New regatta - All Iowa X Boat Regatta

Okoboji Hosts 1st Annual

June 29th and 30th, the OYC hosted the First Annual "ALL IOWA" X-Boat Regatta". Six Clear Lake X-boats traveled here to sail with our 11 boat fleet. It was perfect days of sailing on West Lake; 7 races!

On top was P11 David Alexander and Aydin Syharath with a new Melges X boat. During the "thank you" speech, He noted he highly appreciated the OYCSSL program director Kirsty thoreson who created this program. Her leadership, along with our X-fleet families, ran an efficient first event. They hosted meals and opened their houses to host our Clear Lake sailor families. Three gentlemen (Bob & Doug and Dr. Wagner) were shuttling spectator boats for our CLEAR LAKE parents. To our judges, our coaches, our OYC building entire staff, this was a truly TEAM WORK EFFORT! Mostly we thank the CLEAR LAKE sailing school coach AJ and families who brought the young excellent X- sailors to OYCSSL, and set such a good example for OYCSSL to reciprocate the visit to Clear next year!

Quad Lakes X at Cedar

New clubhouse is eye opener!

It's as though Cedar Lake Yacht Club in Wisconsin built us all a welcoming building. Renovations to the parking lot side of the club regale visitors. As you enter into the spacious open, high-ceilinged entryway, it evokes an elegant, but welcoming milieu. Thanks to Chip Mann who served as construction manager and Diane Sabotta who provided design supervision, it is an impressive addition to one of the Inland's favorite sites. With new entrances to the west side and upstairs, it gives the club a spacious, well-appointed feel with the addition of much needed space.

Nick Rusher and Sammy Eckert - 1st

Trainer and Alby Rolfs - 2nd

Alex Keck and Maddie Crucius - 3rd

William Harned and Luca Marban - 4th

John Barr and Frank Rorrer - 5th

Regatta Registration

Problems? Contact scowslants@aol.com

Most of you have registered without difficulty. New this year is payment of dues online along with regatta registration. There have been a few "kinks" in the system. Those of you registering two boats may need to use two names, i.e. Lee Alnes and L. Alnes. If that doesn't work, contact Jim Smith.

Attention ILYA FAMILY members: When registering for an ILYA regatta for your spouse or child, the ILYA membership number is your family membership number. If you don't know the number, you need look it up under your name as the principal member. You will not be able to look it up under the name of your spouse or child.

OH, MY GOODNESS! Sheer beauty!

Patrick Lynch is credited with this shot of the new Buddy Melges Sailing Center. Many of you have contributed to this final product. The ILYA Bilge Pullers have contributed to establish a room of ILYA memorabilia. The first regatta is Monday - GLSS Dinghyfest. Keep your patience about you. It will be worth it as the X boaters have a dry run for the ILYA Championships.

Prepare for the Regatta

RC observations

1 - Know your flags. The Charlie flag means the course has been changed. If RC has simply flipped the mark at the windward or gate (i.e. the offset now becomes the windward mark), a Charlie is not used. Hence, look to see where the new mark is. Your RC will have a red (left) or green (right) sign accompanying the C flag.

2 - Nothing confuses the RC like the same sail number found multiple times on the course. RC then looks to the boat deck for the number. But some boats have not changed the boat deck number or have none at all. For C and X fleets, sail and boat deck numbers are required by the scantlings. Additionally, you must have a name. Why? It gives the RC and competitor another opportunity to identify a boat finishing or fouling.

3 - READ the SI's. Is the warning signal the class flag or a red flag? It seems some homelake clubs use the red flag as a pre-warning signal. Don't be caught with a one minute error.

4 - The youth sailors know the A and H flag since they practice at GLSS and Xtreme. Adults, know if you can sail in for lunch or need to stay out for the second race.

5 - Throwout or not? THERE IS a throwout per the Racing Rules of Racing unless your SIs address this issue. Make sure your sailing instructions (regatta or homelake) are clear. SIs can only be changed by written notification. Remember to post the changes.
