Laser trail immediately after the victory in Oshkosh. Malcolm amassed an impressive 12 points with a 1-1-1-1-6-1-1 at the Houston event. Oops, missed one, Malcolm.

Also attending the event was young Chapman Petersen who is also from Lake Geneva Yacht Club. He competed to a 12th place finish in the Laser Radial division out of 40 competitors. Last weekend Petersen was 15th out of 46 at the invitational US Sailing Youth Champs in North Carolina

Pewaukee's Matt Malone Sails Tenacious to Win

Members of the Naval Academy Varsity Offshore Sailing Team spent most of the spring semester training for a variety of offshore distance races being held this summer. Three crews competed in the 2018 Annapolis to Bermuda Race and the results clearly show they were well prepared.

Tenacious led the way as the trio of Navy 44-footers swept the top three placements in PHRF I, which had eight entries.

"Anticipating and preparation were really important in this race. We got whacked several times, but we were always ready because we knew what was coming," Chris Cantillo said. "We set up in such a way that we could turn and run with the squall while heading in the right direction, which allowed us to make gains. I think some other boats got caught out by those systems."

The crew was Chris Cantillo (skipper), Paul Jervis (headsail trimmer), Darby Meadows (pit), Matthew Ransom (offside trimmer), Matthew Malone (mast) and Carter Stout (foredeck) completed the crew on Tenacious, which had to send someone aloft to repair a broken shroud on approach to Bermuda.

Quad Lakes

Late Thursday start

July 4th is celebrating in high style on all our home lakes. Thus the Quad Lakes X regatta (which has evolved into six lakes with the addition of Mendota and Oshkosh) will have a competitors briefing at 11:30 and warning for race one at 1:00. This allows us all to celebrate our nation's birthday with great enthusiasm.
