LaBelle's Sean Mihelich Takes 2019 Title

All four races were completed with Sean and Owen winning by one point. Mihelich kept his cool in the last light air race to beat Pewaukee's Charlie Allen by one point. Allen battled back from a deep first rounding to hold onto second. Meanwhile Fritz Simon and Megan Isabell took another race win today. This all culminates this week at the ILYA X Championships. Both the junior and senior fleet look strong. The Vollmar sisters took top girl award. Their competition of Ellie Harned and Austin Steiner took a race win in the first race today.

The day was a beauty with nice steady wind in the first race but the conditions declined to light air for a most trying, tough Race 4. Combining the two days, the sailors had practice in varying conditions which prepares them for the Thu-Sat Championships at Minnetonka. The heat of yesterday continued with some improvement today necessitating attention to hydration.

The large number of participants resulted in six Blue Chip invites from this event. Already the fleet has some double qualifiers.

Thanks to Nagawicka for hosting a spectacular event. Storms rarely seen, heat rarely felt but fun ALWAYS in abundance at X events.

A Quick Welcome from Minnetonka

All Systems Go

We are only a few days away from the 2019 ILYA X Championship and the Minnetonka Yacht Club can't wait to host all of you! Everyone's first stop will be Deephaven Elementary (4452 Vine Hill Rd, Deephaven, 55391) where you can register, check-in and purchase X Inland swag. Our pontoon shuttles will be running all day, every day to/from Carson's Bay and beautiful Lighthouse Island which will be regatta headquarters. The weather is looking great and we are sure it will be a memorable event!

Chapman Petersen Wins Laser Radial North Americans

No clue what that is on the right but Chapman moved into first on the second day and never looked back.
