Meanwhile on the 49er race course, the Melges-Rowe team held its own to finish as the third American team with a final 29th place finish. This is far from over. This team continues to improve. The men's 49er teams have not qualified the country to compete in the Olympics as yet so there is a lot on the line for the Olympic hopeful teams.

There are six days of racing. The online coverage for the warmup event was both live drone coverage and graphic tracking. Races were L2s and lasted about 20 minutes. Online viewing was free for the warmup event but appears to require a subscription to Sidelineapp for the World Championships. Click on title above to view.

The schedule is here. New Zealand is 19 hours ahead of CST or 11:00 becomes 4:00 PM. Check registrants to determine the color coded fleet of our two teams.

A side note - Nevin Snow in the 49er fleet is son of Mary Allen Brigden Snow, a former X ILYA Champion. Mitchell Kiss, crew with Ian Barrows, is a member of ILYA club Macatawa Bay.

ILYA Opti Sailors In New Orleans

 16th - John Lieber - 6th in Blue Fleet
 25th - Maria Castle, 3rd best girl and 10th in Blue Fleet

Congrats on Retirement, Lon and Donna Schoor

Kudos for 13 years of service

Many of you don't remember anyone other than the Schoors greeting you at the E Nationals. It seems Lon may have retired once before from a "real" job but then quickly assumed a leadership role in the E National Association. With Lon came wife Donna who kept the records in tiptop shape. Let's just say nothing slipped by unnoticed. Donna is precision! Both have served the class with great enthusiasm. Lon is known as the regatta chair who recruited over 100 E scows for a regatta - just because he had the idea. There is no one with an idea like Lon. Together they were a strong, strong asset to the class association.

Julie Navin, Lake Geneva, will take over the reins. Julie still actively sails on Delavan with her near 90-year old father. Son Kyle and husband Dave are active sailors. Son Josh enjoys the technical side of life but has been around sailing his entire life. The association is in great hands as it moves forward.

One We Missed - Champion of Champions

E Scow National Champ is Runnerup

Each year US Sailing invites its member classes to submit the name of its class champion to compete with other national champions. Scow sailors traditionally attend the event. Pewaukee hosted the event several years ago in C scows.

Pictured here is Vincent Porter (R) with his college roommate Andrew Barrett (L) and father John. The beauty in the photo is Vincent's daughter who is already learning the ropes while dad wins. Porter took second. The C of C regatta sailed in Ideal 18s October 3-6 in Stamford, CT. Bill Draheim of Texas MC fame was 4th. He is a past champion of this event in 2018.

Geneva Adds Melges 14 Nationals to Dinghyfest Week

Melges 14 Nationals - July 10-12

Join the ILYA

Register for Dues

Lake Geneva is excited to announce that in place of the usual Melges 14 one -day regatta on the Friday of Dinghyfest, this year the Melges 14 Nationals will conclude the week. It will be a three day regatta jointly hosted by Melges Boatworks, GLSS and LGYC. It's going to be a great end to the week and allow many of our X boat skippers, who also sail Melges 14's, to have a two-day break during Opti's and then re-engage in a large fleet of mixed ages for three additional days.

Additional information will be forthcoming shortly from Melges regarding Nationals and also the regular O'pen Bic regatta.

July 6/7 - GLSS X Boats

July 8/9 - GLSS Opti's

July 10/11/12 - Melges 14 Nationals
