Emily Sherer and Ally Hansen - Oshkosh - Take the Win

PRO Fred Barkow was blessed with perfect winds Thu and Fri for five races. Race 1 was light and shifty but the winds cooperated for four beautiful races in 8-10 MPH. The winner was determined in the last race and consistency paid off for two "best friends". The Quad Lakes is now six lakes with Oshkosh and Mendota joining perhaps seven years ago.

A real surprise was arriving to a newly-remodeled clubhouse at Nagawicka. While the main eating area, kitchen and bar retain the same rustic, charming look, the outside bar area, an added deck and the restroom/storage area is entirely revamped. It's a great new look from dedicated members who took a winter season to rejuvenate the club house. Congratulations to Nagawicka!

Rolander Wins Area E Qualifier

US Sailing Chubb Champs

More commonly known as the Smythe-Bemis-Sears Cup, the Chubb Championships will be held at Toms River, NJ this August. Henry Rolander of Lake Geneva competed in the Area E qualifier last week. He won the Area E Qualifier at Hoover Sailing Club in a tight radial fleet of 22 boats. Area E includes Eastern Michigan, Western New York, Ohio, part of Indiana, WV and KY. (Henry lives in Cincinnati in the winter months) Shown to the right in the photo is Henry with Jamie Jones who runs the youth programs at Hoover.

The Inter-Lake Yachting Association (Henry is a member of Cowan Lake Sailing Association near Cincinnati) awards a $500 grant for the kids who qualify for the Chubb Championship.
