Longest continuously contended sailing award in US

Crafted and sailed for in 1890, the Felker Cup is permanently on display at the Waters in Oshkosh, WI. The Cup is sailed for by locals but on those years when the A fleet is at Oshkosh, the entire fleet vies for the award. This year's Felker Cup winner is I-96, White Magic, owned and helmed by Chuck Lamphere. Joining Chuck are his two sons, Gordon and Malcolm and three Beulah sailors, John and David Porter and Michael Barr.

The National Class A Scow Association will celebrate its 15th anniversary this year on the big waters of Lake Winnebago! The lake that A Scows were originally designed for never fails to exhilarate every time we are there. Oshkosh Yacht Club (OYC) was the home of the first A Nationals back in 2004 and is a special and storied place for our fleet. It is also important to note that the A Scow is celebrating 119 years of racing this season and we will race for the Felker Cup on Thursday evening June 21 to continue this time-honored tradition. Every time we go to OYC we compete for one of these historic awards, which are older than the America's Cup. Make sure you get your gear and team ready to go for what looks to be a great event!
