Keck and Porter Win C Nationals Officially

Peter Keck is a four-time winner of the C Nationals - Once with Joe Skotarzak and Katie Porter Murphy, once with Andy Burdick and twice with Ben Porter. They broke the "never win the tune up rule" by winning the MIR C the preceding week with this followup victory. Competitors noted this duo was in a class unto themselves this weekend. From bad start to catching a leader from over a minute behind, the team was untouchable at this event.

Before the awards, the fleet gave a moment of silence for Jerry Huse whose time was before the formation of the National C organization. Jerry's last boat is still sailing and, fittingly, won both races on Okoboji on Saturday with Boober Schneider's last boat honoring the fallen champion by respectfully finishing second in both races. -- Farewell, Jerry. You taught us all to respect the sport and our competition.

One final race on Sunday with a near-mile windward beat. The air was hot but the gentle 10 mph breeze made for picture perfect racing and spectating. The event ended with special awards for national rankings and Road Warrior. Thanks to Delavan for two consecutive weeks of hospitality.

White Bear's Lara Dallman-Weiss to Mount Olympic Campaign in 470

White Bear's Lara Dallman-Weiss is announcing an Olympic campaign in the 470 class. She is the crew of Perfect Vision Sailing's two-women team along with College Sailor of the Year Nicole Barnes.

Lara is a 2011 graduate of Eckerd College, where she was captain and a four-year member of the sailing team, earning skipper and crew of the year honors. In 2013, she joined the US Sailing Development Team in the 470 class. Lara, as a member of the White Bear Yacht Club on White Bear Lake in Minnesota, competed in 5 ILYA X-boat youth championship regattas and has won the ILYA Youth Championship crewing in the 420. In recent years, Lara has joined several "big boat" crews, become a member of the New York Yacht Club, and started a sailing media career. This has included winning a Farr 40 North American championship and the 2016 Key West Race Week C&C 30 event. She competed for a season with Steph Roble's "Epic Racing" match race team, traveling to events in Ireland, Sweden, and South Korea.

In the Spring of 2018, Lara and Nicole joined forces to commit to this endeavor. "What has made us come together so quickly is the past racing experience we hold individually, our ideal physical size, and the desire to train relentlessly", agree Nikki and Lara. "Our game plan is to get on the water as much as we can and build our inventory and knowledge," says Barnes. Nikki and Lara had been training on Biscayne Bay off

Miami nearly every day since becoming a team in early April. "We are currently working on a schedule for the summer that balances regatta training and time on the water. We are looking forward to some long days of racing."

"Funding: since making the decision to race the 2018 Worlds, we've gone back to the drawing board about how this will all come together in a short amount of time. We have redirected funding efforts from a 2018 budget to a Worlds budget, making the number right around $40,000. Aside from sailing this coming week, seeking donations will be a major focus."

To support Barnes and Dallman-Weiss with critically needed dollars, please send checks made out to The Sailing Foundation of New York, a 501(c)3 organization that supports individuals who demonstrate the commitment and the potential to represent the United States of America at the highest possible levels in the sport of sailing. Add to the 'Memo' line: Nikole Barnes or Lara Dallman-Weiss. Mail checks to: Lara Dallman-Weiss or Nikole Barnes, P.O. box 263, Newport, RI 02840. Don't forget to check if your company matches donations to non-profits!
