ILYA Legend Sails On

Ralph "Boober" Schneider is a name stationed firmly in the ILYA history book. He sailed with the likes of Jerry Huse and Buddy Melges. He stands with that trio as the men who shaped the C fleet of the Inland Lake Yachting Association. Boober was honored in 2012 when he was inducted into the ILYA Bilge Puller Hall of Fame. He was also honored as an ILYA Legend at the Annual Championship regatta in 2015. Schneider was known as "king of the C's" in the 1960s. He won the C Championship title three consecutive years 1967-69. These years are referred by some as the Golden Years of the C scow. He was the ILYA Pillsbury recipient in 1967.

Funeral arrangements are not firm at the time of this publication. Watch the Okoboji Yacht Club website for more details. Sail on, P-11. (The real oldsters recall a sail called the P-11 named after Boober.)

Oshkosh Xtreme gives sailors just that!

Some race committees have all the luck. Winnebago at 12:00 was flat after a mid-morning storm. With no hope on the water, the RC sent the sailors out to have 10MPH at 12:30. The day built steadily but not before two heavy air races were completed. The fleet was sent in due to high gusts recorded by the windward markset team of Jim Smith and David Sitter. The day was heaven for the older sailors who have experienced a light air summer.

Augie Jarecki and Alex Mueller took race one. The top ten with the exception of Kamron Kaiser and Finn Burdick were all senior fleeters.

Jared and Joey Plummer took race two. This time it was Burdick and Kaiser again in the top ten with junior Jack Steiner sneaking in. Loose Cannon, the Barkow redheads, finished third in race two after a breakdown in race one.

Today's racing begins at 10:00 on the water. Look for 2-3 races in more moderate breeze on this beautiful, large lake.

Editor's favorite photos:

A-5 Brittany Shabino uses a little unconventional hiking technique. Crew is Jakob Eckert. She got the job done today with a 9-8 in the 56 boat fleet.

Jackson Walker and Paxton Denton work as one sitting far forward on the boat to handle the waves of Winnebago. Get ready, X sailors, Minnetonka may look like Winnebago. Enjoy the ride today knowing it is preparing you well for marvelous Minnetonka.

ILYA C Invitational - Still Room for more

Dinner and Band on Saturday Night for Okauchee Fun

Regatta Chair Tom Groskopf promises fun for the fleet - sailing, partying and enjoying the newly remodeled (one year ago) Okauchee YC. It is the most comfortable place to enjoy your friends on no wind days and the lake is challenging with the best sailors around.

PRO Rick Trester promises good racing; old pro sailor Mark Prange is working race committee so he can't use the homelake advantage to win the event. Somehow Pranges end up behind the bar working along with so many familiar Okauchee sailors.

Dave Smith and his daughters are hard to beat at any lake so come join the other 30 pre-registered boats to give him some good competition.

The food is always generous and a great value. It's a marvelous volunteer club where they love to invite YOU!
