Grumpy Old Men Lead

Everyone wants Tom Eckert to win. He is known as the sailor who did NOT win. So . . . many, many years ago (not in recent history - do you get the picture?), Tom had the distinction of leading a championship regatta (not saying which one) and the regatta did not have enough races to constitute a regatta. It was a heartbreaker. The Championship Committee allowed Eckert to borrow the trophy for a year --- probably just made the wound deeper. But the clever Tom Eckert engraved his name on the back of the plate of the unnamed championship trophy. So if you want to know which one, you will need to win the trophy, carefully remove the plate to see IF that trophy is the one. Here he and Dave Schmidt of Cedar sit at the top of the leaderboard on Saturday night. Can he do it?

Wisconsin Yachting Association - a Pewaukee day!

Two Races and then Big Storms

Pewaukee's Charlie Allen and William Utz lead after one day but the sailing is tough and close. Consistency counts. The fleet got in two morning races. The RC tried to begin Race Three knowing storms were predicted for later afternoon. The storms took an early turn south and the fleet barely beat the storm. Sails were left on boats as sailors were brought to shore. An hour interlude allowed the sailors to return to boats to retrieve sails just prior to a second blast. Two more races are planned for Sunday morning beginning at 10:00AM.

Cole Schweda and Adam Biwer won race one and most, most impressively had a second race OCS and fought back to fifth. What a tough competitor.

Fritz Simon and Megan Isabell battled with Charlie Allen for the win of Race Two.

And here's what brought the fleet in for the day.
