E Nationals - Oshkosh

Vincent Porter Takes Title with Strong Finish on Days Two and Three

Vincent Porter, right, with Addy Ferguson, Coye Harrett and Clifford Porter Win Race 7 and overall title -

Sunday was picture perfect - blue skies, cool Fall feel to the air, steady winds at 10-13mph and six races under the fleet's belt. I-2 sailed flawlessly the last two races and finished with impressive racing after a most unusual rough start. Toms River's Kyle Rogachenko won the event on straight points but with Porter's 32 for a throwout, Porter comfortably took the title. Vincent was visibly touched as he thanked his regular crew for their first National Championship Title after years of ILYA success. The team of Porter/Porter/Harrett have been together for a consistency like many of the participating teams. This was a proud accomplishment for this young team.

The Awards Ceremony was a lovefest. Brett Hatton announced the awards but the recipients were gracious and appreciative of the victories of so many on varying levels. Tom Castle was ecstatic with his race win trophy. He recognized the opportunity to sail with Harry Melges III and noted everyone should have this experience one time in his life. Jon Schloesser repeatedly thanked the entire fleet. He noted his long history of sailing in this fleet and his desire to be up in the top ten. He was openly appreciative and emotional as he repeated his thanks to the fleet and thanks to the fleet and thanks to the fleet. His speech was so genuine, he nearly received a standing ovation for his words. ---- But we were all standing already. It was a most poignant moment for Jon but for all of us witnessing his success at this event.

This was a fleet who thanked PRO Bruce Golison for his service to the fleet as they became self-sustaining with RC equipment this year. Golison spent hours advising the Class on its needs. They thanked service from a deserving woman in the fleet. This is truly a fleet who acknowledges well those who win but those who make this Class successful organizationally.

Lastly, the efforts of Oshkosh Yacht Club and the Waters was marked with infinite displays of gratitude. The Weston family was amazing. There was never a time a smile was not on Pat and Jenny's face. The Waters is simply the most inviting host. What was so impressive each day was the front lawn with older Oshkosh YC members cheering on its own. All three days they sat or held court proudly watching their sailors and volunteers in action. That front row crowd's presence spoke volumes of what makes Oshkosh a beloved regatta host.
