Epic Sailing 2nd in World Matchracing Event in Sweden

Steph Roble, Sally Barkow, Meg Six and Maggie Shea

The team moves up a spot. It was a clean record all the way to the finals. Roble lost the the top matchracer in the world 3-1 but second at a world event is not all bad. This is the first time Sally Barkow has been added to the team after her near yearlong voyage around the world. Geneva's Meg Six participated and Chicago's Maggie Shea is a permanent member of the team.

US Sailing Chubb Junior Championships

Bitney Wins Sportsmanship Award, Mark Davies Third in 420

ILYA sailors are moving up the national ladder. In the Singlehanded division Jack Bitney was 4th and Alex Bischoff was 11th of 20 sailors. Each region of the US is represented at this event. Both individuals from Area K are ILYA sailors. Jack Bitney is an ILYA X champion from Minnetonka. He will attend Tufts this Fall. Alex Bischoff is a Pine/Pewaukee sailors whose grandfather is a most recently retired US Sailing Race Committee legend.

In the doublehanded division, Mark Davies from Geneva but sailing under the Chicago YC burgee sailed consistently to third. Joshua Sullivan and Clara Brown from White Bear were the other Area K qualifier and finished 10th of 20.
