GLSS X Dinghyfest - Day 1

Full report at <https://xboat.org/>

Two races in AM; Wind Fizzled in PM

The early morning, while everyone traveled to the event, threatened with thunderstorms. By race time, the sun appeared and the storm winds remained to provide beautiful race conditions for the opening of the GLSS X regatta. Fifty-eight sailors are registered but 56 appeared on the line. A few OCS boats took an early penalty but what a gorgeous race. Race two started with wind but the storms blew out to a lull that lasted two legs but, voila, the Fontana Beach brought a last-leg breeze that allowed all the boats to finish without invoking the secondary time limit. What patience the sailors displayed in the lightest of winds.

What a great mix of sailors at the top; great performances by the female sailors. Wow, some juniors are sailing like champs! White Bear has returned sitting in 4th overall. Minnetonka has a boat - great to see after a few years' absence. Thanks, Dad Hughes, for driving them down. At the end of Day One, a brother-sister team from Madison (but training in Pewaukee) top the leader board. Meta and Fritz Simon had a beautiful day on the water.
