Extras for the Day

Youth and Youthful "Others"

Some folks just can't get enough! When the E results arrive after today's racing (cross your fingers), take some time to look at the names of those in both the C and E fleet. Some energetic folks are dual skippering. Some adults move from skippering a C or E to crewing on the opposite boat. Most importantly, look at our youth. They are not missing one tack of this event. They were here for the A's or MCs and now are sailing all day on both fleets in this section. Case in point - when the Will Cray boat discovered a delamination problem rendering unsailable, the crew jumped on MC's that night to not miss one moment. Look for Chapman Petersen and Charlie Allen on every boat imaginable. Ellie Harned on C's and E's. Coye Harrett, Will Huerth, Matt Schmidt, Bri Porter and on and on. OK, I better mention 'old' David Strothman who took his C out of the barn to sail with his wife and perhaps 6-year old daughter. Or Lake Geneva's Sailing Director Marek Valasek who is everywhere. Our ILYA MC rep Ryan Grosch is now on an E - never seen that but he is one of our "kids" who grew up sailing as feverishly as an adult. Spend some time

Kent Haeger with Mike Greeson won the second light air C race yesterday. Has there ever been an ILYA C Championship where Haeger did not win a race? He is a perennial leader.

Coye Harrett wears many hats this event.

- 1 - He is appearing in three fleets so just a regular old sailing hat
- 2 - He sports a moniker and visor as he works under the bright light completing the financials for the event for Minnetonka.
- 3 - He has an invisible "thinking cap" in his role as the chair of the newly formed ILYA Regatta Coordinating Committee. Your comments about future events, philosophy of our regatta structure, etc go to Coye.
