Red Fleet - Jacob Zils, Ashley Mueller, Ian McClenathan, Evan Langlund, Henry Ogden

Grace Toney -Oshkosh - 5th in Blue Fleet

Seventy sailors traveled to Lake Beulah for four solid races with an overall conclusion - a great time. The large Green fleet below braved building winds as the day progressed. Individual victories abounded. Case in point was newbie Lukas Valasek whose grandparents (Bob and Cathy Allen) attended his first regatta - just as this had been his mother's first regatta host many years ago.

Green Fleet results

Jack Plummer of Geneva and Andrew Meinjtes of Madison Youth Sailing Foundation had a battle of their own while 3rd through 9th were only a few points apart. Great sailing from mostly first year and very young sailors.

Tight, tight racing in first through fourth among Jacob Zils (MInnetonka/Geneva), Ashley Mueller (Beulah), Joey Plummer (Geneva) and Henry Ackley (Pine).

Quad Lakes

Late Thursday start

July 4th is celebrating in high style on all our home lakes. Thus the Quad Lakes X regatta (which has evolved into six lakes with the addition of Mendota and Oshkosh) will have a competitors briefing at 11:30 and warning for race one at 1:00. This allows us all to celebrate our nation's birthday with great enthusiasm.
