Opti Inlands

Pewaukee Continues to Draw a Crowd

With a little shuffling of numbers today as sailors switched fleets last minute, the final count was Green Fleet 56 and Red-White-Blue Fleet - 86. The Green Fleet is definitely a record number of boats for Green in the Midwest since our adoption of the Opti. That's a starting line of 200 yards to provide a safe space for the youngest sailors. The wind gave us its all for the X Inlands and receded most of the day to provide a bit of frustration or at least "down time" for the sailors waiting for sailing conditions. An attempt was made in the morning but what appeared to be nice wind dissipated to near nothing and the sailors returned to shore for an 11:30 lunch.

Shenanigans abounded as the sailors awaited improved racing conditions. Will Huerth, past senior Inland X Champ and now instructor, showed how to roll tack an Opti or maybe it's just his weight that makes the boat heel up.

This picture of Geneva's Kate Lyon reminds us how sailors, parents and RC alike have been on the water for what will be a week straight during our X and Opti Championships. Some of our sailors have skipped both fleets but mostly our X crews and the new soon-to-be X crews are participating here. Siblings of X sailors have taken over our families' attention.

Anna Lieber gets a turn as older brother John is over in the RWB Fleet.

Austin Steiner was a crew last week but this week takes command of his own ship.

The afternoon wind teased the crowd enough to get the Green Fleet out on the water at 2:00 for three races. The RWB fleet waited for the real late afternoon lake breeze for two light air races. In Green Fleet, William Utz of Pewaukee took races 1 and 2.

Colton Hibbard of Geneva leads after day one in Green.

Thanks to scorer Mark DeGuire with help from Dave Berg and David Perrigo. Rick Roy and John Porter held an arbitration mock session with two Green fleeters to help explain the rules.

Chairs Heidi Lieber, Sara Spencer and Nyla Burns looked fresh as daisies for the last two days here at Pewaukee. Craig Parker from Cedar, IN, assisted on the grill for tonight's carnival atmosphere party. Wow, Pewaukee keeps bringing them out of the woodwork to volunteer. New faces today were Rechcygls and Quirams. Kotovics and Jewetts are everywhere this regatta. Kotovic grandparents were on shore to boast of 29 grandchildren with little John Kotovic from Minnetonka their prime attention today over in Green. The Bolands were lounging for the "no air" on a pontoon to watch granddaughter Georgia Boland. Strothmans are still here. Just go to the above results and count those Strothmans! This is the retirement we all want watching our grandchildren in the sport we love.
