ILYA X Championships - Report from Al Haeger

#FairSailing is making a difference! We saw it clearly at the ILYA X championships. In the words of the on-water judges, mark roundings were generally "calm and quiet." Sailors did lots of penalty turns. A few sailors showed exceptional sportsmanship by retiring after realizing they had broken a rule that would have disqualified them. See the Scowlines ILYA X editions for examples.

There were a few protests and arbitrations at the ILYA X regatta. These went smoothly. The one arbitration was completed in ten minutes, which demonstrates the efficiency of this process. More on protests and arbitrations next week.

17 - Rules 21 Exoneration; Rule 22 Starting Errors, Backing a Sail; Rule 23 Capsized, Anchored aground, Rescuing; Rule 24 Interfering with another boat
24 - Rules 30 Starting Penalties; Rule 31 Touching A Mark; Rule 32 Shortening or Abandoning after the Start; Rule 33 Changing the Next Leg of a Race

Phase I of the rules education effort is drawing to a close. The rules presentation videos are available on YouTube. Fourteen articles on Rule of the Week have been posted, with one more to go next week on protests and arbitration. Over 300 people have passed the online rules quiz! Here are some quiz statistics:

- Beulah, Cedar, and Pewaukee are leading the way with more than 15 sailors from each club completing the quiz. Other clubs with multiple sailors completing the quiz are Clear Lake, Delavan, LaBelle, Geneva, Mendota, Minnetonka, Nagawicka, Okauchee, Oshkosh, Pine, and Wazata. There are about 80 sailors that completed the quiz and didn't complete the survey to identify their club or claim their incentive award.
- Sailors from outside the ILYA are taking notice. About half of our quiz completions are from non-ILYA clubs.
