History is Made for Second Time

E's and C's
Complete Series
with Two Sunday Races

Vincent Porter of Lake Geneva won both the A and E class ILYA Championships for the second time. He is the sole owner of this distinction. Porter began the Sunday E races in third place and won by 28 points. His crew of Coye Harrett, Kyle Navin and Clifford Porter have been with him for a few years. He won with all but Kyle (who would have been 12) when the ILYA was last at Oshkosh for its annual championship when he moved into the history books with the first completion of this feat. Congratulations to Vincent who is building his own inVINCibility.

The C race was tight. The Championship title was decided on a tie. Peter Keck and Ben Porter were in control until the wind completely shut off on one side and their sixth race rapidly became their throwout. The foxy Andy Burdick needed to finish fourth or better and HE DID. The title went to Andy, Mya and Finn Burdick.

US Sailing Provides Fun, Fun, Fun

Look and See

What a clever way to generate enthusiasm, energy and memories! The photo booth idea may be overworked at weddings but at regattas, it was friends renewing fun with friends. Sit back and laugh as you try to distinguish who the surprise guests are in some of the photos. And Buddy NEVER looked better.

Get a drink and sit down and enjoy.

Then open up that wallet, get the credit card out and join US Sailing. They write your rules, train your race committee, teach your sailing school instructors, host the Champion of Champion regatta, support your Olympic athletes (and you have a few in the Inland)-- and then consider traveling to FL February 1-3 and attending a huge number of sailors, yacht clubs and sailing gurus at the Sailing Leadership Forum in St. Pete. The Porter Family real introduction to US Sailing began at a meeting just like this one. Go and hear new ideas and share your own successes. We all benefit from each other's experiences.

And here you go -- over 1000 to view

Thanks to Larry Kmiecik and Dale Roble who took all these photos. They are unfortunately C and A based since they were both on those race courses. Larry jumped over, but rarely, to get some other photos. The photos are arranged by day. Those beginning with DSC are high res and from the C and A signal boat. Larry Kmiecik's photos are lower resolution. He is a professional and you may contact him directly to see what he has or to obtain a copy from him - again, he is a professional.

We Welcome your comments

There is no after event survey this year. We all know how much more efficient and smoothly this went. Three years is a CHARM! But we are moving to single-year events 2018-2020.

If you wish to congratulate Geneva, please forward your emails to Julie Navin, the club office secretary, who will undoubtedly share your appreciation with the club. Yacht Club members always like to hear how well they did.

If you have some constructive advice as the organization proceeds, please send it to daveporter@wi.rr.com (non-work email), commodore ILYA.

These events are about YOU! You are the customer. Help us create the event you want.

Thanks to Paul Reilly who sponsored a consultant to come view our operations. Randy Draftz, from Charleston Race Week, will deliver a report to us with helpful suggestions as we move forward. We know the social media portion is always evolving and growing. But our Facebook readership skyrocketed during the week. Thanks to all of you for spending time with us. Look for Instagram videos on our site. Dave Berg will lead you to those videos in another Scowlines coming soon.

Goodby to Lake Geneva

One Last Thank You

There was a hole in our hearts as we left this year. Three years is an eternity to a club who sacrificed as Geneva did. Volunteers gave their all. It all began when T Freytag began fundraising for the Geneva Lake Sailing School, Mike Keefe took on the design and building details and the club built themselves a magnificent edifice. We are all the beneficiaries of Lake Geneva's efforts. Thanks to the commodores, board members, Geneva members and the friends of Lake Geneva who donated to make this all possible. We truly walked in as they were putting finishing touches on paint and landscaping. And part of us feels as though it is ours as we connected at this great facility. Thank you, thank you for your monumental effort, Lake Geneva. You are a pioneer in so many ways. Thanks from the ILYA.
