Midwest Sailors Show Grit and Eat Grits for Thanksgiving

Charlie Allen Finishes 40th of 244!

Our youngest sailors traveled to New Orleans over Thanksgiving to enjoy warm hospitality compliments of Southern YC to compete in the Optimist Midwinters. This is again a team trial qualifier and Charlie Allen has filed his necessary paperwork to be a part of consideration for the internationals teams for 2019.

The cutest picture submitted is Gordy and Diane Bowers who traveled south to watch grandchild Conner Fanberg compete. Enjoy the photos from Tom Barnard, father of ILYA Champ Peter.

Ornaments, Gifts, Trophies

Beulah Cove

Customize your tree with you individual lake, class or sail number.

Your hitch cover awaits - a great stocking stuffer and so suitable for a sailor's car.

Or consider a class ornament with sail cloth. All these items and more are available from MC sailor, Rob Hudson. Visit Beulah Cove or the LBYC Sidestays Shoppe for more sailing related items.

And if you need a cake, special cookies or other bakery goods, contact his wife who creates magnificent concoctions. She is a trained pastry chef, just attended a most prestigious clinic on wedding cakes, does custom calligraphy and cookies that are works of art. Check out this husband-wife team for unique gifts.

Photos for Christmas?

Here is your gift for your skipper or crew

Minnetonka MC sailor Steve Bernstein took thousands of pics at the 2018 Big Inland of all of the fleets. Check his work out:

But what is really an eye catcher are Steve's headshots. Look here and pick out the sailors. The Burtons look amazing. Sam Rogers is as handsome as they come. Dan Crear - the shot captures his essence. Dan always has a smile and there it is. So arrange a session with Steve when you are up north this summer for the X Champs or for the March ILYA Board meeting.
