No Wind - Meta and Fritz Simon Take Title

It was a day of volleyball, adult socialization and FRIENDS! Make no mistake: volleyball is serious! The home team took the sailors' and the coaches title in a clean sweep! But equally important was the candy jar win of Abby Eckert who guessed 136 and hit it right on the nail head. Who would have ever guessed she would use that number?

- 12-13 ILYA Women's/Girls' Clinic - Cedar, WI
- 14 - TCYS - Calhoun
- 14 - TRAC - Opti - Cedar, WI
- 14-16 ILYA MC Invitational - Lake Beulah YC

Of particular note today was the introductory trophy presentation speech by Marek who noted the significance of the sailing heroes and memorabilia on view at the Buddy Melges Sailing Center. The ILYA Bilge Pullers room at the entry to the building displays our history; the wall shown here behind the sailors displays true champions - Buddy Melges and Bill Bentsen with Olympic and America's Cup honors. The exceptional clean sailing and sportsmanship he commended shows our spirit and sense of fair sailing with our many friends.

The Lake Geneva crew - volunteers, employees, coaches - threw a grand party for all of us. The event continues this week with Opti, O'pen Bic and Melges 14 sailing. Hold your hats --- it is quite a week at Geneva.

TRAC - Training Opti Regatta at Cedar

Friday

Just when you think you might have had a lot of sailing ----- come to Cedar Lake YC in West Bend and get coaching for your Opti sailor. There is a green and RWB race course. Parents, Cedar is truly one of the most restful sites we visit. Sit in the most comfortable chairs and read a book! Honestly, it is that peaceful. Register here and join 35 other sailors for a great day on Cedar.
