If you are looking for a new platform for your website, please plan to attend a casual presentation by Sports Engine. Some of you are familiar with this company, based in Minnesota, if you are active in hockey, swimming or other youth sports. Sports Engine is affiliated with NBC. Lake Beulah YC made the switch last year and reports the following features which have worked to its benefit:

- 1 - ease of design which has resulted in more volunteers posting information
- 2 - iCal calendar formatting which has allowed our members to download the calendar easily to our phones and other mobile devices
- 3 - Use of "tags" (which was new to the oldsters creating the site) allowing our sailors to put their names in the search bar to see all their assigned RC work.
- 4 - Public and private capability which has allowed safe posting of our financials, minutes, other "closed" information.
- 5 - Readily accessible assistance with a team devoted to implementation and a support team with ease of scheduling appointments for help.

It has been a great move for Beulah with much more to learn in our second year.

For those of you familiar with the site, you have experienced scheduling, team and coach communication and team planning --- more for us to learn and apply to sailing.

There are at least four clubs attending to hear the presentation. Join us.

Yacht Clubs - Submit Regatta Bids for Fall ILYA Board meeting

New Bid Process

The ILYA restructured the Regatta Coordinating Committee to provide value to its sailors, geographical representation and a more cohesive or uniform "feel" to your ILYA events. The bid process now requires more than just asking your name be added to the list. Regatta chairs, pricing, site conditions and social planning are now required on the initial bid process.

Okoboji High School FUN!!!

Saturday, October 13th

Okoboji Sailing Center is hosting the area's first high school regatta (a series of sailboat races) to include Okoboji High School's new sailing team, where they will compete against Dakota Valley, and Sioux Falls Lincoln. The Boo-Gatta is an event that is intended as a demonstration event for local students looking to get involved in this new club sport.

All 7th - 12th graders are invited to stop by and check out the event as racing occurs all day. Cider, hot chocolate, caramel apples, and candy will be available for all those who care to come out. Meet up with your friends and see what Varsity sailing at the club level is all about.

If you are interested in going out on a boat to Try It Out you can register for FREE. No experience is required to go out for a sail.

C Worlds

Schaub was Untouchable

Joe Schaub and Liz Bernstein owned the weekend. With 4 of 6 race wins, he was outstanding each race. The six race regatta was picture perfect Sat and Sun mornings. Despite looming threatening weather, the fleet enjoyed fall sailing with rain, cold temperatures but steady win. Only Saturday afternoon proved tricky for PRO Brian Buzzell with help from Joe Fenton and Larry Kmiecik. (All photos included are by Larry Kmiecik who doubled as mark changer.)

Dark, low hanging clouds reigned all weekend

It was families sailing together for Fall Sailing - Peter and Andrea Keck, Ed and Renee Clair, Joe Schaub and Liz Bernstein (above) Augie and Ron Jarecki, Fred and Fred Barkow, the Compall Family.

Larry Kmiecik's money shot - Ron and Augie Jarecki

It's a Fish Boil on Saturday night - The local Delavan members were on the water during the day and cooked at night. Thanks, Delavan.
