MELGES
Performance Sailboats

Morning with big wind! The day built to a crescendo resulting in NO RACES in the afternoon. The E's managed one race but inability to anchor the RC boats in the big breeze caused no second race. One big crash and multiple tipovers - including one coming in at the pier - resulted in a memorable day. But Augie Barkow took race one.

Location, location, location - The C fleet concluded two races. Sailing near Fontana, the C's had the advantage of heavy (not howling) wind. Still five masts broken and a diminishing fleet with every additional 10 minutes sailed, it was quite a day. It seems the sailors were NOT disappointed with the afternoon opportunity to enjoy the new Buddy Melges Sailing Center.

Race One Winners - N181 Peter and Dan Keck

Race committee lost all decorum when A 77 DRAINIO crossed the finish line. Seems the old guy still has it. The smile on wife Eileen's face said it all. Peter Kerr never looked better.

Shot of the day (taken by flagship driver Conner while the rest of the boat worked the finish) - an amazing finish by B-22 Glenn McMurray nearly 10 feet from the finish and a tipover.

Today's schedule

9:00 the morning fleets go out early. MCs first followed by As.
2:00 E's and C's (15 minute stagger at the piers) for two races.

Friday Family Night - ILYA Championships, August 21st Can you accept the challenge?

Everyone is welcome. Lake Beulah and Long Lake, Illinois serve as your hosts for the Minute to Win It games. Finals at 7:00. Make your teams of six to play six preliminary games. See if you can beat the clock!! Friday night at 6:00. The best two teams will face off at 7:00.

C results - most unofficial. There is a problem with the software since the Cs have a throwout and these are re-scored by hand last night by the editor to include here.
