Pewaukee - THIS SATURDAY

One of the ILYA and US Sailing's goals is to have at least one qualified US Sailing Club Judge at each inland club. While this is a tall order, we need to start by training willing candidates. This course offers a hands on approach through class room, roleplaying, and study of actual hearings. It is well worth the fee and the lunch the PYC will serve will make it all worth the trip and your time.

Who should attend this course?

You! This is not a course to make you a rules guru. You do not need full understanding of the intricacies of the Racing Rules of Sailing. This is about learning the process of protests. Many folks of all levels of sailing proficiency took the course last year. They all came away with an appreciation for running a protest meeting. Remember, protest committees are usually comprised of three individuals. You all bring differing knowledge and understanding to the hearing. Now is the time to start to feel comfortable volunteering as a judge in that hearing. Bruce Martinson is expert but brings teaching down to all levels. He
