Light, fluky conditions

As nearly all the SE WI lakes experienced today, setting a race course was difficult or impossible. Sailors at Pine tested the wind in the morning but came in early for lunch.

After a lengthy lunch delay, the first race began at 3:00. The first race was a beauty with a wonderful surprise as Ellie Harned led at one of the windward marks. Pine sailors excelled throughout the day.

Racing starts tomorrow at 9:00 for a more hopeful chance at steady wind.

Meanwhile in Germany --- YES, Germany

North Lake's Will Michel --- sailing at the top

Check the results at Kieler Woche for our Olympic hopefuls and young high school Will Michels. Will was as high as 4th but now sits in a most, most respectable 15th.

Steph Roble and Maggie Shea had a burst of fame as they were in first after the first day. At the event's conclusion they are in 11th and look not to make the medal race by one place --- but, what a quantum leap in skill they have developed in the last two months. They won two races in the event. Results
