Nationals at Muskegon

Three days of great racing. NJ, SC, WA state, WI, IL, MI, MN, IN, IA, CO - all represented at a new venue for many of them. Three races were completed on Friday which helped the fleet get its footing on the new water. U flag, Black flag, redress - the fleet saw it all. Congrats to Lake Geneva with four in the top five.

Maxinkuckee C and MC regatta

It was a Barr C fest in Indiana. Barr in first with two Barrs; Barr in third and Barr in fifth with two Barrs. Oh there are more but this was quite enough for a friendly Hoosier fleet. The regatta is a Fall event for both C's and MC's. Shown above are Martin Barr, skipper; Brian Barr, event chair and Cullen Barr, crew for Martin.

E Blue Chip to Feature US Olympic Director, Malcolm Page!

September 20-22 at Pewaukee

We are excited to announce that Malcolm Page is our 2019 mystery guest for the E Scow Blue Chip on September 20th - 22nd on Pewaukee Lake.

Malcolm Page is our Chief of U.S. Olympic Sailing, the head of the U.S. National Team and overall U.S. Olympic sailing effort. Malcolm is widely considered the most successful Olympic-class sailor in Australian history.

E Blue Chip Editor's Note - If we listed all the major Championships Malcolm has medaled in, this bio would be three pages.

- * During his time in the Men's 470, he won back to back Olympic Gold Medals in 2008 (Beijing Games) and 2012 (Athens Games), each with a different skipper (a feat accomplished by very few across our sport and by no American yet).
- * From 2001 to 2012, Malcolm stood on the Podium in ten 470 World Championships, winning Gold in six (again a feat no one else has achieved).
- * In 2011, Malcolm was honored with a place on the Australian Institute of Sport's "Best of the Best", the highest honor given to Australia Athletes. At the time, he was the first and only sailor to earn that honor.
- * In October of 2016, he was inducted into the Sport Australia Hall of Fame.
- * Three-Time Olympic Sailor - 2004 Athens, 2008 Beijing, 2012 London
- * Olympic Gold Medal - 2008 Games in Beijing (Men's 470 Class with Nathan Wilmot)
- * Olympic Gold Medal - 2012 Games in London (Men's 470 Class with Mat Belcher)
- * Eight-Time World Champion (Men's 470: 2004, 2005, 2007, 2010, 2011, 2012; ISAF Games: 2006; Open 420: 2004)

10th Annual MCSA National Team Championship

Top Three Teams Separated by Single Race

The Upper Minnetonka Yacht Club was the host for the 10th Annual MCSA National Team Championship on the Upper Minnetonka Lake. The Regatta delivered what was promised to the participants; tough competition and fun. Taking the successful approach used last year to maximize competitiveness, teams were formed based on recent regatta results. And, the Team Regatta was a nail biter to the very last race. The best MC team racers squared off against each other for a great weekend of sailing. The weather, while threatening, provided plenty of wind for the round-robin event.

After light winds on Saturday morning, things became exciting after lunch. The wind picked up to 9 mph from the NWN and one race separated each of the top three teams. Sunday morning brought more excellent wind, all be it a bit damp, and even tighter races with each of the same three teams winning an equal number of races for each completed series. As time ran out, a single race separated each of the top three teams. Noel Neuman, John Grzybek, Rich Gross (Saturday) and Darin Newman (Sunday) took top honors.

Next year the Upper Minnetonka Yacht, and all of the 10th Anniversary Team Regatta participants, challenge sailors from all lakes to dethrone these seasoned winners.

Nan Norris Beulah C Challenge - Register Now

Home to ILYA C Champs Will Haeger and Brad Roble

... but Will is only here on Saturday so come and take your chances at a win. Will Haeger is training for a marathon so it's your lucky weekend (Dad Kent?)

All youth attend for free

If you are 25 and younger, the regatta is free including meals for one crew. Housing will most likely be provided if you request early.

Here are the other particulars:

- Saturday night dinner will be organic grass fed flank steak, green bean casserole, potatoes, rolls, Molly Barr salad and Oreo cake.
- Way cool trophies.
- 312 beer for free as long as it lasts and another keg donated by our sponsor, East Troy Marine (the mechanic around!)
- Spectator boat provided by ET Marine
- Did we mention Will Haeger will not be there on Day Two? Aw, shucks!
- We can only hope the Lamphere bus shows up sporting a C Scow.
