MELGES

We arrived to stormy skies and then a torrential downpour. The A's and MC's were relegated to breakfast provided free to all. It was a busy place in the Buddy Melges Sailing Center but this facility held us all easily. Then off to the races.

MC's were struggling to start in shifting and high/lull winds. They finally did get a race - but a light air one with times of stalling. The A's had the same but here is how it began for M-64

A's began a race but it was abandoned when the lead boats went around in a whisper and then became becalmed with the rest of the fleet. There is hope for today.

Marvelous lunches by Toothpicks and Craig Parker's Cantina and then off to the races again but THIS TIME WIND!!!!!! 10-12 for the C's and E's who completed two. So now it is only the MC's who are behind by one.

The E's spectator fleet - a little young? The extended Lyon family which here includes the Wall cousins are off to see uncles and dads sail. Three Lyon E boats and look at what is coming in a few years.

Poor photo, I know. But who should appear during our races but our Sail it Forward honorees and friends on the Gage Matriarch. While we were sailing, the real force behind all our sailing, our honorees, were feted at Pier 290 with a boat ride by the owner himself, Bill Gage. We only heard the highest accolades for the whole afternoon. The luncheon was simply lovely; the food amazing. Emcees were Sherri Mowry Perrigo who welcomed the crowd from UBS; past commodore Suzi Reese and the newest comedian/host Dick Barkow. Here's a snippet - Dick and the editor met in the morning to review each honoree to give him biographical material. The lovely Brigid Wilkening from Okoboji is a master organizer. Never has anyone organized this well. For example, she was there last night taking photos and notes already for the 2020 Big Inland at Okoboji. OK, that's organization. But, I digress. So while the editor extolled her planning virtues, Barkow turned this into the "woman who drives men crazy with her planning skills". When we mentioned Peter Wattson, he noted, "don't worry, I have loads of lawyer jokes". HMMMM, hope they survived over there.

To continue in the Sail it Forward vein, the honorees were presented individually at the evening meal. Comments were "David Perrigo gave the most amazing speech. He is incomparable". Families and club members were so proud of their honoree. This is really who we are. Dave Berg will be releasing a video of the honorees and it is a tear-jerker for those of us who love the Inland. We are unique in so many ways. We have always been a Sail it Forward organization and this was just one small way to say thank you. And here is a group shot of all those present last night. Thank you to all our local volunteers who allow us to enjoy this sport

Back to the afternoon

Race one of C's - Andy Burdick with Mya, Finn and Gloria Tornehl

Race Two - Charlie Kutschenreuter, Noah Janssen and Erin Monahan = covering Burdick the last leg. What a race.

Hopefully, E and MC photos tonight.

And, lastly the food. The caterer, Toothpicks, fed 525 of us with one of the best regatta meals ever. The lunches also by Toothpicks have been so generous in portions "roast beast" I heard yesterday. The filled cookies were to die for. We on Beulah can't say enough about this group. Local young women with unbounding energy and grace, they provide support to our local Wednesday night cookout by providing an entree or side or they do full blown meals. They opened a restaurant in Waterford which is not their fanciest work. It is attached to a golf course and it tailored to that crowd but for catering needs, their presentation is unparalleled. They do in-home small party work, add or deliver dishes for you to serve or handle it all - weddings, baby showers - we on Beulah can't be happier.
