ILYA E InviteSEVEN races completed! Augie Barkow closes but Burton rules the regatta

As you look through these results, note the abundance of youth and finishing near the top! While other regions of the country note the struggle to maintain youth, kudos to the E fleet for embracing and encouraging their entry into this class.

ILYA MC Invitational - Beulah

Andy Burdick sails to another ILYA victory

Andy Burdick with Al Haeger, LBYC Commodore and David Porter, ILYA Commodore

Pine sailors Victor Schultz and Bill Bischoff

Tim Fredman with George Dorn MC Chair Kathy Will - return to Beulah in September

Thank you_ thank you to our LBYC sponsor UK Sails.

Ryan Grosch won the race on Sunday but Burdick followed in second and John Porter in third to keep the top three in the same position. Two juniors were in the top five - Grosch and Henry Chestnutt. Top master was Noel Neuman, top grandmaster Stefan Schmidt, top megamaster Tim Fredman who pointed out he was taught by top OLD SALT Milt Haeger. So the age range in this fleet was 20 - 80+. Winds were steady and near 10 or slightly above the entire regatta. Three races a day proved fatiguing but so satisfying to get them all in. Last year's event featured short track racing on Harriet; longer, fatiguing races here on Beulah. This is a fleet willing to experiment with format a bit.

Oshkosh Xtreme Regatta - Day One

Lazy No Air

The youth of the Xtreme were met with extreme calm nearly the entire day. PRO David Porter positioned himself out on the point while the rest of the Xtreme contingent enjoyed camaraderie in Millers Bay. Train rides, a trip to the zoo, volleyball, parents on computers under the tent and some other shenanigans made for a relaxing late morning and early afternoon. A weather alert from Cedar from Rick Trester saying, "it's coming your way" with a dark breeze arising from Fond du Lac took the fleet out about 4:00. The first wind was a teaser but the patience of Porter led to a 3:45 texture on the water and off the fleet went. It was light air sailing which proved to be skill-building. Hurray - a race!
