North Lake's Will Michels is on a Roll

After a 4th place finish at 420 New Englands, Will finished in 10th overall this week at C420 Nationals. He was the fifth highest junior finisher. Doesn't his future look bright? And look out High School Sailing! Will is one year out of Optis and is showing great success in his next step of sailing. Results here. He is shown here with regatta officials and crew Carolina Gaston.

HMMMM! Could your club do this?

The editor knows this should be about Malcolm and we will get to that --- THIS IS AMAZING. Can you imagine having your sailors compete in this manner? The editor can only see a fundraiser for your sailing school with laughter and spills - no one would be as good as Malcolm.

The video here (Facebook video) shows the ropes but make up your own rules, if you like. Seems like a great, playful idea. Beulah has a Commodore's Race. I can't imagine anything more fun than this.

Now to Malcolm who was invited to attend this event at St. Francis YC in California where he is training. It was almost an after-thought or a "didn't know you do this" thought. Lamphere agreed last minute and THEN WON IT! A cash prize went along with it which could not help more as this recent college grad trains for the Olympic Trial process. The video is four minutes and the announcer has a lot of wind interference in the broadcast. Congrats to Malcolm and what a fun, fun way to sail.

Malcolm's last race was against Chris Barnard, another Olympic hopeful and a past College Sailor of the Year.

Deadlines and ILYA News

ILYA Annual Championships - Minnetonka --- Deadline is July 25th.. Please sign up for your social package. You may go back in and add extra crew or spouse meals later but help Minnetonka plan early.

X sailors - X scantlings require deck numbers. The measurer will ask you add these to your boat with electrical tape which must remain on the deck. Look sharp and get professional deck numbers for your boat. You also MUST have a name so get creative now. This may also be with electrical tape but is required.

ILYA C Invitational

Craig Parker and Doug Carstens Cook Beulah Extravaganza

What a treat as the Cedar Lake, IN hospitality moves north. The X fleet may be sailing en masse at Cedar Lake, WI but Beulah gets a little Cedar of its own kind. C sailors, don't forget us as many, many parents are accompanying their youth at the WYA X. You may register ahead of time at ILYA.org or come on Friday night for some pasta and salad. Meet us at the Beulah bar. You will see the Beulah BARRS who are finally out of X boats. It's always a good time with the BARR-tender, BARR-Hopper, BARR-Crawler and the new BARR (John) - you'll have to attend to see the new BARR name. Then there's the competition between Kent and Will Haeger. That's worth the price of admission. PRO Larry Krause has the weather and wind in control. It's going to be Beulah fun. Be there.
