An ILYA Tribute to Olaf Harken

Olaf Harken served as the Commodore of the Inland Lake Yachting Association from 2003-04. He served with many ILYA board members over the years and had an immensely positive impact on all of them, as well as all of the sailors and family members he sailed with and met along the way. Here are some thoughts and remembrances from his colleagues. Thank you

Olaf!

Beth Wyman - Commodore 2019-20

The thrill of a lifetime was this picture. Talking with Olaf and Buddy at the LGYC. Olaf was bigger than life in some aspects yet so gentle and kind. The more I knew him the more I realized the fame and fortune didn't matter to him, what did matter was leaving the sailing world at it's best and wanting more. We will carry on for you Olaf.

James Smith - Executive Secretary 1979-2015

Like other ILYA Commodores, Olaf Harken stepped up to the rewards and challenges of the office. He came to the office with vast experience in all forms of national and international sailing, but placed his heart in the midwest and the scows of the ILYA. Olaf served with love for the people as well as the sport; he served with an open mind and with wisdom tempered with humility and kindness....
