the order form on page ??.

ILYA Principal Race Officer assignments for 2006

Oconomowoc club offers membership opportunity

The Oconomowoc Lake Club in Oconomowoc, Wisconsin, would like to announce a new "Sailing Membership" opportunity for area sailors. The Club, located on peaceful Oconomowoc Lake, has over a 100 year sailing tradition not to mention the historic trophies just waiting for the engraving of your name and that of your crew. This "Sailing Membership" allows a C or MC class sailor in our fleet full use of our Dockside dining facilities any time Thursday, Saturday and Sunday's during the 2006 sailing season. We have developed a more accommodating race schedule that includes races on Thursday nights and Saturdays. In addition, the Club has free storage spots for your boat on a first come first serve basis. For $500 a season, a sailor and their family can enjoy our first rate private yacht club, store their boat on premise and race on one of the most beautiful lakes in the area. If this might be of interest to you please call Scott Niedermeyer at 262-560-1255 or email me at scott@snaconsulting.net. This membership could be just the experience you and your family needs at this point in your sailing life.

Creative writing class evokes memories for a retired Inland sailor

by Bob Kimberly

Coming from a large family of sailors, it was not surprising that I started sailing an X boat on Lake Winnebago when I was six years old. I raced X boats at the Neenah-Nodaway Yacht Club until 1946. That year my father, Jack Kimberly, bought one of two A boats Iver Johnson had built just before the war. Neenah was hosting the Inland that year, and we wanted to compete in the A fleet. I sailed with my father for four years. Then he retired, and I took over the helm of the "Eskimo," the second "A" Buddy built.

I sailed A's for the next sixteen years, less two years in the Coast Guard protecting Los Angeles harbor. Then I downsized to an M-20 which I raced three more years. In 1965 I moved to Arizona, and four years later to Seattle where we raised, trained, and showed Dressage horses. In 1999 we sold the farm and moved to town. Looking for something to do, started taking Creative Writing classes.

Recently our homework was to write about a triumphant or humiliating experience. The only humiliating experience I could think of was the race in Neenah when Buddy tipped over near the end of the last downwind leg and still managed to finish ahead of me. He has beaten thousands of us, but how many while capsized! There had to be a better story!

That night I was reading Scow Slants. In "View from the Foredeck" Commodore Hodgson referred to "keeping our hull on a plane" and the following poem is the result.

The Stopwatch

Way in the back of the top desk drawer I found my old stopwatch. How many starts had it timed?

I held it fondly and could feel again the blowing wind and motion of the boat. The Prep gun was about to fire.

Bang! Five minutes to go, sail away from the line for about two minutes.

Four minutes left, keep up to windward, prepare to tack.

Three minutes, hard-a-lee.
We're heading back.
Where's the competition?
Don't let them get above us.
Two minutes now on the watch.
Start to trim, pick up speed.
We're too close, luff a moment.
One minute! Here we go!

Trim, trim, we're moving faster, Thirty seconds, we're right on, watch that boat below, he has to give us room.

Five, four, three, two, one, a perfect start! We clear the committee boat. Where is the gun?

The silence slowly brings me back into my study, gently holding in my hand a forgotten piece of my life.

On A Plane

Driven by storm winds through the night, the waves had been building three or four feet high, running from the south up the shallow lake.

The race starts into the wind; we pound our way, driving to the weather mark, round the buoy, set the spinnaker, and head for home looking for that perfect swell to climb upon. Catching one at last, we trim the sails, start to plane, racing down the lake at the speed of wind, balanced on the crest, all sheets and stays drum tight and straining, giving life to the boat.

In these moments a sailor's soul becomes one with wind and waves.

Sail writer competes at Inland

Josh Adams wrote a great story about the 2005 ILYA Annual Championship Regatta at Okoboji for the January issue of Sail Magazine. Andy Burdick found an MC for Josh and his wife, Sarah, to race. The following is an excerpt from the article:

...For inland-racing families, scow sailing is clearly about more than racing around buoys. This all helps explain the post-race scene at Okoboji Yacht Club, which felt more like a reunion than a competitive regatta. For Okoboji sailors like MC stalwart Steve Avery, hosting friends from other lakes-including Geneva, Mendota, and Pewaukee in Wisconsin and Minnetonka and White Bear in Minnesota-returns the favor from past regattas.

The racing on day one was over now. Sailors gathered on the rambling lawn of the Okoboji Yacht Club, as a circle formed around the leader board and the post-race analysis started. "It was wiggy out there," said an MC sailor of the shifty conditions. Elsewhere, events unrelated to sailing were transpiring. Members of the Bilge Pullers initiation class were on hand; the loosely organized fraternity, whose members all got their start in scow sailing pulling on the windward and leeward bilgeboard controls, admits young members after some goodnatured hazing. Some of the new Bilge Pullers were headed toward the dunk tank.

The what? Consider this Midwest racing innovation: daily race winners at the inlands are subject to a public dunking. Also-rans line up to throw balls at a target, which when struck results in a wet winner. You have to be there to appreciate the brilliance of this tradition. Sarah and I viewed it as the cure for our rough day on the water. Look out, Dan Fink, MC number 2044 and winner of race three. Here comes the Adams family in thirtieth place. You're going to get wet.

Goodwill of donors supports ILYA

The good will of ILYA supporters was evident again in 2005 as over $25,000 in donations of cash and services were received by the ILYA office or its host clubs.

In addition to the numerous general donations, many corporate donations were used to support the ILYA Annual Championship at Okoboji, including generous donations from Melges Performance Sailboats, North Sails Zenda, Agency Trading Group, and Morgan Stanley. Over $12,000 was donated in support of the Sailing Director Program which has been so successful (see page 20 for donors to date). Nearly $9,000 in general cash donations were received.

We thank Brad Robinson for the extensive efforts he took to update and protect various ILYA trophies. Suzi Reese and Leslie Barkow are perennial donors to the successful Winter Inland, and Suzi spends literally hours publishing the Xploits section of Scow Slants. Candace Porter has taken tremendous volunteer effort to cochair the Sailing Director/Promotion Committee with Reese.

Many others supported our many programs with their time and expertise in ILYA junior programs, Race Committee programs, and general ILYA administration. Our Board members deserve thanks for the time they are serving our Association.

We thank these and all other contributors, whether they be directors, race committee, board members, other committee members, or members who made donations of cash and or time in 2005. The ILYA appreciates your support. We apologize if we have inadvertently left anyone unmentioned. The 2006 dues statements provide space for making donations.

Fee and Registration

$35.00 per sailor with advanced registration. $45 after June 21. Skippers need not be members of the ILYA in order to participate. Checks payable to Clear Lake Yacht Club.

Special Requirements

- Motorboats may be launched downtown at City Beach or on South Shore Drive near the Heartland Inn.
- 7. No motorboats are allowed in the swim area at Clear Lake City Park.

Schedule

A skippers' meeting will be held at 10:00 a.m. and the first race will start at 10:30.

Races

Five races will be scheduled for the Senior fleet, and four will be scheduled for the Junior fleet. The races will be scheduled to best accommodate launching, fun, and lunch. All courses will be explained at the skippers' meeting.

Fleets

The Junior fleet will be for sailors aged 5-8; the Senior fleet for ages 9-15. Ages will be determined as of 1/1/06. The fleets are planned to race on separate courses.

A sailing school instructor and motorboat is required for each fleet in which a lake has a sailor registered, i.e., two instructors or more plus two motorboats are needed if the lake has sailors in both the Junior and Senior fleets. Instructors must check in with the regatta officials at the time of arrival.

physical, or medical. Spectator boats will be instructed to stay 200 yards from the race course.

Starting Sequence and Procedures

The Race Committee will call out starting sequence times to the sailors. The system will be explained at the skippers' meeting.

Any boat which starts prematurely will be hailed by the Race Committee to do a 360° turn when safe to do so. Sailors only have to do the 360° turn when the Race Committee hails them to do so.

Scoring

The Low Point System will be used. Ties will be broken by US SAILING tie breaker; i.e., the boat with the highest finishing race will win the tie. DNF and DNS will be scored one worse than the number of registered boats.

Awards

Each participating skipper will receive a gift bag. If two sailors are known to be coskippering in the same boat, please indicate on the registration form. Awards for 1st through 10th places will be awarded in both fleets.

ILYA CENTENNIAL C INVITATIONAL REGATTA NAGAWICKA LAKE July 20-23

WILL OLD GUYS RULE?

The theme of this regatta was a result of a comment made by Zach Clayton, who wrote that he would not race sailboats anymore after the age of 50. (see Scow Slants, Fall/Winter). This made us think about the C Fleet, and how many of the top sailors are considered 'Old Guys', at least in Zach's eyes. When the C Fleet comes together for its Centennial Invitational Regatta this summer, will the 'Old Guys' rule? Or will the winners be the 'Other Guys?' Along with the race standings each day, a cumulative score sheet for 'Old Guys' vs. 'Other Guys' will be posted. (P.S. Good Luck, Other Guys.

We already have Buddy signed up and registered!)

Need more incentive?

NLYC has a reputation for running great regattas, and this will be no exception. Some of the perks are:

- Guaranteed housing with sailing families. Contact Sharon Kraklow. skraklow@hotmail.com 262-367-6222.

Birthplace of the Class A Scow...

White Bear hosts the ILYA Class A Invitational

The White Bear Yacht Club (WBYC) is delighted to announce it is hosting the 2006 Class A ILYA Invitational Regatta on July 20-23. Both Open and One Design Classes are invited to enter the regatta and will be raced in a single fleet. This Invitational event marks the 106th year since the first A scow was built in White Bear Lake by John O. Johnson. One of his grandsons, Steve Johnson, will be racing the last wooden A scow built by Johnson Boat Works in 1963. Registration for the regatta will take place at the WBYC Sailing Pavilion on Thursday afternoon, July 20, 2006.

The primary objectives of the regatta committee are to (1) provide challenging and unusual racing conditions, (2) create memorable social events that enhance the comradeship of A sailors, and (3) build enthusiasm in the greater White Bear community for scow sailing. The committee welcomes the assistance of the Minnetonka Yacht Club in conducting this regatta. Our Principal Race Officer has indicated that he will design one or more unique courses that will be similar to courses sailed in the first part of the last century. The design of these courses will allow spectators on shore to witness the races from excellent vantage points. Last year, more than 100 enthusiastic, but respectful, spectator boats cheered on the crews during the final race of the regatta.

Rules/Jurisdiction

Tom Hodgson, Commodore of the ILYA, will serve as the Principal Race Officer (PRO). The regatta will be governed by the (2005-8) Racing Rules of Sailing, the prescriptions of the United States Sailing Association, the Rules and Bylaws of the ILYA, the scantling rules of Class A Open, except as any of these specifications are modified by the Sailing Instructions. The Sailing Instructions will be included as part of the registration materials. There is no requirement that boats be weighed for this regatta.

All communications will be by VHF radio, hailer when required, and flag signals.

Eligibility

The regatta is open to all Class A Scows whose skippers comply with the requirements set out in the ILYA bylaws and are Family, Regular, Youth, or Life members of the ILYA. Crew members become members of the Association by virtue of the yacht's completed registration. For membership information, please contact the ILYA office at (262) 275-6921, email ScowSlants@aol.com, or find it on the web at www.ilya.org/ membership.html.

Advance Registration and Entry Fees

Entries should be submitted on official ILYA Regatta Entry Application forms. The entry fee is $240 per boat. Entries must be postmarked or otherwise received by July 7 to avoid the $40 late entry fee prescribed by the ILYA bylaw 12.18.30d. The Regatta Entry form, which includes the Waiver of Liability and other pertinent information, may be found in this issue of Scow Slants and is also available from the ILYA Executive Secretary. Participants may also register on-line at www.ilya.org/regattainfo.html.

The Ultimate Ride

"The Ultimate Ride," a documentary film on the history of the A scow, is being produced and directed by Peter Crawford and his production company, Penalty Box Productions. Peter grew up sailing scows on Lake Minnetonka and in recent years began his career in the television and film industry. Peter has been working on this film for the past 2 years, and his hard work and passion for sailing and filmmaking has produced some great footage. You can find out more details about the film and view the trailer at the films website www.theultimateridethemovie.com.

"The Ultimate Ride" will have a running time of just over 60 minutes and will document and preserve the 107 year old history of the A scow and pay homage to the real reason for its success, the people behind it all. The film will be loaded with interviews, archived film and photos, as well as adrenaline soaked live A scow action. The film's objective is to excite people of all ages to desire to become active in the sport of sailing and more importantly SCOW sailing.

Gary Jobson will provide commentary and narrate the script written by ILYA Historian and Commodore Tom Hodgson. Gary has also agreed to present the film at its World Premiere August 11, 2006 at the ILYA Championship Regatta hosted by the Lake Geneva Yacht Club. This is an event you will not want to miss! The night will make you feel like you are at a starstudded Hollywood Premiere!

Peter plans to distribute the film in DVD format with a portion of every DVD sold going to support the NCASA and ILYA organizations. You can order your copy now on The Ultimate Ride website for a special pre-sale price, and soon you will be able to order copies from www.ilya.org. Delegates meet at Winter Inland

ANNUAL MEETING Minutes February 11, 2006 Country Springs Hotel Pewaukee, Wisconsin

Delegates to the meeting were called to order at 11:10 a.m. by Commodore Hodgson.

Executive Secretary Smith called the roll of clubs and determined that a quorum was not present. Commodore Hodgson spoke to the group informally for a few minutes while a few more delegates arrived from other meetings. It was then determined that a quorum was present. Eighteen clubs were represented.

On behalf of the Nominating Committee, Smith nominated the following to threeyear terms on the Board of Directors:

Candace Porter (Beulah, additional term)
Mark Prange (Okauchee, additional term)
Margaret Osmundson (Clear, first term)
Jack Strothman (Minnetonka, first term)
The slate was approved (D. Schmidt/C. Pinahs).

Hodgson welcomed the Delegates and thanked them for their service to the Association, emphasizing the growing need for communication among the clubs, the fleets, the individual members, and the Association.

Hodgson outlined a number of initiatives that he would like to see launched, including: emphasis and education in sportsmanship and fair sailing; meaningful regatta experiences, both socially and competitively; expert race management; and rigorous but not overbearing measuring. The association needs to consider the changing economic realities where younger families may no longer live on our lakes. Lake use and governmental issues are becoming critical issues that relate to our success. Our operations and regattas must be self-sustaining, hence we need to achieve good attendance. We need to consider the role of our invitational regattas.

Hodgson will be contacting past Commodores and other voices to consider the goals and objectives of the association. He feels that preservation of our family-oriented, local club racing base is critical, and that we need to engender a philosophy of learning and striving over winning in our youth, and that we need to maintain the spirit of fellowship and respect that sets us apart from most other associations.

Hodgson is looking to initiate a Commodore's Tour of the Clubs this summer.

In discussion, delegates named the offlake residence of sailors as an issue that needs to be addressed by many clubs. A consensus among the delegates was that the north and south fall meetings of the delegates were valuable hours for sharing ideas and information. Wisconsin delegates were advised to learn about DNR proposals and Assembly Bill 850 dealing with lakefront piers and boats.

Ralph Eckert was asked to share his successful method for raising funds for the Sailing Director/Promotion Campaign. He was able to raise a substantial amount of money in a short time without making phone calls or begging for donations. Eckert feels that if every club did what he did, the ILYA clubs could raise enough money to endow the program. Eckert is willing to share the technique with any other clubs.

The meeting was adjourned at 12:00 p.m. (R. Beers/W. MacNeill).

Respectfully submitted, James A. Smith Executive Secretary

Position Available: Head Instructor at Green Lake

The Green Lake sailing School has an opening for Head Instructor during the summer of 2006. The school runs two 4week sessions from mid-June through mid-August.

A successful candidate will have prior experience, be US Sailing Level 1 certified and be comfortable with students aged seven through adult. Our program covers a wide range from beginning junior sailors to adults and includes many beginning sailors who are looking to learn about the sport. We also offer private lessons and one-week miniclinics. While we have a long standing racing program in Green Lake, it is important that the candidate be interested in educating sailors with a wide range of interests.

Ideally, a successful candidate would also mentor our local assistant instructor and prepare that person to become Head Instructor in the future.

Our fleet consists of Optimist Dinghies, Laser Radials, Precision 15 daysailors and Barnett 1400s. Last year we added several Hobie sit-on-top kayaks for use as an alternative activity on nonwind days, so familiarity with paddle sports would be a plus. In addition, we have a Zodiac RIB safety boat.

Please visit our website: www.greenlakesailingschool.com to learn more about the school. For more information or to submit a letter of interest, please contact Bur Zeratsky via e-mail: bur@nationalrivet.com

Board of Directors meet at Winter Inland

Minutes February 12, 2006 Country Springs Hotel Pewaukee, Wisconsin

The meeting was called to order at 9:05 a.m. by Commodore Hodgson. The following directors were present: Harken, C. Porter, Prange, Jenness, Haines, Friend, Andert, Catlin, Colburn, Kaiser, Barkow, Mann, Osmundson, S. Schmidt, Slocum, Trester, and Wyman. Lamphere and Strothman were absent. Rules Committee At-Large member D. Porter was present and Baker was absent. Measurement Committee Chair Sundberg was absent. Class IOD representative Reese was present. Class X representative K. Schmidt was present. Guests included Brad and Susanna Robinson, Steve Johnson, Fletcher Driscoll, Allen Buzzell, Bill Wyman, Chookie Kilander, Lee Alnes, Phil Petersen, Pat Dunsworth, Bill Hudson, John Hayashi, Grant Frautschi, and Bill Ward.

Haines and Evans were elected by the A One Design Fleet as co-chairs of the fleet, with either to act on Rules and Board issues.

Commodore Hodgson welcomed the members and guests, and made special note of our 2005 Gold and Silver level contributors to the Sailing Director/Promotion Campaign such as the Wymans, Trester, and Harken, all present. Hodgson thanked Reese and C. Porter and Harken for planning and executing one of the best Winter Inlands to date.

Past Commodore and Nominating Committee Chairman Harken announced that the delegates had elected the slate presented by the committee, which was comprised of the following:

- Candace Porter, Beulah, for an additional three-year term
- Mark Prange, Okauchee, for an additional three-year term
- Margaret Osmundson, Clear, for a first three-year term
- Jack Strothman, Minnetonka, for a first three-year term

Harken moved to re-elect the following officers for 2006:

- Thomas Hodgson, Commodore
- Candace Porter, Vice Commodore
- Mark Prange, Secretary/Treasurer

On a second by Mann, the motion was approved unanimously.

Hodgson announced the appointment of a legal committee to be chaired by Dixon Tews of White Bear, and comprised of Jule Hannaford of Minnetonka, and Kathy Sawyer Gutenkunst of Pewaukee. Director S. Schmidt will act as Board liaison to the committee.

Hodgson announced that Slocum had agreed to chair the Rules Committee.

Hodgson described his plans for a long range planning committee to be comprised of past commodores, the executive secretary, and others. The many voices will be charged to reflect on the purpose and goals of the Association, and will consider how to implement many of the initiatives already in place, which include the following: continuation of the local club and family oriented emphasis of ILYA sailing, social programs, Sailing Director position, scantling and by-law maintenance, web presence, regatta attendance and promotion. In addition, Hodgson would like the committee to explore the following: sportsmanship, fair sailing, and respect; youth sailing philosophy; effects of a changing economy; riparian rights and lake use issues; and the role of invitational regattas. In addition to the committee's voices, Hodgson would like to implement a "Commodore's tour" of clubs during 2006. Complete details of the Commodore's initiative are available from the ILYA office.

Executive Secretary Smith announced the new location of the ILYA office at 149 Third Ave., Fontana, Wisconsin, 53125. Post Office Box number 311, phone and fax remain the same as before.

The minutes of the October 22, 2005 meetings were approved as published (Barkow/Prange).

The actions of the Executive Committee were approved (Jenness/Catlin). These included the Winter Inland awards, raising the host club stipend for the Annual Championship Regatta to $14,000 for $12,000, and apportioning 100% of the Class A Open Invitational fees to the host club in 2006.

Smith reviewed the meeting protocol and voting procedures for the Rules Committee portion of the meeting, which was chaired by Slocum. The issue of Tolerance controls for classes C and X was tabled. Slocum asked for limited fleet reports to be followed by motions and recommendations to the race committee.

Class A Open (Jenness) reported that the fleet will take advantage of the ILYA website for its class use. The fleet has worked on a fleet sail designator. Scantling codification is completed. The fleet wants the ILYA to maintain scantlings. The fleet would like to have Clear Lake host the 2007 Invitational. The fleet is working on a championship trophy and additional race trophies.

Class A One Design (Haines) reported ongoing promotional efforts led by Galley, Beukema, Evans, and Crawford, including the latter's feature length film, to be premiered at Geneva during the ILYA Annual Championship. Gary Jobson will emcee the premier party and will be sailing in the event. An improved national class website is near completion. The weekly newsletter will include information from each local fleet. Five new boats will be built for 2006 and as many as 30 may race at the ILYA Championship Regatta at Geneva.

Class E (Friend) reported that boat orders are about half of normal, and that the asymmetrical issue will be determined at the end of February. If passed, the National E association format is as follows: 2006 will be a transitional year with scoring divided between two fleets. In 2007 there will be only one fleet, but both traditional and asymmetrical rigs will be allowed. Friend asked the ILYA to continue to follow NCESA rules at its events. Mentoring and team building events, social and racing will be continued at the Invitational at Oshkosh, which may include some unscored fun races.

Class C (Andert) announced fleet ideas for a youth regatta or regattas in which current skippers would crew for graduating X Boaters or other youth. These may be in conjunction with spring events. Tolerances for the digital shape were discussed. The fleet would consider transferring scantling control to NCSSA when that group is better able to take the responsibility. The fleet celebrates 100 years in 2006 and is planning many celebrations including the raffling of a new boat. The Invitational Regatta at Nagawicka will be a special event, and the fleet hopes to draw 100 boats to Geneva.

Class I-20 (Catlin) reported no meeting at the Winter Inland. The class would agree to have the national class association take over the scantlings at some point. They are looking at Fond du Lac for a possible 2007 Invitational host.

Class M (Kaiser) reported some increased interest in the Eastern USA, and that some may join us at Geneva. The fleet needs a builder in order to grow. The ILYA has pockets of M Scow sailors that do not travel. The fleet is considering the pros and cons of remaining as a part of the Annual Championship. The fleet may consider joining the I-20 fleet for a two-fleet invitational event. The fleet will request a rudder experiment in 2006

Class MC (Colburn) reported a meeting turnout of approximately 30 participants. Colburn reported that the MCSA will consider adding a builder, but that the consideration will not occur before 2008. The invitational regatta will include an unscored handicapped start in one race at the end of the first or second day, weather permitting. Mendota will also have a pfd check at the start of each race for safety. Some MC fleets are considering a 20% penalty for sailors who receive outside assistance in a race. Concerns about lunch at Geneva had been clarified and were not an issue.

Class X (K. Schmidt) reported that the fleet discussions centered on sportsmanship and parent issues in conjunction with overall Youth Development concerns. Initiatives are in place to increase awareness of sportsmanship in the ILYA youth (and adult) events.

Class IOD (C. Porter for Reese) reported that the accepted No Tears West bid from Upper Minnetonka had been withdrawn, and that the event will be cancelled unless a host can be found. 2006 will be the last year for a joint

Warning: Classifieds Scam

You may have occasion to use the ILYA Scow Slants or the ILYA Web Site (www.ilya.org) to advertise a boat or related equipment. Evidently some scam artists have found the ILYA Web site and its classified ad page. One of our current advertisers told me he was contacted twice recently with the scam. I heard a similar story from two other ILYA members recently as well.

The scam works something like this (with possible variations): The interested person (scammer) supposedly has a friend or business acquaintance who owes him money. That money (more than you are asking for the boat) is sent to you in the form of a cashier's check (WHICH IS FAKE!). When you receive the cashier's check, you are supposed to deposit it and send a personal check for the overage amount to the scammer.

Here's how you get taken: The bank has no idea that the cashier's check is fake, so they accept it, and you send a good check to the scammer. After a few days, the bank finds out that the cashier's check was fake, and you are responsible for it. By then you are out your good check, and possibly the boat, if the scammer even bothered to come get it.

You have probably read about this type of scam in your local newspaper. I know it has been written about in the Jane written about in the Janesville (Wis.) Gazette a couple of times now.

Precautions: Don't accept or deposit any checks without having the bank first verify its authenticity. Tell others about this scam, especially if they may have items advertised somewhere.

Board

ILYA/USODA Championship. Measuring jigs for the boards and rudders are in Minnesota and will be in southeastern Wisconsin soon. Grandfathering of these needs to be done before April 1. Blades do not need to be legally grandfathered for participation in ILYA events, but sailors going to events organized by USODA or IODA will need to have the certified blades. The jigs will not likely travel to Iowa.

Fleet motions followed the reports. Class A Open asked to rededicate the returned President Valentine Cup to become a perpetual second place trophy for Class A Open. The class will build a base and a box and provide the required engraving (Jenness/C. Porter: approved). The Executive Committee was authorized to approve one of the submitted fleet designators prior to the Annual Championship at Geneva (Jenness/Colburn: approved). It was understood that a participant could display the One Design logo, the A Open logo, or no logo in ILYA and NCASA events. The codified Class A Open scantlings were approved with changes to the 2005 Class A scantlings to include the elimination of 81.1.a, and the inclusion, as rule 81.10.g, of a 2003 general scantling that was omitted in the earlier codification process of Class A, to wit: "With the clew of the jib pulled hand taut alongside the mast, and with running backstays, if any, pulled taut, no part of the jib shall extend aft of the mastline." Rule 81.1.d would specifically refer to Class A Open. The codification document was passed around and was approved (Jenness/Catlin).

In Class E, the Executive Committee was authorized to adjust the racing format for the 2006 Invitational and Championship based on actions taken by the NCESA in regard to the asymmetrical vote (Friend/Haines). Friend will inform the Executive Committee of any changes to NCESA rules that may occur, and more importantly, when they go into effect. This may affect which year is considered the transitional year for ILYA events.

In Class M, a one year, scored, experimental rudder experiment was approved (Kaiser/Catlin). The Executive Committee was instructed to initiate contact with Canadian builder Joe Bowland regarding his M Scow mold and to consider options to obtain it (Kaiser/Catlin).

The Rules Committee will make plans to "ramp up" the measuring procedures to better insure fair racing at ILYA events. Chairman Slocum will contact the fleet reps for advice and implementation.

On a motion by Haines with second by Jenness, the following requested revisions to the Fleet Guidelines to the Race Committee were approved:

- Max. wind steady-mph: Class A Open, 23;
 Class M, 20 & Consult fleet representative.
- Max. wind gusts-mph: Class A Open, 26;
 Class M, 23 & Consult fleet representative.
- Min. wind steady-mph: Class M, & Con-

- sult fleet representative.
- Abandon if wind exceeds: Class C, 28; Class M, 23.
- Maximum # races per day: Class M, 3 & Consult fleet representative.
- RC communication by VHF: Class E, Prime.
- RC communication by hail: Class E, Second.
- Last start time if not stated in SIs: Class C, 6:00 p.m.
- Shorten course option: Class A Open, Use. Rules Committee business being completed, Slocum turned the meeting back to the Board and Commodore Hodgson, who asked for a motion to approve the actions of the Rules Committee, which was made and approved (Trester/Mann).

Regatta Coordinating Committee Chairperson C. Porter reported next. Regattas for 2006 were awarded as follows (Jenness/S. Schmidt): Class A Open Invitational—White Bear; IOD No Tears West-Clear. Regattas for 2007 were awarded as follows (Jenness/Andert): Class E Invitational—White Bear; Class A Open Invitational—Clear; IOD No Tears West— Okoboji; IOD No Tears East—Cedar, Wis. The 2008 MC Invitational Regatta was awarded to Nagawicka (Colburn/Jenness). Oshkosh offered to relinquish its bid for the 2007 Annual Championship because of uncertainties regarding the future of the Pioneer and a proposed Five Rivers lakefront complex, but after discussion, it was decided to keep the schedule as previously awarded. Okoboji placed a request to host the 2008 Annual Championship. The request was noted but no action was taken at this meeting, in anticipation of possible bids from Green or Mendota.

The Annual Championship Regatta at Geneva will have an all inclusive entry fee which will cover lunches and three (two for I-20) social events for each crew member as described in the Notice of Race. Additional social packages can be purchased for extra crew and other attendees at $50 per person ($40 in class I-20). Opening/welcoming parties will be hosted by the Promotion Committee with help from the fleet committees, a casual post race hors d'oeurves party will comprise a second evening, and a more formal dinner party will round out the events for each fleet. Daily trophies and special awards are being planned.

On line registration was well received last year and is up and running again. On line membership application and renewal may be implemented sometime during 2006.

Treasurer Prange presented a revised 2004 financial report for approval. The revision properly allocated $30 of Club membership dues to the Sailing Director/Promotion campaign. This was approved (Prange/Mann). Prange then presented the 2005 financial report which showed an operating deficit of approximately $12,000.

Prange was confident that some unusual expenses in 2005, including legal fees which far exceeded the deficit, would not recur in 2006, and that 2006 has a great lineup of events that were sure to increase attendance. The report was approved (Slocum/Mann). Smith noted that an official Wisconsin audit would likely be needed for 2006 because of anticipated donations exceeding the threshold requiring same. Donated services or reduced rate services in this regard will be welcomed.

C. Porter recounted the numerous initiatives undertaken by the Sailing Director/Promotion Committee. She thanked Trester again for donation enabling the implementation of the on line registration, and potentially for on line membership renewal. The E-newsletter, Scowlines will continue with greater professionalism through the use of Constant Contact. a service which costs $30 per month and affords unlimited emailing and mailing list maintenance. The consensus of the Board was to allow Scowlines to be distributed to non-members as a promotional tool. The ILYA web site will have a new look thanks to efforts by Joe Skotarzak and Fred Miller. Content management software will allow designated regatta officials to directly upload daily regatta reports, photos, and scores. Fleet representatives may be able to update their fleet pages similarly. All fleets are raising the bar for 2006, and great events are being planned. Matt Prange will head the Sailing Director activities in 2006, with some help from last year's head, Kelly Reese, who is planning her wedding. Fundraising remains an issue, and some enthusiasm exists for building an endowment for the program. Ralph Eckert's model for fundraising may form the basis of the effort. The Board expressed appreciation to cochairs Reese and C. Porter for their fine administration of the program.

Mann reported for chairman Sundberg that the Race Management and Judges Committee would host an ILYA Race Management seminar on May 13 in conjunction with the Cedar Lake (Wis.) Spring Regatta. The seminar will be led by Mann and will be an all-day, on-the-water affair. A US SAILING seminar is also scheduled for Geneva in the spring. The assigned PRO list was distributed with other agenda documents and approved (Jenness/Hodgson). Course changes in 2006 will retain the Charlie flag and sound signal and radio announcements (for appropriate fleets), but instead of a compass course display, red and green shapes will depict port and starboard changes to the course. Course designation will replace a 1/2 as in a W 2 1/2 with a +, so that a course with a windward finish will be shown as W2+. Haines requested that in the future the fleets be consulted before changes are established.

More Board

C. Porter reported that Youth Development is working on the improvement of sportsmanship.

The Board expressed its appreciation to Reese, C. Porter, the Harkens, and the Pranges for their efforts in making a terrific Winter Inland. Harken graciously hosted the Saturday night party at the company, and he, Peter, and a host of employees gave tours of the compound. The Pranges arranged for hot hors d'oeurvres, Reese donated the liquid refreshments and transportation for our speaker, Olympian Kevin Burnham, and an anonymous donor provided $500 to help defray speaker fees. Consideration will be given to finding better locations for the vendors so that they get more face time with attendees, the elimination of round tables in the breakout rooms, and breakout room chairmen to keep meeting on schedule. Meeting may start earlier on Saturday as well. A suggestion was made to change the registration fee and call it a "regatta fee."

Barkow presented a potential trophy plan, replacing the current plastic discs with three dimensional scows (and optis, etc.,) inside a small crystal block. Display racks for multiple trophies could be purchased as well. Barkow displayed a sample rectangular and a sample hexagonal trophy. Prange moved and Hodgson seconded to accept the rectangular version, which represented a $5 increase per trophy over the 2005 trophies. Discussion ensued, and concerns about the quality of the three dimensional images were expressed, as they were not available for viewing, and the order would need to be placed within a few days. Other issues came up, such as potential price breaks for orders covering multiple years. Ultimately the motion and second were withdrawn and Haines, S. Schmidt, Andert, and Colburn volunteered to comprise the Trophy Committee under Chairperson Barkow and to further explore the possibilities for 2007. Trophies in 2006 will be the same design that they have been for the past several years, as an extensive series of trophies spanning a number of years seems to be an accepted approach.

Smith reported that the Perrigo Memorial Trophy for Class A had been graciously redonated to the ILYA by the family, and that it would be presented to the overall champion of two events—the NCASA Championship and the ILYA One Design A Championship.

A proposal for adding and eliminating ILYA fleets was discussed. C. Porter and S. Schmidt moved and seconded for acceptance. After discussion, an amendment to the motion by Wyman with second by Barkow was made, deleting the last paragraph of the proposal. The amended motion (attached) was approved, with Slocum, Mann, Catlin, and Trester opposed.

The Board discussed the implications of a scantling governance proposal which might relinquish ILYA control of fleet scantlings. Some fleets expressed that their national associations were either non-existent or unready to accept the responsibility at this time. Trester suggested that we be open to giving control to a class that is ready and willing to take it. Wyman suggested that the ILYA has plenty of important promotional activities to contend with, and that fleet control of scantlings adds enthusiasm and purpose to a fleet. It was understood that Class X scantling would remain with ILYA. Hodgson was concerned that if we give scantlings away that we do it with great caution. Ultimately the discussion was tabled (Prange/Mann) with the understanding that the language of the proposal would be fine tuned and put on the October agenda.

C. Porter and Hodgson reported that the November Delegates meeting held at Wayzata and Beulah were well attended and appreciated by the clubs. Delegates at the Winter Inland expressed interest in finding additional opportunities for the clubs to get together for general discussion and sharing of ideas. The fall meeting will be scheduled again in 2006.

Members and member clubs will be made aware via ILYA publications Scow Slants and Scowlines of opportunities to help the ravaged clubs of the Gulf Coast Yachting Association.

Andert reported that the Class C Centennial celebration will include plans for a 100 boat fleet at Geneva, and a new C Scow sailed by Buddy Melges at the event and turned over to the winner of the raffle at the end of the event. Past Champions of the fleet will be encouraged to attend as participants or guests, and have a role at the social functions and presentations. Andert thanked Jeff LaBonte and Pat Dunsworth for their help with posters, calendars, and logos.

The Board approved the concept of a Perpetual crew trophy to be awarded to the crew of the skipper who receives the Pillsbury Cup (Mann/S. Schmidt). The trophy would be engraved back to the beginning of the Pillsbury Cup. The trophy itself will be presented for Board approval in October, and, if approved, awarded at the next Winter Inland.

Geneva requested that the ILYA approve the use of mandatory boom stickers with a major sponsor's logo at the Annual Championship in accordance with US SAILING and ISAF regulations regarding same. Haines and Catlin moved and seconded approval. Discussion ensued. Many points of objection were voiced. Ultimately the motion and second were withdrawn. The Executive Committee was directed to discuss other possibilities for sponsor exposure that did not include advertising on competitors' yachts.

Smith presented a document based on US SAILING's outlining the procedures for accepting donations and distributing grants to competitors for Olympic and other national or international sailing competitions. A motion by C. Porter with second by Catlin approved the document with the addition that the committee authorized to allocate funds would be comprised of three or more current or former members of the Board of Directors. The amended document is available from the ILYA office.

C. Porter proposed that the ILYA offer a two or three year dues package with a financial incentive. A committee comprised of C. Porter, Prange, Slocum, and Osmundson was instructed to study the ramifications and report in October.

Commodore Hodgson thanked everyone for their serious consideration of all board issues, both major and minor, and a motion to adjourn was approved at 4:05 p.m. (Friend/Catlin).

Respectfully submitted, James A. Smith, Executive Secretary

Proposals for discontinuing or adding classes

Item 1: By-law for considering discontinuance of holding races for a class. Perhaps this would be by-law 11.2:

11.2 The ILYA Board of Directors reserves the right to discontinue holding regattas for a class either temporarily or permanently after consideration of the following factors:

- a. Financial impact on the Association and/ or host club
- b. Benefit to the Association, its members, and the host club
- c. Availability of willing host clubs
- d. Race Committee availability and recruitment
- e. Long term viability of the fleet and number of clubs with boats of that fleet
- f. Credibility of competition

(Note: This would not supercede the resolution made relative to the A Scow Classes at the October 22, 2006 Board Meeting)

Item 2: By-law for considering adding or holding races for a class. Perhaps this would be by-law 11.3:

- 11.3 The ILYA Board of Directors may decide to add fleets to its regular schedule of regattas either temporarily or permanently after consideration of the following factors:
- a. Financial impact of the Association and/or host clubs
- b. Benefit to the member clubs or Association
- c. Representation of fleet in the Association's member clubs
- d. Race Committee availability and recruitment
- e. Long term viability of the fleet and number of clubs with boats of that fleet
- f. Credibility of competition
- g. Consideration of geographic growth for the Association pear Sporty, Did I mess up?

by J.J. Isler - Reprinted with the generous permission of Sailing World

Everybody can decide whether to go left or right on the beat and live with the result. But during a tense regatta, tough situations sometimes come up that aren't so straightforward, and having an all-knowing advisor would be nice. "Maybe Sporty could help?" suggests JJ Isler, who offers her own insights and then some from Sporty, her sidekick in good conscience. —Editors

When you take a break from competitive sailing like I have since the 2000 Olympics, it's funny what races you can recall in great detail and which incidents fade over time. I wish I could remember only the highlights—hitting a great shift to pass a chunk of boats or some perfect pin-end start—and luckily I remember enough of those highlights to keep my ego intact. But I seem to remember in clearest detail the situations where I'm not sure I did the "right thing." I'm nagged by those incidents and wonder if I'm justifying what I did because "everybody else would do the same thing."

One incident that keeps bugging me was in the last race of the Sydney Olympics. The German team tacked a bit too close as we were about to duck them (they were on (starboard), and I made a dramatic turn and yelled "protest." Now, I don't want to sit down and diagram the incident for a rules committee—after four years, it would be impossible to recreate the distances, closing speeds, etc. But I do know that in hindsight, I would rather have beaten the Germans with better tactics or boatspeed than by an awkward "we said/she said" rules situation. So from an ethical standpoint, was I wrong to call "protest?" They immediately bore off to do their circles; should that make me feel better? They must have felt (as we did) that they would be at risk in the protest room and, as it was the first leg of a long race, they had a better chance of sailing their way back into contention. Weighing on my decision to yell protest was a similar (yet, in my mind, even less clear-cut) incident earlier in the series where the roles had been reversed and another team had protested us for a close tack and we'd done a 720. But there's little moral justification in saying it's OK because someone else already did it to me.

Most of us can come up with broad outlines of what defines "doing the right thing" or, in other words, good sportsmanship. I think most of us don't want to win at any cost. We wouldn't cheat even if we knew we wouldn't get caught. We don't want to win just because our competitor broke down or was OCS. We would rather win the race fair and square with our competitors sailing at their best. We want the respect of our competitors. I think being a good sport means doing your utmost to win under the rules and not hurting anyone else's chances to sail their personal best. This doesn't mean you won't tack on anyone; it just means that you will treat them on and off the racecourse in the same way you'd expect to be treated.

The Racing Rules of Sailing acknowledge the importance of sportsmanship right up front in Rule 2: Fair Sailing by saying that we "shall compete in compliance with recognized principles of sportsmanship and fair play." Under Section C, Gross Misconduct, the penalties for committing "a gross breach of a rule or of good manners or sportsmanship" are very serious.

Rule 2

Fair Sailing: A boat and her owner shall compete in compliance with recognized principles of

sportsmanship and fair play. A boat may be penalized under this rule only if it is clearly established that these principles have been violated. A disqualification under this rule shall not be excluded from the boat's series score.

Paul Elvstrom made the ethics of sailboat racing sound so black and white when he said "You haven't won the race if, in winning the race, you've lost the respect of your competitors." And I've met and had the chance to sail with numerous people whose moral compasses never waver from doing the right thing, people like Dave Perry, Pease Glaser, and Dave Ullman to name a few. But for the rest of us, sportsmanship gets murky, and it's hard to know what the right thing to do is, especially in the heat of the moment.

It seems there are a wealth of articles and seminars about the rules and about tactics, but what about advice on ethics and sportsmanship? How do we figure out those "recognized principles of sportsmanship and fair play" and those "good manners?" Especially since those principles vary across our sport. In umpired match-racing events, for example, you can wait until the umpire's decision before taking your penalty without being considered a bad sport, even if you know you're in the wrong.

Some sailors criticized Alinghi for not offering to resail first America's Cup Race in '03 after Team New Zealand broke down. But the America's Cup is a design contest and getting your boat to the finish line is an essential part of that competition so I believe Alinghi acted properly.

On the other hand, in 2001 I raced in a match race in Monaco where we did offer to resail when the trailing boat broke down right after the start (even though a new Mercedes was the first prize). The boat owner, Leonardo Ferragamo, wisely advised me as helmsman that it was in the spirit of that event (we were using borrowed boats and had sponsors and guests aboard) to offer to resail. And after some soulsearching (I had been sailing upwind daydreaming about whether I wanted a tan or black leather interior), I agreed to a resail.

Well, would it help if we could turn to an all-knowing icon of sportsmanship—we could call him Sporty Sportsmanship (a la Dear Abby)? He could answer all those questions that might later weigh on us a little heavily. Let's see how he would do with the following sticky situations:

Feeling guilty:

My wife and kids like to come out on weekends sometimes to watch me sail my Etchells. So I keep a spare spinnaker and spinnaker pole and other gear aboard their motorboat. Last weekend my good friend, who has one of the top teams in the fleet, ripped his chute—and I didn't speak up and offer him my spare because it was a windy day and we had a few more races to go. He sailed in and I felt bad all day. What should I have done?

Sporty:

Oooh, I hate feeling guilty. I also hate having to loan people gear when they aren't as prepared and organized as I am (and sad to say, not many people are). So here's the deal I've always made with moochers: Yes, you can borrow my spare whatever, but if I break or lose mine before the end of the day, then you have to give it back. And you'd better return it in as good or better shape (i.e. buy me a new one if the spinnaker has the slightest rip). And just maybe you should think twice the next time you're about to tack right on me.

In the weeds:

I'm a 12-year-old girl and I race Sabots in Newport Beach, where we have lots of kelp in the water and our coaches are always reminding us to check our leeboard and rudder before the start. Last weekend, as we were reaching back and forth before the start, I saw a big clump of kelp on the rudder of this cute 12-year-old boy from a different club. I yelled over that he had kelp, and he reached back, cleared it and had a good start. After the race he came up to thank me in front of my coach. My coach thought it was OK to help him this time, but not at a big regatta like the Nationals. What do you think?

pear Sporty, continued again

Sporty:

You did the right thing by meeting your wife. I just hope you remembered to shower and shave before you left the club and stayed awake during the entire play (often a real struggle for my spouse). There's nothing in the Racing Rules that says you must appear in the protest room just because you saw the incident. But you did the wrong thing by lying and saying you didn't see something you saw. So just be honest—tell them that your wife will murder you unless you leave—then get the heck out of there.

As for my situation with the German sailors, I think Sporty would say it was acceptable to yell protest because, in the heat of the moment, I was sure they had fouled us not just put themselves at risk in the protest room. Plus, I didn't force them to do a 720. If they didn't think my protest had merit, they had every right to continued to race.

Ultimately, in a competitive game, we're all going to make decisions while the adrenaline is flowing—decisions that we may or may not view differently with time. It's important for all racers to understand this and remember to forgive ourselves if we're not perfect; on the other hand, if we're not regularly thinking about doing what's right, even Sporty won't be able to save us from ourselves.

Each new entrant to the SHEETS program will begin in the Green Fleet instruction level. It is with recommendation of the local sailing school instructor, not parents, that an individual sailor will be progressed to the Championship fleet, i.e. local sailors participating at one-time events will be denoted as Green.

It is NOT our intent to have participants arrive for racing only. Clinic participation is beneficial to all SHEETS members. PLEASE NOTE THAT WE RESERVE THE RIGHT TO RUN RACES IN THE A.M. FOLLOWED BY A P.M. CLINIC, if weather conditions apply.

INSTRUCTORS...

Kelly Reese starts her eighth year with the SHEETS program . An accomplished ILYA MC sailor, Kelly has two MC Midwinters Championship and six collegiate national championship (three each single and double-handed) qualifiers under her belt. Currently an elementary teacher in Illinois, Kelly will spend the summer campaigning a Laser, C, and MC. Kelly makes sailing fun while competitive Matt Prange — Matt returns for his fourth year as an Optimist instructor and will serve as head instructor. Matt has developed a successful sailing program on Okauchee and Pine. Look at the ILYA X results and you will see the results of his teaching skills. Matt continues to sail in the C class. His teaching abilities are his strength along with his development of rapport with his students

Liz Prange – Liz returns this year after a year respite from our program. She returns with extensive collegiate experience in the 420. Traveling some 15 weeks a season in the 420, Liz also maintains her skills as an Optimist instructor. Her attention to detail provides good instruction in the essentials of boat handling and strategy. Liz is a junior at the University of Wisconsin.

Katie Porter – Katie joins the Optimist staff at SHEETS for her first year with the program. Katie is a sophomore at UW – LaCrosse where she runs with the Cross Country and Track programs. She is a veteran instructor producing many fine, young sailors at Pewaukee and Lake Beulah. Her enthusiasm and humor will be utilized on the green fleet as she motivates top performances and a love for the sport.

Matt Schmidt – Matt returns for his third season in the Optimist program. Matt is a senior at UW-Madison and sails with the UW sailing team. Matt was named to the MISSA all regional team. He attended Collegiate Nationals in the Coed division. Matt's calm demeanor leads to a strong, steady instructional style.

Local coach – Each week SHEETS will pay one local coach to assist with the Green Fleet. This will allow for familiarization with the local fleets who provide a large influx of one-time sailors. The local sailor will benefit from teaching alongside the experienced SHEETS staff. Special coaches: At the time of this printing, negotiations are underway with special clinicians for Opti and Laser/420 events
